Emilia - Romagna:

A Privileged Passage Through Italy's Finest Traditions

A Luxury Cultural & Gastronomic Journey
2–8 May 2027

There are journeys that entertain, and journeys that transform. This one does both — with grace, depth, and the unmistakable refinement of Emilia-Romagna. Across seven curated days, you will be welcomed into private worlds: the ateliers of master artisans, the sanctuaries of ancient art, the cellars where time itself becomes an ingredient. Every transfer, every tasting, every guided moment has been designed to feel effortless, intimate, and exquisitely personal. This is Italy at its most authentic — and its most luxurious.

DAY 1 — Sunday, 2 May 2027

Arrival · A Soft Landing Into Italian Elegance
Your experience begins with a private arrival transfer from Milano Malpensa, a seamless passage into the heart of Emilia-Romagna. Bologna awaits with its noble porticoes and warm terracotta glow. Your selected hotel offers refined comfort, attentive service, and a discreet atmosphere ideal for unwinding after your international flight. As evening settles, indulge in a welcome dinner crafted to introduce the region's culinary identity — a symphony of handmade pasta, aged cheeses, and the unmistakable generosity of Bolognese cuisine.

DAY 2 — Monday, 3 May 2027

Bologna: A City of Scholars, Towers & Timeless Flavor
Your tour leader will escort you to the historic center, where your expert guide unveils Bologna's intellectual soul. Walk beneath endless porticoes, past medieval towers, and into the world's oldest university. Inside the Archiginnasio Palace, the Anatomical Theatre stands as a masterpiece of carved wood and academic grandeur — a room that feels suspended in time. A curated gourmet tasting celebrates Bologna's iconic delicacies, each bite a tribute to centuries of culinary mastery. The evening is yours to explore the city's refined dining scene at leisure.

DAY 3 — Tuesday, 4 May 2027

Ravenna: Where Light Becomes Art
Travel east to Ravenna, a city where golden mosaics shimmer like celestial constellations. Your private guide leads you through UNESCO listed sanctuaries — the ethereal Basilica of San Vitale and the intimate Mauso- leo di Galla Placidia, where every surface glows with ancient artistry. A tasting lunch introduces Ravenna's coastal elegance, blending land and sea with refined simplicity. Return to Bologna for an evening at leisure.

DAY 4 — Wednesday, 5 May 2027

Parma: The Art of Taste, The Grace of Tradition

Parma welcomes you with understated sophistication — pastel façades, neoclassical theaters, and a gastronomic heritage revered worldwide. Your full day guided tour reveals the city's artistic and musical legacy, followed by an exclusive visit to a traditional dairy. Here, the craft behind Parmigiano Reggiano is unveiled with reverence, culminating in a tasting of its rich, nuanced layers. Continue to a salumificio, where the delicate sweetness of Prosciutto di Parma is explained, sliced, and savored in an intimate setting reserved for true connoisseurs. Dinner at leisure.

DAY 5 — Thursday, 6 May 2027

Modena: Icons of Passion, Precision & Heritage

Today's journey celebrates Modena's most iconic legacies. Begin at the Luciano Pavarotti Museum, a heartfelt tribute to the maestro's artistry, where personal objects and intimate spaces reveal the man behind the voice. Then shift into the world of Italian excellence at the Ferrari Museum, where innovation, design, and performance converge in a symphony of speed and engineering brilliance. The day concludes at an artisanal acetaia for a Traditional Balsamic Vinegar tasting, discovering the patience, mastery, and devotion behind Modena's most precious elixir — aged drop by drop into perfection.

DAY 6 — Friday, 7 May 2027

Wine Country · A Celebration of Terroir & Time

Venture into the countryside for an immersive winery experience, where rolling vineyards and fragrant cellars set the stage for a refined tasting of Emilia-Romagna's varietals. Expect elegance, depth, and the quiet luxury of a day spent among vines tended with devotion. Return to Bologna for free time — a chance to wander its elegant porticoes, explore boutiques, or enjoy an aperitivo in Piazza Maggiore. In the evening, a private transfer escorts you to a local restaurant, where dinner celebrates the region's convivial spirit and culinary artistry.

DAY 7 — Saturday, 8 May 2027

Departure · A Graceful Farewell

Your Italian journey concludes with a private transfer to Milano Malpensa Airport. As you depart, you carry with you the flavors, colors, and stories of a region that reveals its heart generously — a place where tradition is cherished, beauty is crafted, and hospitality is an art form.
