MONTHLY INSPIRATION

Louis Perry reached out to the CareerSource Pasco Hernando Youth Program in hopes of gaining assistance obtaining his high school diploma. Louis had suffered the loss of his mother through illness and was now living independently at 18 years old with support and guidance from his sister. Louis knew that he had an interest in the Technology Industry but needed help to move forward.

Career Coach Kelly Durante, along with Workforce Development Specialist Dominic Johnson, worked with Louis to meet both his educational needs through the Penn Foster High School Diploma Program as well as placing him into a paid internship with local tech company Kesseltech. Company owner Eric Kessel had this to say regarding his time with Louis:

"Here at Kesseltech we have been extremely impressed and happy to work with a candidate from the WIOA Youth Program. We needed a new entry level IT/Help Desk person and we're willing to train and mentor. This program found a responsible, excited, and motivated individual to join our team. I had never known about this program before, but I will be willing to look at this program again. It has really been a great experience and I have other friends with business that have also benefited from the opportunity this organization provides. The young people are getting great life and working skills, and the business are benefiting as well!"

On December 15, 2022, Louis joined his fellow classmates in walking across the stage to receive his high school diploma as part of the last graduating class of 2022 under the CareerSource Pasco Hernando Youth Program!

The determination and willingness to learn demonstrated by Louis during his work experience has earned him a job offer with Kesseltech!

We are so proud and excited to see where your path leads you Louis!
