NEWSLETTER | DECEMBER 2025

Dear Legacy Family,

This time last year, my husband and I began getting up very early, before dawn, to have unhurried, uninterrupted time in God's Word and in prayer. When we finished, we would bundle up and walk around our property, bracing ourselves for the cold morning air. It was still dark when we stepped outside, but by the time we reached the end of our walk, the sun would begin peeking over the horizon.

Each day, I watched as the quiet, dark, still morning, bare trees and all, slowly came alive with the colors of sunrise. What an incredible sight it was to see the night give way to the dawn. I couldn't help but marvel at God's handiwork in creation and the way the skies proclaim His workmanship.

Those mornings brought to mind a Christmas hymn I've always loved, Silent Night:

Silent night! Holy night! Son of God, love's pure light; Radiant beams from Thy holy face, With the dawn of redeeming grace...

Jesus is the Dawn of redeeming grace, the morning Sunrise, the first Light. He is the Light that illuminates our hearts, the dawn that brings hope after darkness.

This December, as you gather around a twinkling Christmas tree, cozy up by a warm fire, or wake to see the winter sunrise, may you praise God for these visible reminders of the Light of the World, Jesus. The sun rose this morning just as it did on the day He was born, and it will set again in the same steady rhythm. In that rhythm of God's grace, we find hope and live securely in Christ's finished work.

It is my prayer that this season, God's great love "dawns" on your heart in a new and powerful way, filling you with hope and leaving you changed by His presence. Jesus is the thread woven throughout the entire story of Scripture. May we wait for Him, long for Him, and look to Him this season.

And as we reflect on the Light of the World this Christmas, I can't help but think of the people who bring so much light into this community. To our residents, thank you for the joy, wisdom, and warmth you bring into our halls each day. To our families, thank you for your trust, your support, and the love you show not only to your loved ones, but to our entire team. And to our staff. thank you for serving with hearts that reflect patience, kindness, and devotion, often in quiet ways that make a lasting difference. Just as the dawn breaks through the darkness, each of you brings a unique brightness to this place, and I am sincerely grateful.

Wishing you a Christmas filled with joy, peace, and love,

Ione Battles: Embracing Life with Heart and Faith

Born in Glen Cove, New York, and raised in Port Washington, Long Island, Ione Battles grew up surrounded by family. music, and love. Her father, Charles Newbold, was a Marine in World War II, and her mother, Louise, worked as a riveter during the war before becoming a homemaker. As one of five children, lone grew up alongside her four brothers — Laurie, Kern, Robin, and Gordon.

She attended school in Port Washington until the fourth grade, when her family moved to Huntington Beach, California, and she attended Sunset Beach School. After returning to New York, she graduated from Port Washington High School. Ione fondly remembers singing around the piano with her family and selling her mother's homemade fudge and divinity at Christmastime.

Active and involved from a young age, lone was a Girl Scout and a dedicated choir member. After high school, she moved to Vermont and worked on the Button Family Farm, where she met Edward Button. The couple dated for two years before marrying, and not long after, Edward joined the Navy. During his time in the service, they lived in several states, including Michigan and Virginia, while Ione managed life on the family farm and cared for their growing family.

Together, Ione and Edward raised four children Debbie (David), Terry, Mike (Michelle). and Andy (Tracy) — and later welcomed six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. After Edward retired, the family lived in Maryland, Massachusetts, and Vermont. Edward worked as an electronics technician, and lone built a career as a bookkeeper and bank teller at Granite Bank before retiring. She later worked at Brookhaven Home for Boys and even ran a daycare during Edward's Navy years.

After 37 wonderful years of marriage, Edward passed away. Some time later, while volunteering at the State House. Jone reconnected with Jim Battles, a friend of Edward's from the Navy. Their shared memories grew into a deep companionship, and six months later, they married. Ione and Jim spent 15 happy years in Vermont before moving to Florida, where they enjoyed traveling and going on cruises. One of lone's favorite adventures was a two-week trip through several national parks in the West.

Ione has always loved reading, sewing, cooking, and knitting. A devoted member of the Methodist Church, she has volunteered in many roles — from helping with the food pantry to serving as library treasurer and property lister.

Today, Ione and Jim reside at Legacy Village of Cleveland, where they moved to be closer to family. She enjoys socializing, making friends, participating in therapy activities, and playing dominoes. Her warmth, faith, and positive spirit brighten the lives of everyone around her.

Beyond the Season: Celebrate Daily Chaplain David Taylor

Tis the season, you know, the season of all seasons; the time after giving thanks for God's protection and the bounty of harvest our forefathers began to celebrate more than four decades ago.

Many of us have already decorated our homes for this joyous time and our ears are being filled with music that inspires and uplifts our spirit. A great number of us will be extremely busy with parties and get-togethers throughout this entire month. Sure, you will hear of a few incidents of hair pulling and disputes about who saw the prized gift first. But mostly you will hear of acts of kindness, internal peace, even awe, as the words of those tunes activate our spirit to stop and realize Whom we are celebrating.

As we look at the occasions God uses to work in our lives, we see similarities to the time and circumstances used to introduce the foretold Christ. He used a secular ruler to get the chosen couple, through difficult situations, and to fulfill prophecy. He used lower class messengers to share the news and later sent kings to bow in reverence to our eventual Savior. Who, what, how could all this be accomplished? Only by the hand of an Almighty, all-Powerful, all-Knowing Provider.

When Jesus asked His disciples who they thought He was, Peter declared "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." It is easy to get so busy with the celebration that we forget Who and why we celebrate. As we reflect on God's chosen nation, Israel, we see many occasions as He protected or provided for them, and they set up markers to remind themselves. Our markers probably won't be of stone, but maybe wellplaced sticky notes, a reminder on our phone, or maybe a new habit to prompt ourselves whatever it takes.

As I began this writing, I saw a challenge to say something that had never been said before, but have concluded as Jeremiah said, "there is nothing new under the sun." We are God's people. As we enter this most sacred season, take time to ENJOY THE CELEBRATION OF OUR SAVIOR. However, why not take it a significant step further and make sure our celebration keeps going each and every day of our lives.

"If anyone forces you to go one mile, go with them two miles." Matt 5:41

Pam Healy: A Life of Faith, Creativity, and Service

Pam was born in Dayton, Ohio, in 1948 to Daniel and Maxine Macher. She grew up in a loving family alongside her elder sister Gayle, her twin brother Paul and his wife Denise, and her younger sister Jenny. Her father, Daniel, was an aircraft mechanic who had the honor of crewing for Chuck Yeager several times and later worked at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base. Her mother, Maxine, was a dedicated homemaker who passed down her love of cooking and sewing to Pam—skills that would later bless countless lives.

As a child, Pam delighted in designing clothes for paper dolls and playing kick-the-can with neighborhood friends on warm summer nights. Her lifelong love of music began early; she played clarinet in high school, often earning first chair, and sang in a special vocal group called the Triple Trio, winning top honors in state competitions.

After graduating from Vandalia Butler High School, Pam attended Ohio State University, where she earned her undergraduate degree in education and specialized in working with deaf and developmentally disabled children. She went on to complete her master's degree at Antioch University, graduating at the top of her class. Pam's passion for teaching was evident early on—she was named Ohio Teacher of the Year, leading instructional workshops for educators across the state. Together with her sister Gayle, she developed preschool programs, with Pam writing the lessons and Gayle illustrating them.

One of the most beautiful moments in Pam's journey was when she accepted Jesus into her heart. In a divine coincidence, her twin brother Paul accepted Christ that very same evening—each at a different church! From that day forward, Pam's faith became the foundation for her life and work.

Pam met her husband in a pottery class—he was the instructor (who later became a pastor), and she quickly became both his best student and his life partner. Their shared love of creativity blossomed into a thriving pottery business. Together, they were among the top sellers at Dayton's Oktoberfest arts festival during the 1970s and 80s. Pam designed and painted each piece by hand, adding imaginative details that made their art truly one-of-a-kind.

Throughout her career, Pam poured her heart into education. She began by teaching kindergarten students with developmental and hearing challenges for nearly a decade. After raising her three daughters—Katie, Rebekah, and Elizabeth—she returned to the classroom, teaching kindergarten at Christian Life Center for more than 10 years. Later, she transitioned to higher education, teaching early childhood education at Clark State Community College, where she inspired a new generation of teachers until her retirement in 2018. Even in retirement, Pam continued to serve through children's ministries at her local churches in Ohio and Tennessee.

Pam's heart for ministry was clear in every area of her life. She and her husband served together in many capacities, including a thriving singles ministry that brought many couples together in marriage. She also sang on praise teams, volunteered in children's classrooms, and helped prepare meals at local food kitchens. Alongside her twin brother Paul, she used her remarkable cooking talents to serve hundreds of people with warmth and grace.

Pam's creativity was endless—whether making dresses for her children, crafting unique pottery, baking homemade breads and pies, or turning an ordinary cheese ball into a festive holiday turkey or Christmas tree. At Christmastime, she was famous for gifting beautifully arranged plates of hand-decorated cookies to neighbors and friends. Her resourcefulness as a teacher shone through in her ability to transform anything—a sock, a pot scrubber, or even a paper plate—into a delightful puppet or learning activity for children.

Outside the classroom and church, Pam loved the outdoors—hiking and camping with her husband, exploring the Smoky Mountains on their honeymoon, and later enjoying kayaking and biking adventures with her sister Jenny's family. And of course, she was a proud fan of her beloved Ohio State Buckeyes—especially football!

Pam's joy, generosity, and steadfast faith touched everyone who knew her. She lived every day with
