Life. Love. Legacy.™

Dear Residents, Families, and Friends,

June always seems to arrive as an invitation—a gentle nudge to step outside, savor the longer days, and find joy in simple things. Gardens burst with color, porches grow livelier, and there’s a quiet sense that something new might be waiting just around the corner.

Here’s a bit of trivia that surprised me recently: June is the only month in the year without a single federal holiday. It’s funny, isn’t it? For a month so often filled with weddings, reunions, and Father’s Day celebrations, June manages to feel festive all on its own. Maybe that’s the gift of this time of year—a little extra space to make our own traditions, whether that means a leisurely walk, sharing a favorite story, or just taking time for an extra-long conversation with someone you care about.

This month, I find myself reflecting on a quiet lesson once shared by my Dad: “You don’t have to have all the answers. Just be willing to listen, and show up when it matters.” That simple wisdom has stayed with me, a reminder that the most meaningful impact often comes from small moments—patience, presence, encouragement—rather than grand gestures.

As Father’s Day approaches, it’s a chance to honor not just fathers, but all those who have offered guidance, support, and love along the way. Whether you’re remembering someone, celebrating a mentor or friend, or simply feeling grateful for the caring people in your life, I hope the day brings comfort and connection in whatever form feels right to you.

Across our community, June means more time for laughter, fresh air, and the feeling of truly belonging. Thank you for making this place so welcoming and warm. Here’s to a month of discovery, connection, and all the comforts of home.

With warmest wishes,

Logan Manning
Executive Director

PERFECT PEACE

“You will keep in perfect peace all who trust in you, all whose thoughts are fixed on you!” (Isa 26:3, NLT)

Here we have a promise of peace from God requiring only that we keep Him in mind throughout our day and our life.

A 1970s song says, I Never Promised You a Rose Garden. Whether you are remembering the song or scripture, both are true. It is very easy and common for us to be swayed by all the commotion surrounding us on a daily basis. But the promises of God are true and everlasting. Our human mind is capable of both trust and doubt and sometimes seemingly at the same time. Doubt is easy and we get confirmation from all quarters. Trust, on the other hand, must prove itself continually. In the midst of chaos, we still have the ability to trust.

Birds are by nature very skittish, have rapid flight response and a high sensitivity to movement and noise. If you ever see a bird dining on its prey on a busy road, as each car approaches it will fly away and return after the threat has passed. A few days ago I observed a crow had pulled his meal into the median and was busy feasting away with no regard for the busy traffic. Danger was all around but trust prevailed.

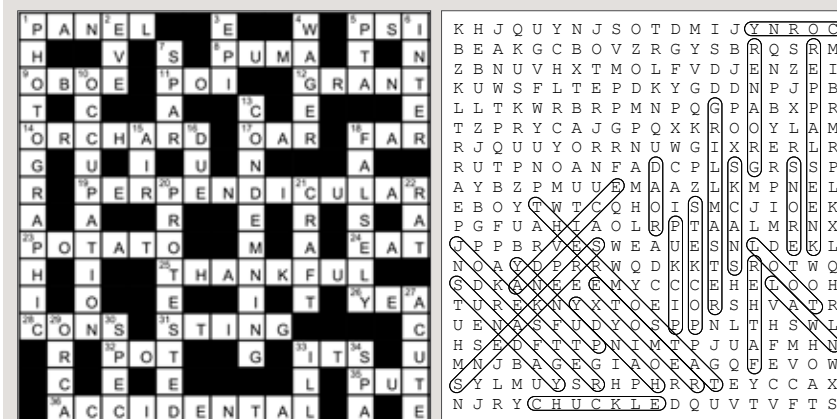

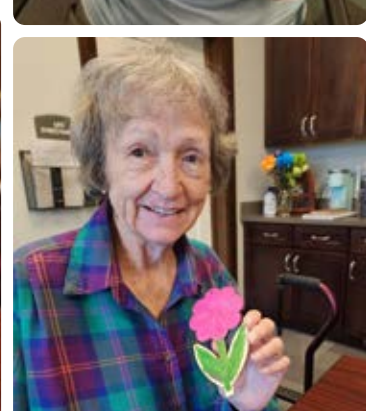

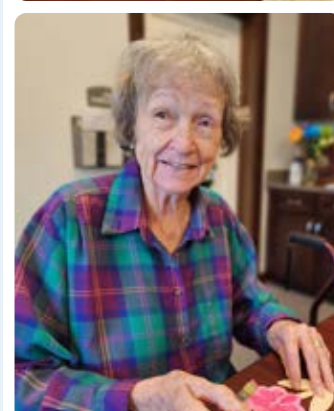

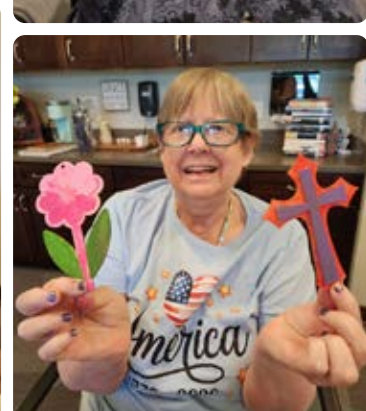

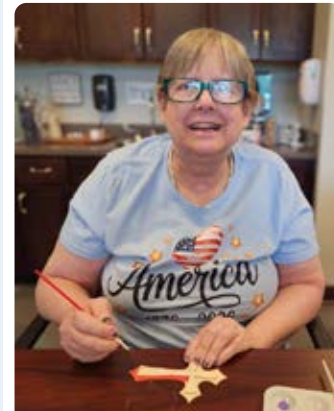

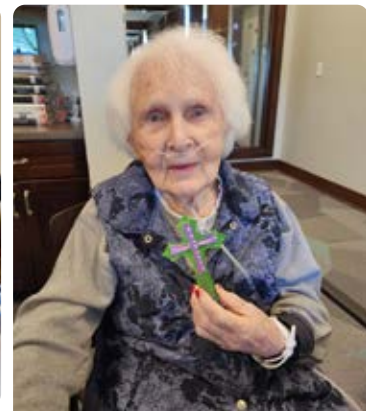

A friend of mine was in a much more dangerous situation during a mortar attack in Vietnam. As each of our soldiers scurried into their foxhole, he experienced an up-close and personal encounter as a white shield rolled over the top of his hole throughout the barrage, then disappeared when quiet returned. Talk about trust, and not just a momentary trust but a resounding “I’ve got you” trust.

You may not be eating roadkill today nor be in a foxhole, but you perhaps face uncertainty and even sometimes chaos. It’s all about knowing the ONE you can trust.

A LIFE WOVEN WITH LOVE: MEET SARAH WILLIAMS

Sarah Williams' story begins in Thorsby, Alabama, where she was born to Thomas and Hattie Manning and grew up alongside her sister, Mildred. Her childhood was filled with music, school plays at the Thorsby Institute, and days spent learning skills that would stay with her for a lifetime—like making cheese, a memory she still treasures.

After school and on weekends, Sarah worked at the local soda fountain, greeting neighbors and new faces with the same warmth she carries today. It was at Thorsby Institute that Sarah met Roy Williams, the young man who would become her partner in life. Roy's family moved to Thorsby in hopes of a brighter future, and he and Sarah soon found themselves inseparable, dating throughout high school and marrying soon after graduation.

Life took Sarah and Roy to Arlington when Roy enlisted in the Army and served as Military Police. When his service ended, they returned to Alabama, where Roy began a long career as an electrical engineer, dedicating forty years to his craft. Sarah devoted herself to creating a loving home. Roy built their family house with his own hands, and Sarah filled it with kindness, laughter, and the scent of her famous homemade salsa, made from the vegetables Roy grew in their garden.

Faith was at the heart of their family. Sarah and Roy were devoted members of 5th Ave Baptist Church, where Sarah sang in the choir, helped with Bible school, and served on the benevolent committee. Their partnership lasted seventy years until Roy's passing, and two years later, Sarah moved to Tennessee to be closer to family.

Sarah and Roy raised three children: David (Michelle), Sherry (John), and Don (Donna). She loved supporting her children in every activity, from football and cheerleading to dance and Boy Scouts. The family tree continued to flourish, and Sarah is now surrounded by seven grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. Among her most cherished memories are the days she watched her grandchildren ride the tractor with Roy, laughter ringing out across the yard.

Sarah's talents extended to sewing clothes for her children, making drapes for their home, and searching for treasures while antiquing. Holidays were always a highlight, not for the decorations or gifts, but for the chance to gather everyone close. Sarah once reflected that she lived a simple life, but it was one filled with love and happiness, every single day.

Today, Sarah finds joy in reading, playing bingo, doing word searches, and making new friends at Legacy Village. Her warmth and kindness have found a new home here, and we are grateful every day that she chose to be part of our community.

NEW CHAPTERS IN NURSE LEADERSHIP AT LEGACY VILLAGE

With Abby stepping into a new leadership role and April joining our community, we're excited to introduce the team guiding Resident Services forward.

Abby Bugher, LPN
Resident Services Director

Stepping into the role of Resident Services Director at Legacy Village of Cleveland feels like a natural next step in a place that already feels like home. Over the past three years, Legacy has meant more to me than any job ever could. It's a community that has welcomed me in, given me purpose, and surrounded me with residents, families and colleagues I care for deeply.

My journey here began in 2023 as a floor nurse. In October 2025, I became Assistant Resident Services Director, and now, I'm honored to step into this new role. My background is in assisted living, dialysis and hospice care—fields that have taught me so much about compassion, dignity and the quiet strength it takes to care for others.

What I love most about Legacy is the relationships I've built. I tell people I've gained more than 70 bonus grandparents and families, and I mean it. These bonds are a privilege I never take for granted. Helping others, solving problems and making sure each resident can enjoy life to the fullest is what inspires me every day.

When I'm not at Legacy, I'm usually spending time with my husband, who happens to be a chef and the love of my life. At home, you might find me working on embroidery, getting lost in a good book or—my latest adventure—giving golf a try. My faith is at the center of everything I do, guiding how I live and how I care for others.

I believe God places us where we're meant to be, and I feel grateful every day that my journey brought me to Legacy Village of Cleveland. I look forward to many more years of serving this wonderful community and sharing in all the moments, big and small, that make this place feel like home.

Abby

April Group, LPN
Assistant Resident Services Director

I'm thrilled to join Legacy Village of Cleveland as Assistant Resident Services Director. For me, caring for seniors isn't just a job—it's a calling that has shaped my life and my heart, especially in assisted living and memory care.

As a Licensed Practical Nurse, I've spent several years in senior living, working in assisted living, rehabilitation and memory care. These environments are where I feel most at home and most inspired. My passion is supporting residents and families, and creating a place where everyone feels safe, valued and understood.

Home for me is Ooltewah, where I live with my husband and our energetic triplets, who turn every day into a new adventure. We also have an older son carving out his own path in Ohio, close to our extended family. When I'm away from work, I love spending time with my family, baking in the kitchen and diving into creative projects.

I'm grateful for the chance to become part of the Legacy Village of Cleveland family, and I look forward to serving the residents, families and team members who make this community feel like home.

MEET SAM COOPER: A Story of Family, Craftsmanship and Community

The life of Sam Cooper has always been about doing things with heart—w h e t h e r he's growing a garden, caring for his family, or lending a hand in his community. Born on June 24, 1949, in Algood, Tennessee, Sam was raised alongside his sister Janie and brother Mike by parents who valued hard work and service. His dad, Howard, spent years on the road as a truck driver, while his mom, Winnie, brought fairness and compassion to her work as a judge for the Department of Employment Security. Their home was a place where responsibility was expected, but kindness was just as important.

hung up his white coat at age 67, remembered warmly by the many customers and coworkers whose lives he touched.

But for Sam, work was just one part of a much bigger story. He met Kathie, his soulmate, at Algood United Methodist Church, and together they built a family grounded in love and laughter. Sam lights up when he talks about his daughters, Lindsay and Liza, and their families. His four grandkids—Ellie, Elijah, Natalie, and Sydney—bring him endless joy, and his great grandson, Cooper Samson Abwavo, carries his name into the next generation.

Outside of work and family, Sam put his hands and mind to all sorts of projects. He kept a garden that could feed a small army, crafted beautiful furniture in his workshop, and found peace in the pages of a good book. He collected guns, coins, and stamps, always searching for the next story or treasure. History called to him too, and he became a dedicated war re-enactor, keeping the past alive for others. And if you've ever tasted his cooking, you know he was as talented in the kitchen as he was in the garden or the garage.

Travel was another of Sam's passions—he treasured trips to Maine and England, always eager to see what was around the next bend. Through every adventure, Sam's steady character and warmth have made him the kind of person people want to be around: loyal, curious, generous, and proud of the life he's shaped.

Sam's pharmacy career became a steady thread in his life. He spent two decades at Eckerd Drug in Cleveland, Tennessee, getting to know just about everyone in town by name. Later, he returned to Cookeville, caring for patients at the regional medical center, Rite Aid, and Algood Drug, never losing sight of the human side of medicine. He finally

When you meet Sam, you get the sense that, whatever he does, he does it fully—and always with a quiet smile. We're grateful to have him in our community, and even more so to call him a friend.
