

OPC Guide & Calendar 2025 & 2026

General Information

What does OPC Stand for?	Orientation and Preparation Course – a 2-day programme to prepare you for nursing in Aotearoa New Zealand.
How do I book the OPC?	The OPC is automatically booked for you when you book an OSCE.
When is the OPC?	You will attend the OPC before your OSCE. The OPC runs for 2 days from 8:30am – 3pm on both days. For more detailed information that relates to your specific OPC & OSCE date follow the guide & calendar on the next page.
Where is the OPC?	University of Canterbury, Christchurch in one of 2 campuses, Main or Dovedale in buildings Whēki Building or Ōtākaro Building Check the guide for specific campus, building and room locations. Scroll to the end of this document for full instructions for finding each room.
Food Requirements:	You will not be provided lunch. For more information about food availability contact University of Canterbury.
Important Information:	Not all OSCE dates listed on the calendar will be available to book, check your NMSAC Candidate Portal www.ncnz.useclarus.com for up-to-date OSCE availability.

OPC Campus Building and Room Location Guide

University of Canterbury

Dovedale Campus

Ōtākaro Building

The building is best found off the first car park on the right as you enter the campus from Dovedale Ave.

- Room 121, 122 & 132

All rooms are located on level 1 – ground floor to the left.

Whekī Building

- Rooms 102, 103, 104, 105 and 106

Enter the main entrance of Whekī building and turn to the left past the stairwell through the first set of doors. From here you will see the rooms are numbered, look for the corresponding number.

- Room 451

This is a large classroom located on the fourth floor of the Whekī building. To get to the fourth floor you will need to take either the stairs or the lift, located at the main entrance of the building. Go to the third floor.

When exiting the lift, turn left and go through the door. Once through the door take the stairs or lift on your left up to the fourth floor where you will find room 451.
