1. CLMA MEETING

A CLMA meeting is planned for Thursday 8th of June via ZOOM at 9:30 (or if you are in town you can come to our house- 84/lot 5448 Heenan Rd ROSS) . All Welcome.

2. ARID LANDS COMMUNITY IMPACT GRANT WORKSHOP

Following on from the Program info webinar the other day, there will be a Workshop to network ideas for how we can make our community more resilient in and after drought times. Programs aimed to support 18-35yr olds will be high on the agenda.

You are all invited to attend the Workshop next week, Friday June 2nd 11:30-2:30 at the Bohning Yards. See attached info flyers from the webinar. If you cannot attend but have some ideas please feel free to pass them on to clma@clma.asn.au or Shannan Hayes ehoe@ntca.org.au

3. LAND FOR WILDLIFE NEWSLETTER

The Land for Wildlife people have published a lovely newsletter – please go to this link to read up about the latest news for our native flora and fauna in our area.

4. LANDCARE NT MAY NEWSLETTER

The latest Landcare NT News can be found here- some interesting articles from all over the NT.

5. LIVER FLUKE SURVEY

Livestock Biosecurity Officer, Casey Ellis is wondering – have you noticed on your ‘kill sheets’ any reports of cattle with Liver Fluke? The OMP research station is studying how widespread this may be, so please provide Casey with any feedback.
