4. RED CENTRE- RURAL LADIES DAY EVENT, 14TH OCTOBER: TICKETS ON SALE NOW

The Red Centre - Rural Ladies celebration will be held in line with International Rural Women's Day, celebrated all over the world. We invite everyone to join us in celebrating and recognising the contribution rural women make towards life on the land. Also, an opportunity to catch up over a meal, drinks, entertainment, dancing and more. Furthermore, this event will provide an excellent networking opportunity for business representatives from companies that support the industry and this gala occasion and to socialise with the wider pastoral and agricultural community, local businesses, families, and visitors to the region. It is very exciting that our event will be the very first gala, black tie event for International Rural Women's Day held in the Central Desert Region this year. We will have live entertainment from some of the biggest names in the business including Tania Kernaghan, guest speakers Jillaroo Jess & Zoe Carter, beautifully catered food and drinks by reality bites, best dressed prizes, lucky door prizes, an awards ceremony to celebrate 3 amazing Central Australian Women, one extravagant MC, a performance from CoCo & Co as you enter our event and so much more.

FIRE & ICE GALA ATTIRE. This is one event that's not to be missed.

5. CARBON EDGE 2 DAY TRAINING PROGRAM- DATE CLAIMER 28/29 NOVEMBER

Carbon EDGE is a two-day training program for the red meat industry, providing participants with an understanding of the opportunities for emissions reduction and carbon storage activities in a livestock grazing business.

Carbon EDGE is unique because it provides independent, relevant and current industry research and fact-based information.

Carbon EDGE will cover:

- Key terminology and concepts relating to greenhouse gases (GHG) within the red meat industry
- Understanding the greenhouse gas emissions footprint within individual livestock businesses
- In-depth information on the practices to reduce and sequester GHG within a livestock grazing business
- Weighing up opportunities and risks associated with generating carbon credits and how they can be used to benefit livestock businesses
- Understanding carbon neutrality and how it aligns to your business goals
- Developing a carbon action plan that incorporates practical, achievable strategies to meet your objectives.

Who is the Carbon EDGE program for?

Carbon EDGE is for producers who are looking to build their understanding of carbon into a planning and action phase, integrating practices and technologies into their business that will benefit their bottom line and the environment.

Learn through group-based activities and tools, applying new information to your own carbon account and context, with the support of an expert deliverer. Every workshop will include case studies and examples for participants to learn from. All participants receive a manual, a workbook and tools and resources to take home.

Register now at <https://www.pinionadvisory.com/carbonedge/>

Pilot workshops will be offered at a discounted rate of $750 per person. Also, please note that places at these pilot workshops are limited and you are encouraged to register early.
