PART 8 – CONSIDERATION OF CREDIT HISTORY

Important Information, read carefully:

Under California law, applicants with a government rent subsidy have the option, at the applicant's discretion, of providing lawful, verifiable alternative evidence of the applicant's reasonable ability to pay the portion of the rent to be paid by the tenant, including, but not limited to, government benefit payments, pay records, and bank statements.

If an eligible applicant elects to submit such alternative evidence, Landlord will consider that alternative evidence instead of the applicant's credit history.

Option 2: Alternative Evidence of Ability to Pay
(This option is ONLY available to government rent subsidy recipients)

If you either:

- Do NOT have a government rent subsidy OR
- Do have a government rent subsidy but are not choosing to submit alternative evidence of your ability to pay rent to be considered instead of credit history

Applicant: read and check the box below.

Applicant authorizes the Landlord to obtain reports that may include credit reports, unlawful detainer (eviction) reports, bad check searches, social security number verification, fraud warnings, previous tenant history and employment history.

If you both:

- DO have a government rent subsidy AND

Applicant: read and check the box below.

Applicant authorizes the Landlord to obtain reports other than credit reports, such reports may include unlawful detainer (eviction) reports, social security number verification, fraud warnings, previous tenant history and employment history.

Application will not be considered complete until Applicant submits their verifiable alternative evidence of the ability to pay.

By signing below, Applicant represents that all the above statements are true and correct, authorizes verification of the above items, and agrees to furnish additional references upon request.
