The Paupers Pantry

695 Main Street Fitchburg

Starting Nov 3rd, anyone struggling to put dinner on their table is invited to stop in between 3p-5p. They are offering take and bake dinners for a family of four. To maintain anonymity, please go to the register and simply state that you are there to pick up a take and bake. If you are without transportation, please call and they will arrange delivery.

To help support this cause, they have implemented a $12 donation, the estimated cost of the dinner if you would like to donate, please call 978-627-3924.

Food Distribution sponsored by City of Fitchburg

Legislative Building 700 Main St. Fitchburg

Friday Nov 7th 5p-7:30p

First come first serve basis depending on donations received.

C&S Pizza 51 Main Street Pepperell 978-433-2034

Starting 11/4 C&S Pizza is offering free family takeout meals for those who have lost their snap benefits. This offer is good Tuesday through Thursdays every week until the government ends the shutdown, and benefits are restored. The Community Family Meal includes Large Cheese Pizza, Large Fries and 2 Liter Soda. How to order: Call 978-433-

2034. Place an order for a community Family Meal. When picking it up simply show your EBT SNAP card to Bill or Christina.

How to Help

Join Worcester-Area Faith Communities and Friends in supporting families who rely on SNAP and are now at risk of hunger due to the shutdown and stalled budget negotiations.

They're collecting FOOD CARDS in $50 (or $25) increments from:
Price Rite, Price Chopper, Compare Foods, and Shaws

Food gift cards can be dropped off at the front desk, from M-F from 8:30am-4:30pm at

The Worcester Family Resource Center
20 Cedar Street
Worcester, MA 01609

Or at

Worcester Community Action Council
18 Chestnut Street, Suite 500, Worcester, MA. 01608

They are open during these times except for holidays.
