Celebrant You shall not steal.

People Amen. Lord have mercy.

Celebrant You shall not be a false witness.

People Amen. Lord have mercy.

Celebrant You shall not covet anything that belongs to your neighbor.

People Amen. Lord have mercy.

Celebrant Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." Mark 12:29-31

THE CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

SALUTATION

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The People sit.

THE FIRST READING Jeremiah 31:31-34

Reader A reading from Jeremiah.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

(Silence)

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Verses

9 How shall a young man cleanse his way? *

By keeping to your words.

10 With my whole heart I seek you; *

let me not stray from your commandments. (Refrain)

11 I treasure your promise in my heart, *

that I may not sin against you.

12 Blessed are you, O Lord; *

instruct me in your statutes. (Refrain)

13 With my lips will I recite *

all the judgments of your mouth.

14 I have taken greater delight in the way of your decrees * than in all manner of riches. (Refrain)

15 I will meditate on your commandments * and give attention to your ways.

16 My delight is in your statutes; *

I will not forget your word. (Refrain)

THE EPISTLE READING Hebrews 5:5-10

Reader A reading from Hebrews.

Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him,

“You are my Son,
today I have begotten you”;
as he says also in another place,

“You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.”

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

(Silence)

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

THE HOLY GOSPEL John 12:20-33

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

"Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—'Father, save me from this hour'? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The People sit.

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The People stand or kneel.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Form II

The Deacon bids the Prayers of the People. In the course of the silence after each bidding, the People offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Leader I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; our Presiding Bishop; for our Bishops; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people. Pray for the Church.

Silence

Silence

Leader I ask your prayers for the departed, Pray for those who have died.

Silence

Leader Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored. Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.

Silence

Celebrant Almighty God, to whom our needs are known before we ask, help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our blindness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Holy Communion

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Celebrant Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM "Christus factus est" WM. GLENN OSBORNE

Latin Christus factus est pro nobis obediens usque ad mortem, mortem autem crucis.

English Christ for us became obedient unto death, even death on a cross.

Please stand as you are able. All sing.

PRESENTATION HYMN Doxology on (Eighth Tune) MUSIC: THOMAS TALLIS

Praise God from whom all bless-ings flow; praise him, all crea-tures here be-low; praise him a - bove ye heav'n - ly hosts: praise Fa - ther, Son and Ho - ly Ghost.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who was in every way tempted as we are, yet did not sin; by whose grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer unto ourselves, but unto him who died for us and rose again.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS "Holy, holy, holy" (Eucharist of the Soul) LENA MCLIN

The musical score is written on three staves in 4/4 time. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are: "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord, God of power and". The second staff continues the melody with lyrics: "might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san-na in the high-est." The third staff concludes the piece with lyrics: "Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san-na in the high - est." The music features various note values including half notes, quarter notes, and eighth notes, with some triplets indicated by a '3' over the notes.

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD’S PRAYER

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast.

A message from For Seasons Minis-tries

Thank you St. Richard's Episcopal church for your generous donations! We have very little left on our shelves, so if you've made a donation it has probably already gone home with a grateful someone.

Weekly corporate sponsorships are available for $400. This amount covers what we purchase from Second Harvest each week to serve an average of 130 people. Very special thanks to previous corporate sponsors, Orlando Bridge Club and Publix.

We would love to be able to provide a dozen eggs for Easter for each of the families we serve. If you would like to help with that, please bring a dozen eggs to church with you on Sunday, March 24.

The Enneagram & Spiritual Formation

The Enneagram is an ancient personality typing system that beautifully blends spirituality and psychology, and as such is a highly effective tool for the inner, transformative work of healing, change and growth. It is predicated on the belief that there are core motivations inherent in each personality type that drive behavior and shape the unique lens through which we see and relate to the world and others around us. The Enneagram from a Christian perspective, specifically, espouses that there are 9 distinct personality types in the world and that each personality type is a reflection of an aspect of the Divine nature of God deposited into each of us.

In this 10-week series will explore the origin and historic development of the Enneagram, and develop a good overview of the 9 personality types with the goal of deepening our self-awareness, enhancing our relationships and motivating greater spiritual transformation in our lives.

Talk to the Theologian!

Each week, Jim Christoph will be available for questions and discussion about all your theological questions. Jim has his Ph.D. from Duke University and taught at Warner University for 30 years. If you have questions, Jim has answers! Jim will be in the Theological Library on Tuesdays from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. Feel free to drop in!

THE PRAYER TREE A Healing Vine of Hope

When at St. Richard's Church or passing by on the way to your everyday activities, visit our "Prayer Tree" on the front lawn of the Church near the sacristy door. Step under the tree canopy, open the prayer tree box and write your thoughts, wishes and prayers on the enclosed white card. Slip the white card in the zip lock plastic sleeve (be careful to seal the zip lock sleeve to protect your prayer from the weather) and then hang it on the "Prayer Tree". It has been said, prayers hung on a prayer tree will stay in place for years to come despite stormy weather conditions.

We especially invite you to bring the children of St. Richard's as well as the surrounding area to the tree for prayer and reflection. The right side of the tree has a low area where the children can hang their prayers. Our "Prayer Tree" provides all of us the opportunity to express ourselves in a heartfelt and unique way.
