THE WORD OF GOD

THE FIRST READING Isaiah 55:1-5

Reader A reading from Isaiah.

Thus says the Lord:
"Ho, everyone who thirsts,
 come to the waters;
and you that have no money,
 come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk
 without money and without price.
Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread,
 and your labor for that which does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good,
 and delight yourselves in rich food.
Incline your ear, and come to me;
 listen, so that you may live.
I will make with you an everlasting covenant,
 my steadfast, sure love for David.
See, I made him a witness to the peoples,
 a leader and commander for the peoples.
See, you shall call nations that you do not know,
 and nations that do not know you shall run to you,
because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel,
 for he has glorified you."

THE EPISTLE READING Romans 9:1-5

Reader A reading from Romans.

I am speaking the truth in Christ-- I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit-- I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

THE HOLY GOSPEL Matthew 14:13-21

Gospeller
People

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

NICENE CREED

All

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The People stand or kneel.

The People stand or kneel.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

Our own director of music Dr. Carl MaultsBy has received the prestigious Nelson R. Burr Prize for 2026 from the Historical Society of the Episcopal Church. The award was announced on Thursday, July 29 at the Historical Society's annual meeting. Dr. MaultsBy received the prize for his article, "Afro-centric Liturgical Music and Its Implementation at St. Philip's, Harlem."

Funeral service will be held for Molly Jones with interment to follow in our Memorial Garden.

Confirmation

Confirmation will be celebrated by the Bishop here at St Richard's on October 1, 2026 in the evening (time to be determined). This will be confirmation for all Confirmands from parishes in the Central Deanery of the Diocese (Orlando Metro area). St Richard's has seven Confirmands. If there is anyone who wishes to be included for Confirmation, please contact Fr. Dale.

Prayers for Specific Individuals both Members and Non-Members – a New Way

The Pastoral Care Commission and the Priest-in-Charge have had discussions trying to find the best way to provide prayer for those we have been naming in our Sunday worship services and more. Here is our Prayer for Individuals Plan.

1. Names of those for whom we pray will no longer be named in the Sunday services. However, an ample time of silence will be provided for anyone to name names aloud or in silence for whom they wish prayer.
2. Names on our prayer list for members and non-members alike will be forwarded to three groups within the congregation who will pray specifically for these people: The P-Mail (Morning Prayer Mail) list managed by Art Pini and prayed for in online Morning Prayer; the Pastoral Care Commission members who will pray privately for these people; and the Wednesday Noon Healing Eucharist where the names will be names aloud.
3. The Prayer List will be printed in the bulletin for your personal prayers.

If you have someone for whom you would like prayer, just notify the church office. They, in turn, will notify all three prayer groups. You can also notify P-Mail at arthurapini@gmail.com. These prayer lists will also include those who cannot be with us in in-person worship. People who have died will still be named in both of the Sunday worship services.

New Biblical Book in the Wednesday Bible Study to begin August 5

The Wednesday morning Bible Study group led by Fr. Dale will begin a new biblical book study on August 5. The choice is Paul's Letter to the Galatians. The class meets in the Conference Room at 10:00 a.m. every Wednesday.

The letter to the church in Galatia is one of the most important documents from the early church about its history and about early Christian thought. The central challenge of this letter is for us to understand what it means to live out the freedom with which Christ has made us free and not to let ourselves become oppressed. It also contains a powerful theological discourse affirming the equality of women on all levels within the Church and society at a time with such affirmations were rare.

The resources for this course will be Galatians, J. Louis Martyn, The Anchor Bible, and N. T. Wright, Galatians, in his Commentaries for Christian Formation. It is not necessary for participants to buy these books. Fr. Dale will be using them as resources for his presentations/discussions.

You are most welcome. Please come!

Two Rooms Available to Member Ministries

We have two rooms available to rent by any who would want to become "member ministries" at St Richard's. One is the room off the Parish Hall that was Michelle Christoph's yarn shop. This is actually two rooms, one large and one smaller for an office or storage. The second available room is in the back building, the room between Lisa's Pet Training room and the Flower Guild Room. It was Scott Schurerman's room until last week. If you know of any business or persons looking for office or business space that would qualify as one of our member ministries, please contact Dru in the Church Office or speak with Stephen O'Connell, our Junior Warden. Income from member ministries helps to keep St Richard's going financially.

Sunday Evening Worship

It is the practice of St. Richard's parish to offer three services every Sunday, an 8 AM Rite I Eucharist, a 10:30 AM Rite II Eucharist with music, and a 5 PM evening worship service.

On the second Sunday of each month, a Celtic Evening Prayer is held in the Lady Chapel. On the fourth Sunday of each month, a contemplative Taizé service is held with chants and prayers around the cross. On the first, third and occasional fifth Sunday of each month, our parishioners gather for Evening Prayer and Compline. This is a lay-led service of readings and prayers.

These services are intimate, quiet, offering peaceful worship at the end of long weeks and the beginning of the next. Everyone is invited to attend.
