THE WORD OF GOD

THE FIRST READING 1 Kings 19:9-18

Reader A reading from Kings.

At Horeb, the mount of God, Elijah came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away."

He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." Then the Lord said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. Whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill. Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

THE EPISTLE READING Romans 10:5-15

Reader A reading from Romans.

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that "the person who does these things will live by them." But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down) "or 'Who will descend into the abyss?'" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say?

"The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart"

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able and remain standing until the Sermon time.

THE HOLY GOSPEL Matthew 14:22-33

Gospeller
People

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid."

Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

NICENE CREED

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.
Amen.

Our Livestream Cameras are Inoperable

Both of our livestream cameras were destroyed by lightning surge, we think. The Vestry is considering bids for replacement and will try to have the system up and running as soon as possible.

Appeal for Special Giving for Our Livestream Cameras

As you may have noticed, our livestream is not what it should be. Both of our cameras were "fried" by lightning. We submitted an insurance claim for this, and it was approved. However, we need to pay the $5000 deductible to the Insurance. The total claim is for $6429. If you are interested in helping us with the $5000 expense, we would appreciate your special gift. Mark checks "Camera Appeal" or mark giving through the website "Camera Appeal." This is a vital part of our ministry. We appreciate your faithful consideration of this unexpected need.

Confirmation

Confirmation will be celebrated by the Bishop here at St Richard's on October 1, 2026 in the evening (time to be determined). This will be confirmation for all Confirmands from parishes in the Central Deanery of the Diocese (Orlando Metro area). We have been asked to host the event and to welcome sister parishes to our ministry. A combined choir is being organized for this service. A reception will follow.

St Richard's has seven Confirmands. If there is anyone who wishes to be included for Confirmation, please contact Fr. Dale.

Prayers for Specific Individuals both Members and Non-Members – a New Way

The Pastoral Care Commission and the Priest-in-Charge have had discussions trying to find the best way to provide prayer for those we have been naming in our Sunday worship services and more. Here is our Prayer for Individuals Plan.

1. Names of those for whom we pray will no longer be named in the Sunday services. However, an ample time of silence will be provided for anyone to name names aloud or in silence for whom they wish prayer.
2. Names on our prayer list for members and non-members alike will be forwarded to three groups within the congregation who will pray specifically for these people: The P-Mail (Morning Prayer Mail) list managed by Art Pini and prayed for in online Morning Prayer; the Pastoral Care Commission members who will pray privately for these people; and the Wednesday Noon Healing Eucharist where the names will be named aloud.
3. The Prayer List will be printed in the bulletin for your personal prayers.

If you have someone for whom you would like prayer, just notify the church office. They, in turn, will notify all three prayer groups. You can also notify P-Mail at arthurapini@gmail.com. These prayer lists will also include those who cannot be with us in in-person worship. People who have died will still be named in both of the Sunday worship services.

New Biblical Book in the Wednesday Bible Study

The Wednesday morning Bible Study group led by Fr. Dale began a new biblical book study on August 5. The choice is Paul's Letter to the Galatians. The class meets in the Conference Room at 10:00 a.m. every Wednesday.

The letter to the church in Galatia is one of the most important documents from the early church about its history and about early Christian thought. The central challenge of this letter is for us to understand what it means to live out the freedom with which Christ has made us free and not to let ourselves become oppressed. It also contains a powerful theological discourse affirming the equality of women on all levels within the Church and society at a time with such affirmations were rare.

The resources for this course will be Galatians, J. Louis Martyn, The Anchor Bible, and N. T. Wright, Galatians, in his Commentaries for Christian Formation. It is not necessary for participants to buy these books. Fr. Dale will be using them as resources for his presentations/discussions.

You are most welcome. Please come! It is NOT TO LATE to join.

Sacred Time, Contemplative Prayer

Tuesdays at 10:30 a.m. in the Lady Chapel at St. Richard's. Join us for an hour of contemplative prayer, silence, and gentle guidance in a peaceful setting. All are welcome; no prior experience is needed.

Sunday Evening Worship

It is the practice of St. Richard's parish to offer three services every Sunday, an 8 AM Rite I Eucharist, a 10:30 AM Rite II Eucharist with music, and a 5 PM evening worship service.

On the second Sunday of each month, a Celtic Evening Prayer is held in the Lady Chapel. On the fourth Sunday of each month, a contemplative Taizé service is held with chants and prayers around the cross. On the first, third and occasional fifth Sunday of each month, our parishioners gather for Evening Prayer and Compline. This is a lay-led service of readings and prayers.

These services are intimate, quiet, offering peaceful worship at the end of long weeks and the beginning of the next. Everyone is invited to attend.
