GLOBAL
METHODIST CHURCH

Bishop Mark Webb

“ If your church isn't willing to MULTIPLY disciples and MULTIPLY churches, the Global Methodist Church probably isn't for you. ”

GMC Values

Scriptural

The Bible is not a relic — it is a living word, sharp and active, burning in our bones. We place ourselves under the full authority of Holy Scripture as the true and trustworthy witness to God's saving work in Jesus Christ. It reveals the Father's heart, declares the Lordship of Christ, and drives us by the power of the Holy Spirit into lives of faithful, fearless obedience.

Empowered

We were never meant to run on human strength; we were made to live in complete dependence upon the Holy Spirit. We live by the Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead, breaks sin's grip, breathes resurrection life into dead places, and fills ordinary people with holy power. He reshapes our desires, steadies our steps, and makes us bold. We yield to his voice, burn with his presence, and move wherever he sends. Pentecost is not a memory we honor. It is a fire we carry.

GMC Values

Wesleyan

We refuse to settle for a faith that merely forgives and goes no further. We press on — relentlessly, joyfully — toward entire sanctification: a heart so consumed by love for God and neighbor that sin finds no room to dwell. This is our inheritance. This is our fire. This is our way of making disciples.

GMC Values

Missional

The grace that saves us will also sanctify us. Every believer is called, empowered, and sent to follow Jesus into the world. We multiply disciples, express mercy and justice, raise up servant leaders, and plant churches that plant churches, until the knowledge of the glory of God covers the earth as the waters cover the sea.

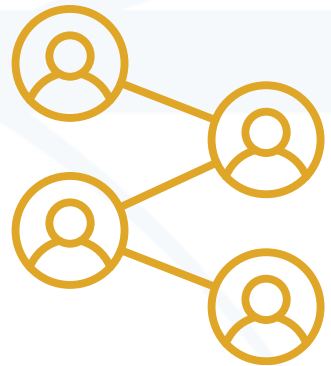

GMC Values

Global

The church of Jesus Christ cannot be contained by any nation, culture, language, or border. The Holy Spirit is on the move across the whole earth, and we will move with him — equipping and empowering every local expression of the global body, joining hands across every divide, and bearing witness together until every tongue confesses that Jesus Christ is Lord.

GMC Values

Connectional

We are more than a denomination. We are a movement of covenant people, bound together in holy love. We watch over one another with accountability and the fierce tenderness of the early Methodists. We pray together, suffer together, bear fruit together. Our churches are not islands — they are outposts of one great mission. Together, and only together, we are strong enough to storm the gates of hell.
