

Privacy Policy

We do not sell, rent or otherwise disclose personal information collected by our site, telephone system, or other forms of communication, to third parties in the ordinary course of business. However, certain third-party agents (e.g., ISP) and other third parties performing services for the site sponsor (technical auditors, developers, order fulfillment operations) may have access to the personally identifiable information to do their jobs.

You may browse our website at any time without giving us any personal information at all. Entry of any personal information is completely voluntary and is only requested from visitors that wish to receive additional information about the Global Methodist Church. Personal information is defined as any information that may be used to identify you. This includes but is not limited to your name, title, employer, phone number, email address, and mailing address. The Global Methodist Church's marketing professionals may retain your personal information in order to keep you apprised of recent developments.

Any personal information you provide will be stored securely in a manner only accessible to the Global Methodist Church. The Global Methodist Church will not sell or share this information with any other company. At any time you may request that your personal information be removed from our records, at which point you will receive no further contact from the Global Methodist Church. The Global Methodist Church will only disclose your personal information if required to do so by law. The Global Methodist Church may also disclose your personal information to (1) conform to legal requirements or comply with legal process served on the Global Methodist Church or this website; (2) protect and defend the rights or property of the Global Methodist Church and this website; (3) enforce its agreements with you, or (4) act in urgent circumstances to protect personal or public safety.

Registration may be required to access certain resources offered on the site or to make purchases. For example, in a few areas on our website, we ask you to provide information that will enable us to verify whether you are entitled to access and use certain information, materials and services available from our website, or to enable us to enhance your site visit, to assist you with service or technical support issues, or to follow up with you after your visit, or to otherwise support your relationship with the Global Methodist Church. It is completely optional for you to participate. However, failure to participate may mean that you cannot access and use certain information, materials and services.

In the case of newsletters or mailing lists, you will be able to "unsubscribe" to these mailings at any time.

The Global Methodist Church does use traffic analysis software to analyze traffic on this website. The Global Methodist Church collects and analyzes information about web browsers, operating systems, search engines and search terms, geographic locations, as well as what pages are most visited and when. This analysis is performed for the purposes of better understanding our visitors' needs and making continual improvements to this website. The data used for this analysis is always collected anonymously from log files generated automatically by our web server and at no point in this process is any data attributed to a particular visitor.

This website does not offer information intended to attract children. The Global Methodist Church does not knowingly solicit personal information from anyone under the age of 18.

This website may also use tracking cookies to facilitate the creation of dynamic content or monitor the state of a user's connection. A cookie is a small text file created on your computer's hard disk used to store information about a visitor. A cookie cannot give us access to your computer or to information beyond that which you provide to us. If you disable cookies, you can still view the publicly available information on our website but some content may not display properly and you may be unable to access the customer support pages.

The Global Methodist Church reserves the right to transfer personal information databases to its successors.

You can opt out of receiving further marketing from the Global Methodist Church at any time. We will send you information about our various products and services, or other products and services we feel may be of interest to you. Only the Global Methodist Church (or agents or contractors working on behalf of the Global Methodist Church) will send you these direct mailings. At any time you can easily opt out of receiving further marketing from the Global Methodist Church by emailing us at subscriptions@globalmethodist.org.

Data collected by us on this website is not shared with third parties, except that certain statistical information may be compiled and used on an anonymous basis for industry or specialty analyses. To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

The Global Methodist Church is located in Lubbock, Texas. Our website can be reached by visitors from all fifty states, and around the world. Each of these places has a different set of laws. Since we cannot keep track of all these laws and their requirements, you agree that the law of our own state and country, the State of Texas in the United States of America. Texas law will apply to all matters relating to this Agreement. In addition, you agree and consent that if there is ever any legal action against us, the state and federal courts of Lubbock County, Texas, USA, will have exclusive jurisdiction and be the exclusive venue for any such legal actions.

Use of this site constitutes user consent to all site rules and privacy policies.

The Global Methodist Church reserves the right to change our policies without prior notice and the effective date of all such changes, unless specifically noted to the contrary, affects previously collected information.

This statement of policy applies only to our site (www.globalmethodist.org); it has no applicability to third-party sites or online sources reached via external links or page clicks. The Global Methodist Church is not responsible for the content of third-party or linked sites. This website contains links to information on other websites. We do not have any control over these other websites, and therefore we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information that you provide while visiting them. No other website is governed by this Privacy Policy. If you have questions about how any of these other websites may use your personal information, please consult the privacy statement for that website.

This site has not been certified by any of the privacy certification authorities.