A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

World Marriage Day is celebrated every year on the second Sunday in February, sometimes coinciding with St. Valentine's Day. This year, it takes place on February 12. World Marriage Day officially began in 1983 in the USA but has become worldwide. It gives us an opportunity to emphasize the beauty of marriage and to honor husbands and wives for their faithfulness and sacrifices.

This is a day aimed to celebrate the reality that "husband and wife form the foundation of the family and the basic unit of society." The day aims at honoring the belief that marriage should embody faithfulness, loyalty, commitment, and joy in the daily-ness of life. Marriage is a beautiful union of two souls, and it transcends the physical nature of this coming together. World Marriage Day celebrates the joy of marriage and shows that although it's hard, it's worth it.

For married couples, it can be a day to relive the fondest memories of your marital journey. It's a day to spend time with your spouse, appreciate what you have, and plan for a more blissful future. All of us have benefited from the witness of marriage, regardless of our marital status. Marriage guards life and makes us better at navigating life. Marriage must be intentionally nourished by the Christian community and must be accepted as a vocation for life.

Here are a few ideas for celebrating World Marriage Day

- * Renew your vows. There's nothing more beautiful than renewing your commitment to your partner for life. It doesn't need to be a public event. It can be at a family gathering or quietly alone with your spouse.
- * Get away. Make time for just the two of you. Take a trip. Take a short (or long) trip to a place that is of special significance to you and your spouse and make new memories. Go to dinner at your favorite restaurant. Go for a walk on the beach.
- * Share with your children and other family members what being married means to you. When was the last time you told your children what your vocation as husband and wife means to you?
- * Pray together before going to sleep.

If you'd like to read something a little more in depth about the Church's teaching on marriage, I recommend "What Makes Marriage a Sacrament." I have attached it to the newsletter. If you don't receive the newsletter, go to the newsletter section of our website and find it there. [<https://www.stpatrickcarlsbad.com/fr-rons-newsletter>] Or just ask me and I'll make you a copy.

We celebrate all married couples today. We thank God for their love. We pray for those who struggle or are experiencing difficulties. May God bless all the families of our parish.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos, “Por lo tanto, si cuando vas a poner tu ofrenda sobre el altar, te acuerdas allí mismo de que tu hermano tiene alguna queja contra ti, deja tu ofrenda junto al altar y ve primero a reconciliarte con tu hermano, y vuelve luego a presentar tu ofrenda”. Mt. 5 23-24. Hoy celebramos el VI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, y Jesús continúa enseñando a sus discípulos “cómo vivir como sus discípulos” en el mundo actual. La semana pasada Jesús les decía que son sal de la tierra y luz para el mundo. Jesús les dice que allí donde viven y están, que se vea lo que son, irradiando amor y misericordia, humildad y respeto a todos los que nos rodean. Para poder ser sal y luz necesitamos escuchar a Jesús y tener una conversión de nuevo. En el Evangelio de esta semana, Jesús se refiere a unos cuantos mandamientos, y reta a sus discípulos de no conformarse de vivir los mandamientos “superficiales”. Sin juzgar a nadie, todos tenemos la tendencia de vivir las cosas de Dios “superficiales”, quizás porque tenemos temor de entrar más al fondo con lo que Dios nos pide personalmente. Jesús da este ejemplo, que, si estamos en misa, listos para poner nuestra ofrenda, y nos acordamos que un hermano o hermana tiene queja contra nosotros, que dejemos nuestra ofrenda y vallamos primero reconciliarnos con él o ella y después regresamos a presentar nuestra ofrenda. ¿Cuántas veces venimos a misa con el corazón pesado o quebrado porque tuvimos un pleito o un desacuerdo con alguien y no nos hablamos? Todos anhelamos vivir en el Reino de los Cielos, y podemos hacerlo ahora, escogiendo y haciendo las cosas de Dios. Escucha lo que Jesús te esta pidiendo en este momento.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

El grupo de matrimonios los invita a participar en nuestras reuniones todos los sábados después de la Santa Misa.

Nos reunimos de las 8:00pm a las 9:30pm en el sótano de la iglesia.

¡Los esperamos!

Weekly Classes

Sunday classes: Feb 12 & 26; No classes on Feb 19

Monday classes: Feb 13 & 27; No classes on Feb 20

Wednesday classes: 15 & 22

Reflection: Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus continues to teach his closest disciples about the Kingdom of Heaven. He begins each part of his teaching "You have heard it said" and then goes on to say, "But I say to you." Jesus teaches the truth of God's law with authority. The Law of Moses is not overturned, nor does Jesus set his followers free from following it. Jesus' teaching requires more, a humble righteousness of the heart, mind, and soul. In fact, Jesus says, if you are going to offer your gift at the altar and remember that your brother has anything against you, leave the gift and go be reconciled.

Children: When have you taken the first step to make up with someone who has hurt you?

Adults: How do you reconcile with those who have offended or hurt you?

Prayer: Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who have trespassed against us.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

Sirach 15:15–20

The eyes of God see all he has made.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 119:1–2,4–5, 17–18,33–34

Happy are those who walk in the way of the Lord.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 2:6–10

God has revealed this wisdom to us through the Spirit.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 5:17–37

I have not come to abolish the law and the prophets but to fulfill them.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Matthew continues the Sermon on the Mount with a three part instruction by Jesus on the Way of Life in the kingdom of heaven. Today's reading is part one and deals with the Law. Part two deals with worship and religious practice and contains the Lord's Prayer. Part three deals with trusting God and deeds of loving service to our neighbor.

When Matthew speaks of "the Law and the prophets" he means the whole Scripture. When the Messiah brings the fullness of the kingdom none of scripture will be done away with. Instead it will be fulfilled. Matthew's Jesus does not overturn the Law of Moses, nor does he set his followers free from the Law. He requires his followers to go beyond the Law by doing more than the Law requires.

The Law condemned murder. Jesus condemns anger. The Law condemned adultery. Jesus condemns even lustful looks. As Jewish Christians who had always been faithful to the Law Matthew's community need a way to understand the difference Jesus and the kingdom he brings have made. They affirmed that God had always been at work in history through "the Law and the prophets." But God's work goes beyond that to be embodied by the Messiah who reveals the definitive will of God. The written scriptures and their interpretation in tradition are surpassed by Jesus whose life and teaching are the definitive revelation of the will of God.
