A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

What should I do for Lent?" This is a question I hear people asking themselves every year. It is an important question, but it can be asked in other ways too. "What will I do to grow in my relationship with God during Lent? What can I do during Lent that will help me be a more caring and compassionate person? How can I grow in my knowledge of God and God's revealed Word? Who needs my help this Lent? Can I strengthen my prayer life? What do I need to change in myself and the way I relate to others?" and there are many more good questions we can ask ourselves as Lent is about to begin.

This week we celebrate Ash Wednesday. The schedule for the distribution of ashes is included below. While Ash Wednesday is the beginning of Lent, it is more important to think about how I will observe Lent for the entire season. It is a preparation for the renewal of our Baptism at Easter. As such, it is a period of grace and renewal. We have a number of special activities that will occur during Lent and they can be a sources of growth in faith during Lent. They are described elsewhere in this bulletin.

But Lent is about more than programs and activities. Each of these is a means to an end. That end or goal is conversion and renewal. We each seek to grow and become stronger in faith. We turn from any sinful ways and try to be more like the disciples Jesus calls us to be. We strive to become more selfless, more generous, more loving, more in love with the Lord. The conversion and renewal are both internal and external. The means that we choose to aid us in this renewal will be unique to each person. But do something this Lent. Don't let the opportunities pass you by.

I encourage you to spend some time in these days leading up to Ash Wednesday to think about what needs to change in your life. Then make a commitment to do something that will help you move toward that change during the rest of Lent.

Once again, we are making a small book available to parishioners this weekend called Not By Bread Alone. It is a collection of short reflections based on Scripture verses for each day of Lent. We offer it free of charge. If you wish, you can make a small donation. However, if you take it, please plan to use it each day of Lent as a source of renewal and spiritual growth.

I wish you a fruitful Lent!

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús les dijo a sus discípulos, “Ustedes sean perfectos, como su Padre celestial es perfecto”. Mateo 5:48. La próxima semana, iniciamos la Cuaresma con los servicios del Miércoles de Ceniza.

Nuestras misas de ese día están llenas de muchos que vienen para que las cenizas se impongan en su frente. Se nos dice, “Recuerda que eres polvo y al polvo has de volver” o, “Conviértete y cree en el Evangelio”. Las dos oraciones nos recuerdan que Dios necesita ser el primero en nuestras vidas, y no las cosas de este mundo. Pero no miremos este mundo como algo perdido y sin significado. Porque mientras existe el ser humano, mientras existimos tú y yo, el mundo es importante para Dios. ¡Por nuestro propio bautismo, somos enviados por Dios a reflejar su amor a todos! Al final de cada misa escuchamos: “La misa ha terminado, pueden irse en la Paz de Cristo”. Somos polvo y al polvo regresaremos. ¿Cómo podemos obtener una conversión y creer en el Evangelio? En el Evangelio de esta semana, San Mateo dice, “Que sean perfectos como su Padre celestial es perfecto”. Esta meta parece imposible de alcanzar. Todos conocemos nuestra debilidad y luchas contra el pecado. En la segunda lectura de esta semana, San Pablo pregunta, “¿No saben ustedes que son el templo de Dios y que el Espíritu de Dios habita en ustedes?” Cada uno de nosotros somos templo del Espíritu Santo, sólo queda que le demos “una chancita” al Espíritu Santo que se mueva en nosotros. Dejar que el Espíritu Santo nos sane, nos transforme a ser criaturas nuevas que reflejan amor, gracia, perdón y reconciliación, en nuestro estilo de vida. Así empezamos a ser “perfectos como Dios es perfecto” ¡Que esta cuaresma sea un tiempo de purificación para alcanzar la meta que nos pone San Mateo!

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

El grupo de matrimonios los invita a participar en nuestras reuniones todos los sábados después de la Santa Misa.

Nos reunimos de las 8:00pm a las 9:30pm en el sótano de la iglesia.

¡Los esperamos!

“Esposos, amen a sus esposas, así como Cristo amó a la iglesia y se entregó por ella”. Efesios 5:25

Annual Lenten Food Drive

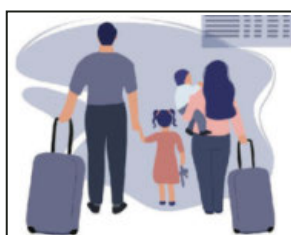

Our Knights of Columbus Council 15076 will be hosting our annual Lenten Food Drive to benefit the San Diego Food Bank - North County Branch!

Our food drive will run throughout Lent starting February 25-26 and will finish strong the weekend of March 25-26. There will be Knights there before and after most Masses to collect donations. Non-perishable food items (except for glass containers) will be accepted along with cash and/or checks.

This food drive is an awesome way for us to help others in need. By doing good deeds, we can show our appreciation to God for everything he has provided to us! It is a way to practice almsgiving during Lent.

Just like Fall food drive, the donation station will be located just outside front door of the Parish Hall.

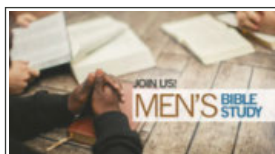

Please look for the red food donation barrels. There will also be barrels on the patio of the church.

For I was a stranger and you welcomed me (Mt. 25, 35)

The Refugee Resettlement team is grateful for the generous support of St. Patrick parishioners for our refugee family. We received $3486 and generous offers of donated furniture and household goods. We are looking locally for a two-bedroom rental apartment for less than $2200 per month. Please contact Chris Durnan (chrisdurnan4@gmail.com) or Susan Elmore (susanmelmor@aol.com) with any leads on rentals or donations of household items. Thank you!!

An Invitation to the Men of St. Patrick!

Did you know there is a Men's Bible study that meets here at St. Patrick for one hour on Wednesday nights starting at 6:30pm? For more information contact: Joe Jean at (714)488-8684, j8j8e8a8n@gmail.com

Collection for Earthquake Victims

This weekend (February 19-20) we will have a special second collection for Emergency Disaster Relief as a response to the recent earthquakes in Turkey and Syria. Proceeds from the collection will provide support for humanitarian assistance, long-term recovery and significant Church needs caused by these earthquakes. Thank you for your generosity.

Reflection: Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel from Matthew, we hear Jesus continuing his teaching with "You have heard it said, but I say". Jesus calls his listeners to forgo any idea of revenge and instead commit to love others. No exceptions. "You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you." Jesus teaches his followers how to live in the Kingdom of God and to act with true goodness even in the face of challenges and rejection. Being a follower of Jesus isn't easy. Being "perfect" means living generously and graciously toward others, the way God lives toward you. As a family commit to acting in the way of Jesus' teaching this week. When someone gives you a hard time, respond with prayer.

As a family commit to praying the Our Father together every day.

Lenten Bible Study with Fr Azam Mansha

The four-week study is designed to journey through sacred scripture with the writings of Church Fathers. It will aid participants to prepare themselves for the glorious Solemnity of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Week 1: Getting Ready for the Battle.

Week 2: Growing in Prayer

Week 3: Growing in Devout Christian Life

Week 4: Continuous Discernment

Fr Azam will give the presentations after which participants will break in small sharing groups.

There will be two times to attend the study:

Monday evenings from 7:00 – 8:30pm on February 27, March 6, 13 & 20. Venue: Church

Tuesday mornings from 10:00 – 11:30am on February 28, March 7, 14 & 21. Venue: Parish Center

Please register with Carole King at stpatbiblestudy40@gmail.com or 760-434-5688.

There is no fee to attend.

Taizé Prayer around the Cross

Tuesday evening, March 28, in the Church

We will begin at 7pm in our quiet candle lit church. The cross will be our focus as we listen to readings from Scripture, meditate in silence, and chant songs in the style of the ecumenical monastic community of Taizé in France. Gather with us for an hour of prayer witnessing the sufferings of Jesus and our world.
