A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

What does it mean to say that Easter brings us joy? In the midst of life's challenges – critical illness in the family, loss of a job, disappointment in a relationship and the burdens of daily living – feeling joyful may be a challenge.

But the joy we are being invited into this season is beyond what we see in our everyday lives. It's true that Jesus says "Come to me and bring me your burdens" but at times we struggle to believe it. Maybe we don't want to believe it. If I really allow Jesus to come into my heart the way he wants to, will he ask me to change my life in ways that are too hard? How do I share the chaos of my life with Jesus? If I keep him at arm's length, my life might be difficult, but at least my problems are familiar. What would it cost me to let go and change my life?

We know our own faults and failings so well. Too well. We begin to believe that Jesus loves the way we love – with all of our human limits. How could Jesus love us and accept us the way we are right now? Maybe when we fix a few things about our lives, love our spouse a little better, stop being so critical of family members, stop drinking, stop nagging, stop gossiping, love a little more... when we are perfect, then Jesus will love us.

If we can overcome our fears, the real power of letting Jesus into our hearts is how free our hearts will become. Suddenly, we are not afraid, not burdened and simply ready to serve with Jesus.

Jesus loves us as we are – right now. At this moment, Jesus holds each one of us in his warm and loving gaze and loves us so freely at a depth that our human minds can't take in. Whether we comprehend this or not, Jesus loves us endlessly and waits for us with his arms open, ready to hold and support us.

As we receive his embrace and feel the peace and joy of Easter wash over us, we can look over his shoulder, and see beyond to those in need who now wait for us. That's when we realize that the real joy in our lives is putting aside our own faults, challenges and difficulties for a while and entering into the lives of others.

Pope Francis said at Easter, we leave ourselves behind and encounter others by "being close to those crushed by life's troubles, sharing with the needy, standing at the side of the sick, elderly and the outcast."

We are being missioned as Easter People. We find peace in Jesus' love for us and now we share it with others. We find ourselves standing side by side with Jesus, looking together at those we are being sent to love. That is where the real joy of Easter waits for us.

Have a blessed and joyful Easter season.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

La Resurrección del Señor

¡La Muerte y la Resurrección de Cristo son el corazón de nuestra fe! Es precisamente la Resurrección la que nos abre a la esperanza más grande, porque abre nuestra vida y la vida del mundo al futuro eterno de Dios, a la felicidad plena, a la certeza de que el mal, el pecado y la muerte pueden ser derrotados. Y ello lleva a vivir con mayor confianza las realidades cotidianas, a afrontarlas con valentía y con empeño. La Resurrección de Cristo ilumina con una luz nueva estas realidades cotidianas. ¡La Resurrección de Cristo es nuestra fuerza!

Exhortación del Papa Francisco, Pascua 2015

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

El primer día después del sábado, estando todavía oscuro, fue María Magdalena al sepulcro y vio removida la piedra que lo cerraba. Echó a correr, llegó a la casa donde estaban Simón

Pedro y el otro discípulo, a quien Jesús amaba, y les dijo, "Se han llevado del sepulcro al Señor y no sabemos dónde lo habrán puesto". ¡Felices Pascuas! ¡El Señor ha resucitado! Este domingo leemos del Evangelio según San Juan. Y miramos el temor y la ansiedad de María al no encontrar el cuerpo de Jesús en el sepulcro donde lo habían puesto. Todavía "nadie había entendido" lo que decían las Escrituras, de que Jesús debía resucitar de entre los muertos". La reacción de María es normal y corre a avisarle a Pedro y al otro discípulo de lo que ella sabía. Eso nos pasa a nosotros también. El temor y la ansiedad nos bloquean a lo que Dios quiere enseñarnos y darnos. Hoy celebramos la Pascua de la Resurrección del Señor. Este es el día, que Dios, por medio de su Unigénito, vence la muerte y nos abre las puertas de la vida eterna! Este gran acto de amor ofrecido a cada uno de nosotros debería inspirar grandes cambios en nosotros. Reflexionemos, ¿qué significa que Jesús muere en la cruz y resucita tres días después para darme a mí la vida eterna? Estando conscientes de esta herencia, vivamos con ese gozo en el corazón y en nuestra cara, porque somos de Dios y nos espera un gran premio.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

The Importance of Resurrection

By following the link below, you can read an article about our belief in the resurrection that comes from the Magis Center in Orange, CA. Using the interviews of Fr. Bob Spitzer, SJ (President of the Magis Center and the Spitzer Center), the author addresses the question of the evidence of the resurrection, why the resurrection matters, and what the resurrection means. She provides links to interviews given by Fr. Spitzer on his program on EWTN.

Golden Jubilee of Fr. Bill

Fr. Bill Rowland, CJM, was the pastor of St. Patrick Parish for over 16 years. So many of us have grown in faith through his pastoral leadership. He has been a part of so many of our family events through the years.

Fr. Bill was ordained on April 11, 1970. Three years ago, we were preparing to his celebrate his Golden Anniversary of priesthood when the pandemic closed down all gatherings. At his request, we have postponed the celebration a couple times since then. Now is the time to celebrate and thank God for the dedicated service of this great priest. St. Patrick Parish will celebrate this landmark on Sunday, April 16, 2023 at the 11:00 am Mass. Fr. Bill will preside and following this Mass of Thanksgiving, there will be food and drinks in the Parish Center. Past and present parishioners, friends and neighbors, everyone is invited to participate. No reservations are required. Fr. Bill does not want any personal gifts.

He has requested that any gifts be given to the Eudist Fathers Retirement Fund. If you would like to show your appreciation to Fr. Bill with a gift, your check can be made payable to Eudist Fathers and sent to PO Box 3619, Vista, CA 92085-3619 or you may drop it in the collection basket at church. You may donate online at www.eudistsusa.org/donate where you will find the button for the retirement fund.

Come and join us for this special celebration for Fr. Bill!

Reflection: Easter Sunday: The Resurrection of the Lord

Mary Magdala, Simon Peter, and the beloved disciple arrived at the tomb where Jesus was buried and found it empty. Slowly, Jesus' closest followers came to believe through what they heard and saw. They began to realize the truth of the resurrection of Jesus. The gospel story of the empty tomb proclaims a joyful freedom. Jesus is free from the bonds of death! Mary Magdala is freed from fear and becomes a witness to Jesus' resurrection. Peter and John are free to believe that their Lord is indeed risen from the dead.

The Church celebrates Easter with a splendid service, the Easter Vigil. The Easter fire is lit. The congregation sings the Gloria and the Alleluia. The readings tell the story of our salvation. The baptism font is adorned with lilies. New members are welcomed through Baptism and Confirmation. We renew our Baptism promises. The dawn of Easter frees us from fear and the darkness of sin.

Rejoice in the glory of Easter! Jesus is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord – Year A

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 10:34a,37-43

Peter preaches about Jesus' life, death, and resurrection.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 118:1-2,16-17,22-23

Rejoice in this day of the Lord.

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-4 or 1 Corinthians 5:6b-8

Colossians: Having been raised by Christ, be concerned with what is above.

1 Corinthians: Let us celebrate this feast with new yeast.

Gospel Reading

John 20:1-9

Mary of Magdala finds that the stone has been removed from Jesus' tomb.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Our Gospel today tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection.

Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. This is notable because in first-century Jewish society women could not serve as legal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe an appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead.

Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen (it is understood that grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body).

The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit.
