A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Many adolescents and young adults (and even some older adults) go through a stage that is called "searching faith." It is not a denial of belief (though parents may wonder) but rather it is a time of asking the question, "Is this what I believe?" St. Thomas, as described in this Sunday's gospel, is an example of searching faith. He will not blindly accept what others have said, but needs to find certainty for himself.

This stage of faith moves one from the "heart" to the "head." A person, like Thomas, is looking for a reason to believe. That is why many questions may arise about faith. This questioning stage can lead in either of two directions. Will the questioner become an unbeliever or move onto the next stage of faith? This is when many "drop-out" of church. Others will "regress" and live as adults with an immature faith.

It is a period of questioning traditional values and searching for understanding of the meaning of religious experience. It is a movement from the community's understanding of faith to a personally appropriated understanding of belief. A necessary step in developing mature faith, it is often a difficult phase and may be misunderstood as losing faith. A person may withdraw from active participation in the life of the Church. This withdrawal may be for a short time or longer or forever.

As a stage of faith development, searching faith is the faith of questioning and internalizing what we have long been taught. Searching faith usually begins during late adolescence and often continues in earnest during young adulthood. For example, when I was a high school teacher many years ago, the most popular discussion question with my 12th grade students was "Does God Exist?"

This searching stage can be troubling for parents, teachers, etc. if not properly understood. And, of course, it's risky. However, only by questioning and testing what we have long been taught can we truly come to accept and internalize these teachings. Searching faith is a necessary prerequisite to owned faith. After exploring, "Is this what I believe?" one can, hopefully, discover an answer: "This is what I believe!" Owned faith is the strong, personal faith that one lives by, witnesses to and may even be willing to die for.

What can a parent or friend do to accompany someone in searching faith? It is important to take their questions seriously. Don't dismiss them by saying "don't ask that." Open a dialogue to explore the questions. Be willing to share what your faith means to you. Be transparent. Be respectful of their questions. Be honest. And, of course, trust that God will touch their minds and hearts to know the love God has for them. Most importantly, love them and pray for them.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“En los primeros días de la Iglesia, todos los hermanos acudían asiduamente a escuchar las enseñanzas de los apóstoles, vivían en comunión fraternal y se congregaban para orar en común y celebrar la fracción de pan”. (Hechos 2: 42) Continuamos la temporada de Pascua hasta el día de Pentecostés. La Iglesia, nos pide que tomemos tiempo para meditar y reflexionar el significado de Pascua. Este 2º Domingo de Pascua, la primera lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, nos habla de cómo vivía la primera comunidad, que había una unidad ejemplar, todo se compartía por igual, nadie era más importante que otros. Y todos los días se reunían en el Templo para alabar a Dios. Y por medio de su ejemplo, la cantidad de cristianos aumentaba. El ejemplo que ellos demuestran debe ser nuestra meta también. Dios quiere que estemos unidos. Habrá diferentes opiniones e ideas, pero aun con estas diferencias, necesitamos buscar la unidad. En el Evangelio de este domingo, leímos que Jesús se presentó a sus discípulos, que estaban encerrados en una casa por miedo a los judíos, y les ofrece su “paz y el Espíritu Santo”. Pero uno de ellos, Tomás, no estaba con ellos y no vio al Señor resucitado. Pero ocho días después, Tomás estaba con ellos y ve al Señor cuando se presenta de nuevo a sus discípulos. Una vez más, es claro que el Señor quiere que estemos unidos, unidos con nuestras familias y unidos con el Cuerpo de Cristo. Manteniéndonos unidos requiere que seamos fieles a Dios, humildes y confiar que Dios esta en todo. Abramos nuestro corazón.

Preguntémonos, “¿Soy un puente de unidad o un instrumento de división?

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

The Message of Pope Francis Urbi et Orbe

Every year at Easter and at Christmas, the pope shares a special message addressed to urbe (the city of Rome) and orbe (the whole world). He then gives a blessing to the whole world. The blessing is announced from the central square of the Basilica of Saint Peter at The Vatican. This custom dates back to the twelfth century during the pontificate of Pope Gregory X.

Here is the Easter 2023 message and blessing of Pope Francis.

Reflection: Second Sunday of Easter or Sunday of Divine Mercy

The disciples were still behind locked doors full of fear and confusion. Then, on the first day of the week, Jesus appeared in their midst. What a surprise for the disciples! The risen Lord offered them peace. He commissioned them. He breathed on them, saying: "Receive the Holy Spirit." By the power of the Spirit, the disciples will forgive sins and communicate the peace of Jesus himself.

Thomas, one of the Twelve, missed it all. But Jesus appeared again. Thomas could not only meet the risen Christ but proclaim him as My Lord and My God.

Jesus' appearances were certainly miracles. In faith, we can believe in the Resurrection and joyfully witness to the great mystery of Easter.

Adults: We show our faith when we demonstrate courage in the face of difficulty. What could you do this week to help strengthen someone?

Children: What could you do this week to encourage someone who is sad or discouraged?

Prayer: Risen Lord, enter our lives and guide us in faith by your Holy Spirit.

School Year 2023-2024: Information about our program will be forthcoming in May. Registration for fall classes will begin in June.

The St Patrick Refugee Resettlement Program (RRP) is in need of an Airbnb or something similar for 1 to 2 weeks, while a Sudanese refugee family is processing into the area and securing housing. If a donation is possible or a reasonable reduction in price could be arranged that would be wonderful. Please email Helen at helen@cox.net (or call 760-518-3901) or Chris at chrisdurnan4@gmail.com (or call 760-533-7139) if you can help with this.

We need volunteers to help with our ministry to our unhoused neighbors. Showers of Blessings is also in need of people willing to donate food once a month for our unhoused neighbors in Carlsbad. If you would like to help please call Carol Jerome at 760-845-2704.

Golden Jubilee of Fr. Bill

Fr. Bill Rowland, CJM, was the pastor of St. Patrick Parish for over 16 years. So many of us have grown in faith through his pastoral leadership. He has been a part of so many of our family events through the years.

Fr. Bill was ordained on April 11, 1970. Three years ago, we were preparing to celebrate his Golden Anniversary of priesthood when the pandemic closed down all gatherings. At his request, we have postponed the celebration a couple times since then. Now is the time to celebrate and thank God for the dedicated service of this great priest.

St. Patrick Parish will celebrate this landmark on Sunday, April 16, 2023 at the 11:00 am Mass. Fr. Bill will preside and following this Mass of Thanksgiving, there will be food and drinks in the Parish Center. Past and present parishioners, friends and neighbors, everyone is invited to participate. No reservations are required. Fr. Bill does not want any personal gifts.

He has requested that any gifts be given to the Eudist Fathers

Retirement Fund. If you would like to show your appreciation to Fr. Bill with a gift, your check can be made payable to Eudist Fathers and sent to PO Box 3619, Vista, CA 92085-3619 or you may drop it in the collection basket at church. You may donate online at www.eudistsusa.org/donate where you will find the button for the retirement fund.

Come and join us for this special celebration for Fr. Bill!
