A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

On the Solemnity of Pentecost, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the early disciples of Jesus. The Spirit comes to bestow gifts on each of us and the whole community. As St. Paul says in the second reading for this feast: "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone."

Gifts that are given must be received. What can we do to be more receptive to the gifts of the Holy Spirit? I am going to suggest several ways we can do that. The first thing we need to do is to make time to pray every day. We welcome the Holy Spirit into our day and give God space to work in us. Say a simple prayer of invitation as you begin each morning with a thankful mindset, asking that the Holy Spirit would make his presence known throughout that day's activities.

Secondly, welcome the Holy Spirit as you read Scripture. As we spend even a few minutes each day reading the Word of God, we are reminded that these are words inspired by the Holy Spirit. What might God be saying to me through these words?

Thirdly, be attentive throughout the day for ways that the Holy Spirit may be speaking to you through the events and people you encounter. God often speaks to us in very ordinary ways, through ordinary people. But we have to be attentive to the ways the Spirit speaks.

Fourth, pay attention to the needs of others. An encounter with someone in need is often an invitation from the Holy Spirit. How might the Holy Spirit be inviting us to reach out to those in need?

We can also put religious items in our room, car or office that remind us of the presence of God. Having physical reminders about God, the Holy Spirit and Jesus for us to see as we go about our day can be incredibly helpful to welcome the Holy Spirit and keep God at the forefront of our mind.

Throughout the day let your mind turn to the Holy Spirit frequently. A short spontaneous prayer that comes from the heart is the best prayer of all. It might be simply to ask for guidance, or to praise God for the beauty of creation, or to thank God for gifts evident in others. These simple prayers keep us attuned to the voice of the Holy Spirit.

With the whole Church we pray today: "Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love." Let us open our hearts to the love of God given through the Holy Spirit.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús les dijo a sus discípulos, “La paz esté con ustedes. Como el Padre me ha enviado, así también los envío yo”. Después de decir esto, sopló sobre ellos y les dijo, “Reciban el Espíritu Santo. A los que les perdonen los pecados, les quedarán perdonados; y a los que no se los perdonen, les quedarán sin perdonar”. Celebramos hoy la gran Fiesta de Pentecostés, Jesús cumple lo que les había prometido a sus discípulos. Que iba a enviar el Paráclito, el Espíritu Santo, para ayudarlos, recordarlos, guiarlos, y animarlos en su camino de fe. Ahora, leemos en el Evangelio de San Juan, que Jesús sopló sobre ellos y les da ese mismo Espíritu de Jesucristo. ¡Tú y yo somos templos vivos del Espíritu Santo! A causa de este Espíritu Santo que está en nosotros, podemos llamarle a Dios, “Abba/Papi”, porque somos hijas e hijos de este Dios amoroso. Por este mismo Espíritu Santo, podemos llamarle a Jesús, “mi Señor y mi Dios”, porque es el #1 de toda nuestra vida. Por este mismo Espíritu Santo, podemos mirarnos como hermanos y hermanas, un Pueblo de Dios, un Cuerpo de Cristo. No siempre será fácil, a veces lo que vivimos o escuchamos en las noticias, como la violencia en este país y en otros, guerras, niños y niñas llorando, masacres dondequiera, indiferencias, racismo y muchas otras cosas. Que nos hace mirar hacia el cielo y decirle a Dios, “¡Ya basta, por favor!” Pero más que nunca, tenemos que mantenernos fieles a Dios, confiando que Dios es fiel y nos acompaña en cada paso de nuestra vida. Y recordar esas palabras de Jesucristo, que “Él está con nosotros siempre, hasta el final de los tiempos”. Somos suyos, el Espíritu Santo está en ti y en mí, y desea llenarnos de su paz. Aceptemos este regalo. ¡Feliz Pentecostés!

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Country-Western Celebration

The Knights of Columbus and the Altar Society have begun selling tickets for the Country-Western celebration to be held in the Parish Hall on Saturday, June 10 beginning at 5:30pm. Tickets are $15.00 per person, $40.00 for a family ticket. There will be hot dogs and burgers, a live country western band and dancing.

Million Meals Event June 10 and 11:

The deacons of the Diocese of San Diego have come together to live out their mission to serve the needy by coordinating an event to provide nutritious meals to children and families living in extreme poverty. The meals will be sent to charities serving the poor in Tijuana, Mexico, the Philippines and Africa.

To do this, the deacons need to

- raise $375,000 dollars to purchase the food ingredients,
- recruit 4,000 volunteers to pack the equivalent of 1.5 million meals over one fun, inspiring weekend.

St. Patrick's deacons are inviting all members of our parish communities to participate the weekend of June 10 - 11 at Cathedral Catholic High School.

Please visit: sdcatholic.org/millionmeals for more information, and to

- view shift times and register to pack meals.
- donate.

Everyone is welcome! You can also call the parish office and ask for one of the deacons.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY FR. BEN!!!

On June 12, our dear Fr. Ben Drapeau, CJM will turn 90 years old. In order to celebrate this very special occasion, our parish will host a cake and coffee social on Sunday June 18 following the 11:00 am Mass (at which Fr. Ben will preside). Immediately following the Mass, Fr. Ben will be present in the Parish Center. Come share some food and friendship with Fr. Ben. (He asks that no gifts be given to him.)

Religious Education & Family Ministry

Reflection: Pentecost Sunday

We celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. John's Gospel pictures Jesus breathing the gift of his Spirit on the disciples. He calms them with his peace and gives them the power to give peace to others by forgiving their sins. "As the Father has sent me, so I send you," Jesus says. Being sent by Jesus is our mission as well. The words mission and mass have the same Latin root of missa. At the end of mass, we are sent with these (or similar words) "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life." Each of us is sent by Jesus to serve and love and help right where we are.

Children: How can you open your heart to Jesus' love? Who needs your help this week?

Adults: What gift do you hope to receive from the Holy Spirit? How could you use it to serve others?

Prayer: Come, Holy Spirit, and fill our hearts with your love.

Liturgy of the Word for Children will be offered during the 9am mass in the summer month. Children ages 5-9 that attend mass with their family will be sent with a catechist to listen to the readings from the Lectionary for Masses with Children. They will return to their family to continue the celebration of the Eucharist with the entire assembly.

School Year 2023-2024: Online Registration for fall classes will begin by the end of the month. Visit our parish website www.stpatrickcarlsbad.com click on Religious Education Preschool through 8th grade. For more information and to register in person, please contact our office.

The Solemnity of Pentecost – Year A

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

The Holy Spirit descends upon the apostles gathered in Jerusalem.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 104:1,24,29-31,34

God's Spirit renews the earth.

Second Reading

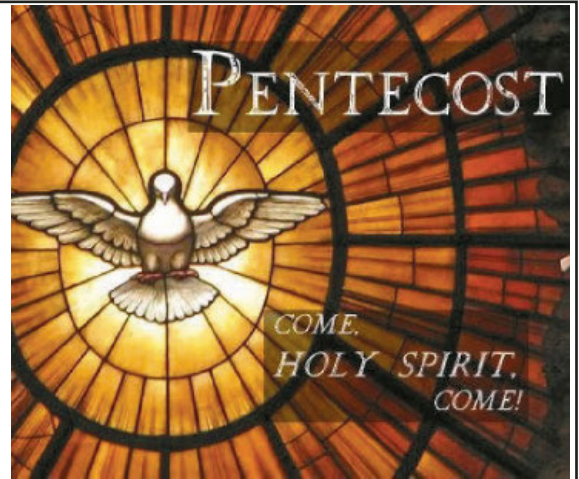

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7,12-13

We are all one in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading

John 20:19-23

Jesus appears to his disciples and gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The Season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the Feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, John 20:19-23, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. Yet the event in John's Gospel takes place on Easter Sunday. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts. It is enough that we know that after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

We already heard today's Gospel proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter this year (Lectionary Cycle A). That Gospel passage, however, also included the description of Jesus' appearance to Thomas. In that context, we were led to reflect on belief and unbelief.

In the context of the Feast of Pentecost, John 20:19-23 reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." He breathes the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and sends them to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins. Jesus' act of breathing the Holy Spirit mirrors God's act of breathing life into Adam at the time of Creation. In fact, both the Greek and Hebrew words for "spirit" can also be translated as "breath."

This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. The reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life. In the Sacrament of Baptism, we are cleansed of sin and become a new creation in Christ. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the mercy of God through the forgiving of sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people.

St. Patrick Catholic Community would like to congratulate all of our parishioners graduating from high school or college. We invite you to attend any of the Masses on the weekend of June 10 and 11, where all graduates in attendance will receive a blessing.

May God bless you always! Again,

CONGRATULATIONS!

La Parroquia de San Patricio quisiera felicitar a todos nuestros feligreses que se gradúan de la universidad o de la preparatoria. Lo invitamos a asistir a una de las Misas de su elección el fin de semana del 10 y 11 de junio, donde se bendecirá a los graduados que asistan.

¡Que Dios los bendiga! De nuevo,

¡FELICIDADES!
