A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

I appreciate it when people tell me that this brief column helps them grow in their faith or gives them a new insight. That is clearly my intent. On this weekend when we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, I will offer a brief reflection on the meaning of this feast.

Some of you will remember when this feast was called Corpus Christi and it was celebrated on a Thursday. That changed after the Second Vatican Council when it was raised from a feast to a solemnity and moved to a Sunday so that more people could be present.

It began as a local feast in the 13th century and it spread to the whole Church in the 14th century. While the institution of the Eucharist is celebrated on Holy Thursday, a desire was expressed to have a feast that focused solely on the Eucharist. The liturgy on that Holy Thursday also commemorates Christ's washing of the disciples' feet and the institution of the priesthood. It was the night on which Jesus prayed in the garden and was arrested. So many other important things took place on that day that the theme of the Eucharist could be lost. The pope at that time gave this as the chief reason for the introduction of the new feast. Hence, the feast of Corpus Christi was established to put a spotlight on the meaning and importance of the Holy Eucharist.

One of the customs associated with this feast was a Eucharistic procession. In our parish, and in many other parishes across our diocese and country, this custom will be replicated as a kickoff for our National Eucharistic Revival. Our procession is on this Sunday (June 11) at the end of the 9:00 am Family Mass.

There are many interrelated themes that intertwine into a rich theology of the Eucharist. In the course of the coming year, we will look at each of them in turn. For example, we believe that the Mass is a continuation of the sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross. The Paschal Mystery is the central theme of every Mass. The word Eucharist itself means thanksgiving. The Mass is our greatest prayer of thanks to our God. We believe that during the Mass the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. In Holy Communion, we receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Receiving Holy Communion is a very important way for us to fully participate in the Mass.

Jesus is present under these elements and that presence remains even after the celebration is over. That is why our church has a tabernacle. It is the place where the consecrated bread is kept for bringing Communion to the sick and for adoration by the faithful.

The Mass is also a meal of unity. At the Last Supper Jesus instituted this sacrament during a special meal in fellowship with his disciples. He instructed them to do this in remembrance of him. As St. Paul says, sharing this bread brings us together as one body. And as St. Augustine says, "Become what you receive. You receive the Body of Christ and so you must be the Body of Christ."

These are some of the principal themes we will consider during this Eucharist Year. May it be a time for a revival in faith for each of us.

In one Heart

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

"En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a los judíos: 'Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo; el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre. Y el pan que yo les voy a dar es mi carne para que el mundo tenga vida'".

(Juan 6:51). Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad del Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. ¿Qué significa para ti la Eucaristía, el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo? En cada misa Dios se hace presente. Se hace presente en nosotros el Pueblo de Dios que nos unamos a adorar a Dios. Se hace presente en el Sacerdote, un hombre consagrado para celebrar la misa, y actúa en "Persona en Cristo". Se hace presente en la Liturgia de la Palabra, escuchamos a los profetas y las palabras de Jesucristo. Se hace presente en la Santa Música. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica nos dice que "La Eucaristía es la fuente y la cima de la vida cristiana".

Todos somos llamados a celebrar la misa cada domingo, para escuchar, cantar y meditar sobre las promesas de Dios. Haciendo conciencia del gran regalo que Dios nos ha dado en la Eucaristía y nos daremos cuenta de que no estamos solos. En cada momento de la vida, en los momentos alegres y tristes, sabemos que Jesús, en la Eucaristía, está presente. Por medio de esta comida del cielo somos nutridos y alimentados para sobre vivir cualquier cosa que se nos presente en la vida. Después de la misa de este domingo, habrá una procesión con el Santísimo Sacramento, los invitamos para que nos acompañen en la procesión, meditando sobre el gran amor que Dios nos tiene.

Annual Catholic Appeal

We are now well into the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). Our parish has a goal of $96,625.00. Up to this point our parishioners have donated or pledged $61,485.18. That means we still want to collect $35,139.82.

Please remember all the good things that ACA does. If you misplaced your brochure or did not receive one, they are available at the doors of the church and in the parish office. You can send your donation in or go online.

Thank you for all you are doing to help those in need!!

If the world is divided, if the Church is polarized, if hearts are broken, let us not waste time in criticizing others and growing angry with one another; instead, let us invoke the Spirit.

Eucharistic Revival Begins in Parishes

No doubt you remember how the Diocese of San Diego held a diocesan-wide Eucharistic renewal a couple years ago. Read this short article that summarizes what we did then:

<https://sdcatholic.org/cardinal/eucharist-initiative/>

Now we join the Church across the United States in a National Eucharistic Revival. Once again we will focus in on the meaning of the Eucharist at the parish level. Various special programs and devotions will be offered. Our ministries and organizations will be asked to spend time reflecting on the importance of the Eucharist. Some small group sharing will also focus on what the Eucharist means to us. Stay tuned for more about the ways this Eucharistic Revival will take shape in our parish.

Please join St. Patrick Soup for Shoes for gourmet soup, bread, desert & camaraderie every Thursday from 4:30-6PM. This week's soup we are serving White Chicken Chili.

Religious Education & Family Ministry

(PreK – 8th grade)

Reflection: Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

The mystery of the Eucharist is the mystery of our union with Jesus Christ. Each time we receive holy communion we allow Christ to fill and transform every corner of our lives. Jesus himself becomes our nourishment, our strength for a life of discipleship. In each celebration, we are given the life of Christ; we are uniquely transformed and reformed into Christ, his body on earth.

For parents: What does it mean for you to be bread for others as Jesus was?

For children: In what ways can Jesus help you do good things for others?

Liturgy of the Word for Children will be offered during the 9am mass in the summer months except when there is a family mass.

Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ – Year A

First Reading

Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a

Moses tells the people to remember how God delivered them from slavery in Egypt.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 147:12-15, 19-20

Praise God, Jerusalem!

Second Reading

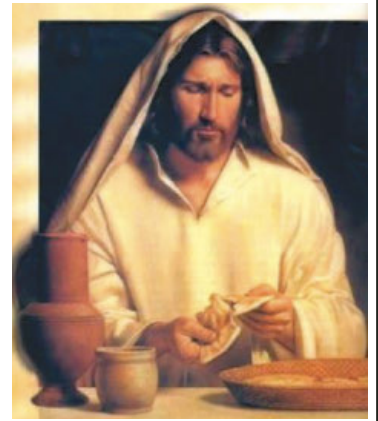

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

Though many, we are one body when we partake of the Body and Blood of Christ.

Gospel Reading

John 6:51-58

Jesus says, "I am the living bread."

Background on the Gospel Reading

This Sunday we celebrate a second solemnity during this period of Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This day was once called Corpus Christi, which is Latin for "Body of Christ." In the revised Lectionary the name for this day is expanded to reflect more completely our Eucharistic theology.

Today's Gospel is taken from the Gospel according to John. The reading is part of a discourse between Jesus and a crowd of Jews. The discourse comes shortly after the miracle of Jesus' multiplication of the loaves and fishes. In John's Gospel, miracles such as this are identified as "signs" through which people come to believe that Jesus is the Son of God. These signs are followed by dialogue, or discourse that interprets and explains the miracle. In John's Gospel, Jesus' multiplication of the loaves is said to have occurred near Passover, thus linking it to the Exodus story and God's saving action toward the Israelites.

Having seen Jesus multiply the loaves and fishes, the crowd pursues him, perhaps seeking more food but also looking for another sign. Jesus tells the crowd that he is the bread of life. He explains that just as God gave the Israelites manna to sustain them in the desert, so now God has sent new manna that will give eternal life. It is in this context that Jesus repeats those words in today's Gospel and tells them again that he is the living bread that came down from heaven.

Jesus' words are not well understood by the crowd; they argue that Jesus is not from heaven but born of Mary and Joseph. The crowd also has trouble understanding how Jesus could give them his flesh to eat. Jesus tells them that when they eat his flesh and drink his blood, they will remain forever connected to him. These are difficult words, but they are important because they seek to show us our intimate connection with Jesus.

This is the mystery that is at the heart of our Eucharistic theology. In the elements of bread and wine, Jesus' Body and Blood are truly present. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us. This communion with the Lord makes us one body, brings us eternal life, and sends us forth to be Christ's Body in the world.
