A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

As soon as we can get rid of June gloom, summer will move into full swing. We had a very successful pastoral year, especially regarding a return to full pastoral activities after a few years of necessary health restrictions. Our various organizations and ministries were able to hold most of the regular programs and activities to which we are accustomed. Social events, Bible studies, prayer groups, and much more enjoyed a more robust attendance. Happily, our parishioners responded with enthusiasm.

Our parish school had a successful year. Once again it operated at near capacity. Our dedicated teachers and staff provided a high-quality Catholic education for our students. Of particular note, this was an accreditation year for our school with the Western Catholic Educational Association. The visiting team that evaluated our school gave very high grades to every aspect of our program. They referred to St. Patrick's as "a model school." We will not need to have another self-study and accreditation visit for six years. Congratulations to all who prepared the study and welcomed the accreditation team.

Our parish faith formation programs also had a rebound year. Many young people returned to participation in our elementary and high school programs. Our excellent catechists prepared a large group of young people and their families for First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. They also provided ongoing formation for young people in the other grades. Our Youth Ministry prepared a large group of young people for the Sacrament of Confirmation which was celebrated on May 5 by Cardinal McElroy. Special thanks to our Youth Ministry Core Team, a dedicated group of almost 30 young people who serve in a variety of leadership roles including being Junior Catechists. This is a fine example of peer ministry.

With the coming of summer, our schedules shift and we have the opportunity to spend more time relaxing and recreating with family and friends. I remember the words of Msgr. Ralph Miller, the principal of the high school I attended. At the end of each academic year, he would always say to us: "Now go and enjoy your vacation but don't take a vacation from God." Those were wise words from a very holy man. As we enter into "summer mode," we need to make sure that time for God is a part of our changing routine. Certainly, we need to continue to participate in the Mass every weekend. Even if we are away from our home parish, it is almost always possible to find a Catholic Church. We can make the effort to find it. We also should make some time each day to spend time in prayer. "Checking in with God" every day is an important part of our ongoing relationship with our Creator and Friend.

I also take this opportunity to greet the many visitors and vacationers whom we will welcome to our church during the summer months. Our parish is known for its hospitality. We are eager to welcome all who join us for the celebration of the Eucharist.

Have a happy and blessed summer.

In one Heart

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

"En aquel tiempo, al ver Jesús a las multitudes, se compadecía de ellas, porque estaban extenuadas y desamparadas, como ovejas sin pastor". (Mateo 9:36) Iniciamos de nuevo el Tiempo Ordinario del año litúrgico. Y este domingo leemos del Evangelio de San Mateo que "Jesús viendo a las multitudes se compadece de ellas porque estaban extenuadas y desamparadas, como ovejas sin pastor". El pueblo judío era el pueblo escogido por Dios, el pueblo que Dios iba a acompañar siempre para que todos conocieran la grandeza y el amor de Dios por medio de ellos, ahora se encuentran cansados y abandonados. La pregunta es, ¿Dónde está Dios? Dios prometió que iba a estar con ellos, ellos sólo tenían que escuchar su voz y guardar su alianza. Y allí está el detalle, ellos se apartaron de Dios, ya no escuchaban la voz de Dios y mucho menos ni guardaban su alianza. No es que Dios los hubiera abandonado, Dios estaba con ellos, pero ellos ya no lo miraban, ni lo escuchaban. Eso puede pasar con nosotros, o quizás nos sentimos ahora cansados y abandonados por Dios. Pero les recuerdo, Dios no es mentiroso. Dios está con nosotros en cada momento de nuestra vida. Hemos tratado de buscar refugio y descanso en otras cosas que hemos visto en TikTok, o Instagram, o otros medios sociales, pero nos damos cuenta de que no nos da la paz que necesitamos. Y es porque la paz, el consuelo, la fuerza que necesitamos viene solamente de Dios. Para todos los papás de nuestra comunidad, les deseo un ¡feliz día de los padres! Busquemos a Dios para ser mejores padres y guías de amor para nuestros hijos. Dios los bendiga.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Eucharistic Revival Corner

One of the goals of the yearlong Eucharistic Revival is to grow in our love for Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament. In addition to participating in the Mass regularly and receiving Holy Communion, another way to express our love for our Eucharistic Lord is to spend time in the church praying before the Blessed Sacrament.

Our church is open every day (except for some holidays) from early morning until at least 6:00 pm. Jesus is present in the tabernacle and welcomes all visitors. Every Tuesday afternoon, from 2:00-6:00 pm the Blessed Sacrament is exposed on the altar for public adoration. Likewise, on the First Friday of each month, exposition of the Blessed Sacrament takes place from the end of the 8:00 am Mass until 10:00 am.

Whether the Blessed Sacrament is exposed or simply present in the tabernacle, it is the same Lord Jesus who welcomes you to pray. Stop by and make a visit!

Religious Education & Family Ministry

(PreK – 8th grade)

Reflection: 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the gospel reading, we hear that Jesus' heart was moved with pity as he compared the crowd to sheep without a shepherd. Sheep are very important animals. Their safety and health are crucial for the well-being of a community. When God calls his people the flock he tends to, it shows how valuable we are to God. The grace of our baptism calls us to assume responsibility within God's family and helping God's kingdom to grow.

Parents: How can you share the Good News of God's love with others this week?

Children: How can you bring joy to someone this week?

Prayer: We are God's people: the sheep of his flock. His kindness endures forever.

Liturgy of the Word for Children will be offered during the 9am mass in the summer months.

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

Exodus 19:2-6a

God tells Moses that the Israelites will be his special people.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalms 100:1-3,5

We are the people of God.

Second Reading

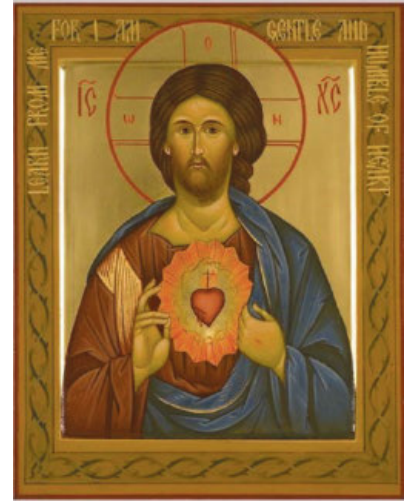

Romans 5:6-11

Christ died for us while we were still sinners and reconciled us to God.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 9:36-10:8

Jesus sends the twelve apostles to proclaim the kingdom of heaven.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares his mission to proclaim the kingdom of heaven with his disciples. The signs of the kingdom's presence consist of the work that Jesus has already been doing: the sick are cured, lepers are cleansed, demons are driven out, and the dead are raised to life. The disciples are sent to continue doing the work that Jesus has begun. This is a moment of transition in Matthew's Gospel. The focus has shifted from the ministry of Jesus to the work of the community that he has inaugurated. More than any other Gospel, Matthew's Gospel elaborates on the work of the Church, which is to continue after Jesus' death and resurrection.

The Gospel reports that Jesus commissions twelve disciples. Many scholars believe that the twelve disciples symbolize the twelve tribes of Israel. It designates, therefore, continuity between Israel and the Church. Matthew lists the names of the twelve disciples, as do Mark and Luke. Matthew also uses the word apostle when referring to the Twelve. The word apostle means "one who is sent." In this context, Matthew is calling attention to the mission that the twelve disciples are being given. They are sent by Jesus to proclaim the kingdom of heaven in word and deed.

As Jesus sent his disciples to continue his work and mission, so too the Church is sent by Jesus. The Church is his continuing presence on earth. Every member of the Church is sent by Jesus to contribute to this mission.
