A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

I am on vacation for two weeks in Buffalo. The timing of this vacation coincides with a few events that I am eagerly anticipating. On July 15, I will join many longtime friends for the 100th anniversary of Camp Turner (CT). This is a resident summer camp that was founded by the Diocese of Buffalo and was recently adopted by Our Lady of Victory (OLV) Services. It is located in beautiful Allegany State Park in the southern tier of western New York.

When I was a young seminarian, I worked there as a camp counselor for seven summers (1967-1973). After I was ordained in 1977, I became the resident director of the summer camp for four summers (1977-1980) and stayed on for a couple more years as spiritual director. Without a doubt, this is where I developed my commitment to ministry to, with, by and for young people. It is also where I met most of my oldest and dearest lifetime friends. I am so looking forward to celebrating this great anniversary with them.

The following weekend, there is another reunion: an all-school reunion of Cardinal Dougherty High School in Buffalo. My very first assignment as a priest was teaching religion and serving as campus minister at this all-boys high school. Fr. Bill Rowland was the principal. The Eudist Fathers ran this school for the Diocese of Buffalo for 22 years. Fr. Bill was in the first graduating class of the school and was the principal when it closed in 1979. (That's when he was transferred to San Diego.) The school's alumni are holding this reunion as a fundraiser for the Eudist Fathers Retirement Fund. Of course, Fr. Bill will also be in attendance. We both look forward to meeting and greeting our former students, many of whom are now grandfathers!

On July 25 I will have the joyful privilege of baptizing my great nephew, the child of my nephew (my godchild) and his wife. This is another family event that I eagerly anticipate. And I will also get to celebrate my birthday with my family.

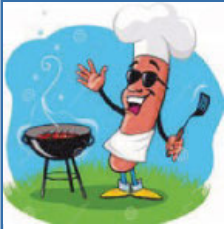

I mention all this because summertime often affords us the opportunity to gather with family and friends. I think we can cherish these moments and use them as occasions to thank God for the people he has put into our lives. Family and friends are truly gifts from God.

Likewise, with more leisurely summer schedules, it is a time for us to reach out to some of those people that we have not seen or talked to in a while. Who do you need to reconnect with? Who would benefit from a call or a visit? Don't put it off; do it now.

I leave you with this quotation: "When we honestly ask ourselves which persons in our lives mean the most to us, we often find that it is those who, instead of giving advice, solutions, or cures, have chosen rather to share our pain and touch our wounds with a warm and tender hand...a friend who cares."

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

“La semilla cayó en tierra buena y dio fruto”
Salmo 64. Todo lo que vemos con nuestros ojos, lo que escuchamos con nuestros oídos, lo que sentimos con nuestras manos, viene de Dios. No hay nada que exista que no sea regalo de Dios para nosotros. Este XV Domingo de

Tiempo Ordinario, la Iglesia nos da esta parábola de un sembrador que sale a sembrar. El texto del Evangelio de San Mateo nos dice que no toda la semilla cayó en tierra buena y dio fruto bueno. Alguna semilla cayó a lo largo del camino, llegaron los pájaros y se la comieron. Otra semilla cayó en tierra pedregosa, con poca tierra, y cuando salió el sol los brotos marchitaron y se secaron. Y otra semilla, cayó entre espinos que eventualmente sofocaron las plantitas. Usemos esta parábola para reflexionar. ¿Cómo recibimos la palabra de Dios en nuestros corazones? Todos tenemos experiencias de sentirnos que somos “como tierra buena”, que recibimos la palabra de Dios y actúa en una manera buena y se ve el fruto bueno en nosotros. Y eso nos hace sentir bien. Pero también a veces, sentimos lo contrario. Sentimos que somos “como tierra mala”, que es pedregosa y llena de espinos y la palabra de Dios no entra y no cambia nada en nosotros. Y eso nos frustra y nos hace sentir mal. ¡Pero no nos desanimemos! Dios sigue con nosotros, no nos abandona. La clave es mantener nuestra mirada en Jesucristo. Jesús nos da lo que necesitamos para que esta “tierra mala y complicada” dentro de nosotros, se transforme a tierra buena. ¿Quién juzga lo que es tierra buena o tierra mala? Nadie. Sólo Dios juzga. Acerquémonos a Dios quien nos ama, con humildad y fe.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Prayer Intention of Our Holy Father

Each month the Pope designates a prayer intention for Catholics across the world. In announcing the intention for July, Pope Francis says: "Let us pray that Catholics place at the center of their lives the eucharistic celebration which transforms human relationships and opens up an encounter with God and their brothers and sisters."

It fits well with the Eucharistic Revival underway in the United States. To hear more about this intention, read the article on this website:

Religious Education & Family Ministry (PreK – 8th grade)

School Year 2023-2024

Registration is open for all our classes from Preschool through 8th grade.

Early Faith Formation: preschool and kindergarten classes are held on Sunday morning.

Preparation for the Sacraments: classes for students in grade 1-8 are offered on Sunday mornings and Monday and Tuesday afternoon. Families choose the weekly class time that best fits their schedule.

Continuing Faith Formation: students in grade 3-8 who already received First Holy Communion can attend classes on Sunday mornings or Monday or Tuesday afternoon. They choose the weekly class time that works best with their schedule.

Continuing Faith Formation: How We Learn and Grow in Faith

The weekly classes focus on expanding the knowledge of faith as well as discussing how to live the faith in everyday life. Students create personal faith journals. They take on responsibilities as student leaders within our program's prayer services, saints presentations, and the Christmas pageant.

Within the greater parish community students are invited to serve as readers at the monthly family mass, to train to become altar servers, participate in service opportunities and care of creation activities.

Online Registration: Visit our website

Reflection: 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

God is constantly scattering the seed of his Word in our lives. When our hearts are fertile soil, God's Word will grow in us. It will produce abundant fruit: more grace and goodness than we can possibly imagine.

Parents: How can you make your hearts into good soil where God's love will grow?

Children: Will you be ready to listen for the Word of God? Who can help you?

Pray: Lord Jesus, help us to hear and understand the Word of God.

Altar Cloth and Banners

We are very grateful for our beautiful new altar cloth and matching side banners. They were specially designed for our church by the Slabbinck company, a Belgian liturgical design and vestment company. They were donated in honor of the 95th birthday of Libby Blumberg by her loving family.

We thank them for their generous gift that adds beauty to our altar area.

Reporting allegations of sexual misconduct:

The Diocese of San Diego treats all allegations of sexual misconduct by clergy or Church personnel seriously and deals with them in a prompt, confidential and thorough manner. To report sexual misconduct by clergy or Church personnel, including abuse, please call Mary Acosta, Victim Assistance Coordinator, (858) 490-8353, email misconduct@sdccatholic.org or visit www.safeinourdiocese.org. Situations of recent or ongoing sexual abuse should be reported to local law enforcement.

SCAM ALERT of Emails and Texts from Fr. Ron Bagley

Once again, an email scammer is trying to take advantage of our parishioners. The person sends an email or text to parishioners claiming to be Fr. Ron, and asks for gift cards or cash or asks for some favors. Fr. Ron will never make such requests of parishioners. Another indication that it is a scam is to look at the email address of the sender. It will have Fr. Ron's name in it but it is not his email. Please delete these emails and block the texts immediately as such a request will never come from the parish through an email or text.

Fifteenth Sunday of in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

Isaiah 55:10-11

The Word of the Lord shall achieve its purpose.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalms 65:10-14

A prayer of praise to God for his abundance.

Second Reading

Romans 8:18-23

Together with all of creation, we await God's redemption.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 13:1-23 (shorter form: Matthew 13:1-9)

Jesus teaches that the kingdom of heaven is like seed that has been sown on good soil.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel marks the beginning of the third long discourse given by Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew. Over the next few weeks, the Gospel readings will consist of the entire 13th Chapter of Matthew's Gospel, a lengthy teaching discourse.

Throughout this discourse, Jesus will offer several parables to illustrate for his listeners what he means by the kingdom of heaven. He begins with the parable of the sower, which appears rather straightforward—of course seeds grow best in good soil. Seeds that miss the soil, are sown on rocky ground, or are sown among other plants will not grow. The surprise in the parable is the enormous yield of the seed that is sown on good soil.

Jesus then explains his use of parables. Jesus seems to suggest that he uses parables to teach because the meanings of parables are not self-evident. The hearer must engage in some degree of reflection in order to comprehend the message of a parable. In this way, the medium—the parable—models the point of the parable of the sower. Those who are willing to engage themselves in the effort to understand will be rewarded by the discovery of the message and will bear fruit.

To bring home the point, Jesus interprets the parable of the sower to his disciples. The different types of soil in which the seeds are sown are metaphors for the disposition with which each individual hears the teaching about the kingdom of heaven. Some will be easily swayed away from the kingdom of heaven. Some will receive it for a time but will lose it when faced with difficulties. Some will hear the word but will then permit other cares to choke it out. Yet some will receive it well, and the seed will produce abundant fruit.

"Whoever has ears ought to hear.."
