A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

What do video games, the internet and the Eucharist all have in common? Blessed Carlo Acutis loved all three — but he loved the Eucharist the most. His devotion and fervor for the Eucharist were so inspiring, in fact, that the U.S. bishops have named Bl. Carlo Acutis as the patron for the National Eucharistic Revival.

“The Eucharist is the highway to heaven,” the young Italian blessed once said, and so far, it’s proven to be such for him. Carlo died in 2006 from leukemia at the age of 15, but he was very wise and holy for his age. He was beatified in 2020.

Carlo recognized the importance of the Eucharist early on in his life, and desired with all his heart to receive Christ in the sacrament. After receiving his first communion at the age of seven, not only did Mass become an integral part of his life, but his witness also inspired the faith of his parents. It’s a common stereotype that parents have to drag their kids to Mass, but it was the opposite for Carlo and his parents; he made his parents take him to Mass to receive communion every day. His piety and love for the Eucharist were contagious.

While suffering with leukemia as a teenager, Carlo offered up his suffering for Christ and the Church. He found strength in the Eucharist. He once said, “the more Eucharist we receive, the more we will become like Christ, so that on earth we will have a foretaste of heaven.” Wise words, indeed. The Eucharistic Revival grants an opportunity to grow in love for the Eucharist, just as Carlo did.

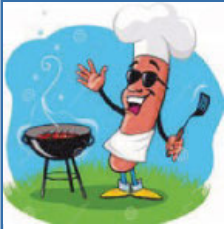

I encourage you to spend time reflecting on the great privilege we have in receiving Christ in Holy Communion. In this sacrament he gives himself to us so that we may grow closer to him. By welcoming Jesus into our hearts, our minds, our bodies, we become transformed into this body. In this way, we become his Body and we reach out to others with the same compassion and healing that Jesus brought to so many.

In consuming Christ’s Body, he enters into us and becomes part of us. Nutritionists tell us: “you are what you eat.” In an even fuller way, by receiving Holy Communion we become Christ for others. We are united more closely to Christ, but also more closely to one another as members of his Body. We are empowered to carry out his mission in the world, including his service to the poor and vulnerable.

As the old hymn says: “And may we all one bread, one body be, in this great sacrament of unity.”

In one Heart,

FR. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“Entonces los justos brillarán como el sol en el Reino de su Padre. El que tenga oídos, que oiga” (San Mateo 13:43). Hoy celebramos el XVI domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. Y leemos del capítulo 13 del Evangelio de San Mateo. Y todo este capítulo Jesús habla usando varias parábolas que nos hablan del Reino. Cada parábola expresa la presencia del Reino en nuestra vida actual y requiere un proceso. El Reino no llega de repente, como muchos quisiéramos. El Reino está presente en el “momento que estamos viviendo”, nuestro trabajo es de aceptarlo. La semana pasada, escuchamos la Parábola del Sembrador. Y Jesús usaba esa parábola para enseñarnos que Él siempre está sembrando semilla (la semilla de amor, perdón, reconciliación, esperanza, libertad). Su esperanza es que no nos desanimemos por los problemas que enfrentamos, que seamos “tierra buena” para que esa semilla siembre y dé fruto en abundancia. Este domingo, Jesús habla usando otras parábolas que hablan del Reino de Dios al final de los tiempos. Y nos dice que cuando llegue el fin del mundo, “Dios enviará a sus ángeles para que arranque de su Reino a todos que causaran daño y a otros a pecar. Y los justos brillarán como el sol en el Reino de su Padre”. Nosotros somos hijos e hijas de Dios. Tendremos que soportar diferentes retos y problemas en la vida, pero recordemos siempre, somos de Dios. Él a nuestro lado no hay nada que nos hará falta. Jesús dijo, “El que tenga oídos, que oiga”. ¿Escuchamos con oídos de amor y esperanza en Dios? O, ¿escuchamos con oídos del mundo, y que nos hace vivir en temor?

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Paving and Resealing

Our parking lots are in need of some regular maintenance.

Some areas need paving (new asphalt) and the entire parking lot will be sealed to prolong the life of the surface. Then it will be restriped up to the current code.

It will be necessary to close all the parking area for two days: July 26 and 27. We have chosen midweek while the school is not in session to minimize the inconvenience on the weekends. However, on those two days, those attending daily Mass or who need to come to the office will need to find street parking. Thank you for your understanding and patience.

Grandparents Day in September

In 2021, Pope Francis established the celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and Elderly on the fourth Sunday of July, near the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus (July 26).

However, the U.S. bishops have approved the transfer of the celebration of World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly in the U.S. to the first weekend after Labor Day in September to coincide with National Grandparents \(and the Elderly\) Day in the United States. The US Bishops' website includes information about the observance of this special day.

Religious Education & Family Ministry (PreK – 8th grade)

School Year 2023-2024

Registration is open for all our classes from Preschool through 8th grade.

Early Faith Formation: preschool and kindergarten classes are held on Sunday morning.

Preparation for the Sacraments: classes for students in grade 1-8 are offered on Sunday mornings and Monday and Tuesday afternoon. Families choose the weekly class time that best fits their schedule.

Continuing Faith Formation: students in grade 3-8 who already received First Holy Communion can attend classes on Sunday mornings or Monday or Tuesday afternoon. They choose the weekly class time that works best with their schedule.

Throughout the school year we have events for all parish families. We pray a Family Rosary in October, and Family Stations of the Cross during Lent. We gather for service opportunities in November and March. All parish families are invited to join in and participate. There will be more information when its gets closer.

Online Registration for the weekly classes: Visit our website www.stpatrickcarlsbad.com Click on Religious Education and then Preschool – 8th grade. General information and the online form are at the side bar.

To register in person and for questions about our program contact our office at 760-729-8442 or MDornisch@stpatrickcarlsbad.com. Thank you.

Reflection: 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus urges us to trust in God and to stay focused on loving God and one another. God, the sower of the seed, is the one who nourishes the wheat and judges the wheat from the weeds. Pray and be open to the power of the Holy Spirit!

For parents: Where do you need the guidance of the Holy Spirit this week?

For children: Ask the Holy Spirit for help when you have to do something that is difficult.

Pray: Lord, may our words and actions help your kingdom grow. Amen.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

Wisdom 12:13,16-19

God has shown himself to be a God of justice and mercy.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 86:5-6,9-10,15-16

A prayer to God for mercy.

Second Reading

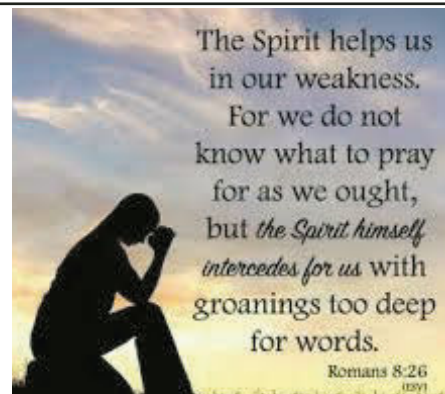

Romans 8:26-27

The Spirit intercedes for us with God.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 13:24-43 (shorter form: Matthew 13:24-30)

Jesus offers parables about the Kingdom of Heaven and explains them to his disciples.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers three parables to describe the Kingdom of Heaven. He also explains why he speaks to the crowds in parables and interprets the parable of the sower for the disciples. This reading is a continuation of Jesus' discourse that we began reading last Sunday.

All three parables use commonplace experiences to describe aspects of the Kingdom of Heaven. The first parable is longer and more detailed than the next two, and it alerts us to the two-fold reality of the Kingdom of Heaven. The beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven can be found in this world. The fruition of the Kingdom of Heaven, however, will not be realized until the final judgment. In the meantime, as Jesus' explanation to the disciples cautions, any effort to judge the progress of the Kingdom of Heaven is premature. Only God, in the final judgment, will distinguish the fruit of the Kingdom of Heaven and offer its reward.

The second and third parables call to our attention the abundance that will result from the small beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven. Just as a mustard seed—the smallest of all seeds—will become a large bush, so too God will bring his Kingdom to full bloom. As a small amount of yeast will leaven the entire batch of bread, so too God will bring about the expansion of his Kingdom. In each case the image is of the superabundance that God brings out of even the smallest of signs of the Kingdom.

Contained within these parables are words of caution as well as words of consolation. In the parable of the sower we are warned against judging others. To judge and uproot the "weeds" prematurely will harm the wheat; final judgment rests with God. In the parables of the mustard seed and the yeast, we are consoled by the message that God can work wonders and produce abundance from even the smallest beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven.
