A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

One of the Corporal Works of Mercy is “to bury the dead.” We also recall that Jesus bids us to comfort those who mourn. The Church wishes to accompany those who are grieving the loss of loved ones and to show the Light of Jesus Christ Risen to those whose hearts are broken. Our parish seeks to embrace those who are mourning and give guidance for the ceremonies which thank God for the deceased’s life and holds the family and friends close in prayer.

Our parish is blessed with an active Funeral Ministry. These dedicated parishioners assist families in their time of need and great loss. The members of the funeral ministry help the family of the deceased to choose readings and select music for the funeral Mass and guide them through the entire funeral process. Other members of the funeral ministry offer hospitality to family and friends who gather for the Mass of Christian Burial. In addition, they serve as adult altar servers during the Mass, leading the procession with cross and candles, presenting the bread and wine to the priest and bringing the incense at the proper time.

We are also trying to expand our funeral ministry to include follow-up and outreach to the bereaved in the weeks and months following the funeral. This also includes our annual All Souls Day Mass during which special remembrance is made of those who have died in the last year.

In order to continue and expand this very special ministry, we need additional members of our funeral team. This is a unique opportunity for those who are retired or have free time during the day. You may choose to participate in a single aspect of this ministry or get involved in several areas.

Please consider this an invitation not only from me, but also a response to the Lord’s call to comfort those who mourn. It is an opportunity to reach out with compassion and healing at a very special time in the life of a family.

If you have questions about this ministry and how you may serve, you may contact me or Maureen Simons at pmaureen.simons@gmail.com or 760-822-4478.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“Cuando aún estaba hablando, una nube luminosa los cubrió y de ella salió una voz que decía, ‘Éste es mi Hijo muy amado, en quien tengo puestas mis complacencias, escúchenlo’”. (San Mateo 17: 1-9). Este domingo celebramos la fiesta de la Transfiguración. Una experiencia importante para los discípulos de Jesús, especialmente para Pedro, Santiago y a Juan, que miraron con sus ojos la transfiguración de Jesús. ¿Pero qué significa la transfiguración de Jesús para nosotros? Jesús, es el Hijo de Dios, que fue enviado para salvar a la humanidad. Paga la deuda del pecado, muriendo en la cruz. Jesús no queda clavado en la cruz, tres días después resucita y asciende al cielo y está sentado en su trono al lado de su Padre para reinar eternamente. Su transfiguración señala quien es Jesucristo y cuál fue su misión. Creemos que Jesús nos da como herencia la Vida Eterna, que cuando pasamos de este mundo, iremos al cielo y miraremos a Jesús cara a cara. Como católicos, tenemos los siete sacramentos que señalan la Vida Eterna. En cada sacramento Dios nos dice, “Te amo, estoy contigo, no tengas miedo”. En cada sacramento recibimos la gracia para seguir caminando y compartiendo con otros lo que hemos recibido de Dios. En la vida habrá de todo y a veces nos en ciega y no podremos ver a Dios a causa de nuestro dolor. En el Evangelio de este domingo, los discípulos al mirar cómo cambiaba Jesús, se llenaron de temor, no entendían lo que estaba pasando. Pero Jesús se acerca a ellos y les dice, “Levántense y no teman”. Esas palabras son para nosotros. Escuchémoslas y llevémoslas adentro de nuestro corazón.

Religious Education & Family Ministry (PreK – 8th grade)

This Sunday is a special feast. Each year on Aug 6, the Church celebrates the Transfiguration of the Lord.

We hear that Jesus took Peter and the brothers, James and John, up a high mountain. There right before their eyes, God revealed his Son Jesus in light and glory to the three disciples confirming: “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.”

We ask ourselves: What difference does our faith in Jesus Christ make in our life? What does it mean to be a holy person?

We pray: Lord Jesus, reveal yourself to us in your glory.

Coming together to learn and grow in faith and helping each other live faithfully are at the heart of our formation program. We invite you and your children to become part of our Religious Education family. Join us. Classes begin in September.

Signing up is easy. Visit our website

Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord – Year A

First Reading

Daniel 7:9–10,13–14

The prophet Daniel describes his vision of one like the Son of Man who received dominion from God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 97:1–2,5–6,9

A Song of Praise to God our King

Second Reading

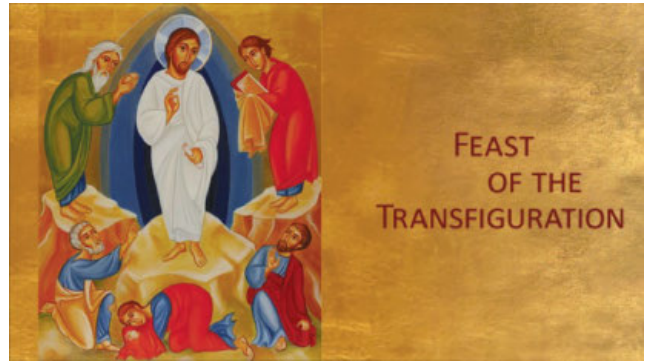

2 Peter 1:16–19

Peter says that the voice heard from Heaven confirmed the truth of his testimony about Christ.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 17:1–9

Jesus is transfigured on the mountain in the presence of Peter, James, and John.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's liturgy invites us to celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. This feast calls to our attention the importance of this event in Jesus' life, further affirmed by its report in each of the Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke. In Cycle A, the reading for this feast is taken from the Gospel of Matthew. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter confesses his belief that Jesus is the Messiah and after Jesus predicts his Passion. In each of these Gospels, a discussion of the cost of discipleship precedes the Transfiguration.

In each Gospel, Jesus takes three of his disciples—Peter, James, and John—to a high mountain. While they are there, Elijah and Moses appear and converse with Jesus. Elijah and Moses are both significant figures in the history of Israel. Moses led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt and received from Yahweh the Ten Commandments. Moses represents the Law, which guides the lives of the Jewish people. Elijah is one of the most important prophets of Israel who helped the Israelites stay faithful to Yahweh, and some believed that Elijah's return would signal the coming of the Messiah for the Jewish people. The appearance of these two figures from Israel's history indicated Jesus' continuity with the Law and the prophets. They also reveal that Jesus is the fulfillment of all that was promised to the people of Israel.

Upon witnessing Jesus' Transfiguration and seeing Jesus with Elijah and Moses, an awestruck Peter offered to construct three tents for them when a voice from Heaven affirms that Jesus is "my beloved Son" and commands the disciples to listen to him.

In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, Jesus instructed the disciples to keep secret what they had seen until after "the Son of Man has been raised from the dead." Until they witnessed Jesus' Passion and Death, the disciples could not possibly understand what he meant by being "raised from the dead." We, however, have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of the Transfiguration Gospel, we see an anticipation of Jesus' Resurrection, a foreshadowing of Christ's glory in Heaven, and the promise of our own resurrection.

Thomas Aquinas

The Eucharist is the Sacrament of Love; It signifies Love, It produces love. The Eucharist is the consummation of the whole spiritual life.
