A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

When Pope Francis spoke to over a million young people in Lisbon (Portugal) at World Youth Day, he knew that world was listening. His message was addressed not only to the young people at WYD but also to young people everywhere. And his message has relevance for us old Christians as well.

He spoke frequently about the importance of faith in Christ and the need for each of us to encounter him in our lives. He spoke also about the need to keep the focus on God and others, not thinking only of ourselves. In his homily at the closing Mass last Sunday, he reflected on the gospel account of the Transfiguration by highlighting three words from story: shine, listen, and be unafraid.

He said we need to be close to Jesus so that it is his light that shines in us. We never want to put the spotlight on ourselves. We need to heed the words of the Father who says of Jesus: "Listen to him." We listen to Jesus in the Scriptures, in the many ways he speaks to us including in our hearts. Thirdly, we need to be unafraid. Young people want to make a difference in the world. The Holy Father encouraged them to go forth into the world and be unafraid to be the light of Christ. Go, make a difference.

You can view and listen to his major speeches and homilies online with an English translation provided. The direct link is <https://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/travels/2023/outside/documents/portogallo-gmg-2023.html>. Then just click on the talk or homily you want to hear.

As you know, our parish had a delegation of young people and adults who participated in WYD along with a pilgrimage with the Eudists in France prior to going to Portugal. I invite you to attend the 5:00 pm Mass on August 20 during which I will invite a couple of our young pilgrims to share their impressions. There will be food on the patio following the Mass and then a praise and worship celebration in the church. Come and experience the joy and enthusiasm.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“Entonces le dijo Pedro: “Señor, si eres tú, mándame ir a ti caminando sobre el agua”. Jesús le contestó, “Ven”. Pedro bajó de la barca y comenzó a caminar sobre el agua hacia Jesús”. (Mateo 14: 28-29). Me imagino siendo Pedro, que al mirar que Jesús está caminando sobre el agua y viene hacia ellos, y por un instante su fe es tan grande que sabe si Jesús lo quiere y ordena que Pedro camine sobre el agua, así sucederá. Jesús le dice, “Ven”. Pedro se baja de la barca y empieza a caminar sobre el agua. Pedro quizás pensaba entre sí, “Wow, ¡camino sobre el agua hacia Jesús!” En el Evangelio de San Mateo en este 19º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, leemos que Pedro empezó a sentir la fuerza del viento y le entró miedo, comenzó a hundirse y le gritó al Señor, “¡Sálvame, Señor!” Pedro, la roca, es una persona muy normal y humana. Tiene una fe grande en Jesús, y está dispuesto a darle todo por Jesús. Pero, también cuando las cosas no van como deben, su fe tiembla y se deja ganar por el temor. ¿Cuántos de nosotros podemos identificarnos con Pedro? Les comparto esto no para hacerlos sentir mal, todos de una manera u otra, cuando los “vientos fuertes del mundo” nos sacuden, nos entra el temor y le quitamos la mirada a Jesús. Nuestra mirada necesita estar siempre puesta en Jesús, en los momentos buenos y no buenos. ¿Y qué pasa si caemos “otra vez”, pensamos que Jesús no nos va a escuchar y ayudar? Jesús siempre está a nuestro lado, para ayudarnos en cada instante de nuestra vida. ¿Qué nos impide mantener nuestra mirada en Jesús? Jesús te dice at ti, “Ven”, ¿Cuál es tu respuesta?

Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Learn More about the Eucharist

As a part of the Diocesan Institute, Fr. Ron Bagley will be teaching a six week course entitled The Eucharist and Sunday. It will be held here at St. Patrick Parish Center on Tuesday evenings, beginning on September 12, 6:30-9:00 pm and conclude on October 24 (skipping September 26).

The course will explore the biblical and liturgical meaning of Sunday, and the Eucharist, sacrament of the Paschal Mystery, as source and summit of the Christian life. Because this course will explore the biblical, theological and liturgical foundations of the Eucharist, it is very appropriate at the beginning of the National Eucharistic Revival year.

Registration is being handled by the Diocesan Institute office.

Contact them at <https://sdccatholic.org/office-for/diocesan-institute/course-schedule/> or call (858) 490-8212. This course can be used for credit toward diocesan certification or for personal enrichment. If you have questions, contact Fr. Ron.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a

The Lord appears to Elijah in a whisper.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 85:9-14

The Lord is the source of salvation.

Second Reading

Romans 9:1-5

Paul speaks of the blessings that have come to the Israelites.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 14:22-33

Jesus walks on water, and the disciples acknowledge him as the Son of God.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel directly follows last week's account of Jesus feeding a crowd of more than 5,000 people with just five loaves of bread and two fish. For the sake of the crowds, Jesus had postponed his time of solitude. Now, at last, Jesus finds some time for quiet and prayer. He sends his disciples ahead of him by boat, dismisses the crowds, and then withdraws to the mountain to pray.

The disciples do not fare well. They struggle to weather the wind and waves, making little progress in their journey.

We are reminded of a previous story in Chapter 8 of Matthew's Gospel, when Jesus calms the seas. This time, however, Jesus does not calm the seas, and the disciples do not express fear until they see Jesus walking toward them on the water. In this story it is not the storm that is feared but the sight of Jesus before them, whom they mistake for a ghost.

Clues like these suggest that this story is about the disciples' growing understanding of the identity of Jesus. In continuity with the story of the feeding of the multitude, today's Gospel is also about what the disciples' faith in Jesus will enable them to do.

In last week's Gospel, when the disciples see the crowds, they ask Jesus to send the crowds away. Jesus turns the situation around, telling the disciples to feed the crowd with the provisions that they have.

Both of these Gospels tell us much about ministry.

Jesus calls to the disciples and calms their fears. He is not a ghost. The impulsive Peter seeks proof that the person is indeed Jesus. He asks Jesus to call him out onto the water, and Jesus grants this request. Peter's fear and doubt overtake him, however, once he is walking on the water. Jesus reaches out to Peter and saves him. When Jesus and Peter enter the boat, Matthew reports that the wind ceases, and the disciples confess that Jesus is the Son of God.

Faith in Jesus will enable the disciples to do the work that Jesus has done. Peter walks on water. The five loaves and two fish feed a multitude of people. The disciples can and will participate in the work of the kingdom of heaven.

When Peter fears and doubts the person of Jesus, however, he falters. Peter's example teaches us that true Christian ministry emerges from the faith that Jesus is the Messiah, God's only Son.
