A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

One of the joys of being your pastor is to witness new members entering the Church. A couple weeks ago, I shared the excitement of welcoming adults into the Church at Easter through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist. Our RCIA process is restarting with a new group of catechumens and candidates. See further information below.

I am also very pleased that we are able to welcome babies and young children into the Church through the waters of Baptism. The baptism of a child is an important time in the life of a family. It not only fulfills the parents' responsibility "to bring up their child in the practice of the faith" (as indicated in the Rite of Baptism), but it often provides an opportunity for young parents to reconsider the meaning and importance of their own faith.

With that in mind, we take seriously the opportunity to help parents and godparents prepare for this special sacrament.

I am so happy that, through the leadership of Fr. Azam Mansha, we have been able to reconstitute the parish Baptismal Preparation Team. Like so many things that lapsed during the pandemic, our baptismal team has been rejuvenated with both clergy and lay members. They are offering an exciting formation program for parents and godparents. For further information, contact Fr. Azam.

Not only is it joy for me to see new Catholics being baptized but it is also a joy for all of us as a Christian community. Like all the sacraments, Baptism is a community celebration. The child or adult is being welcomed into the Christian community. Therefore, it is appropriate that Baptism takes place when the community gathers. That is why many of our baptisms will be celebrated during parish Masses. To help everyone plan better, we have designated two Sundays a month as possible Masses during which Baptism is celebrated: at the 11:00 am Mass on the second and fourth Sundays of the month. If there are baptisms at Mass, it will be on those dates.

I know that many of our parishioners will welcome the opportunity to witness the Baptism of new members. I am also aware that some people are concerned that this may prolong the Mass and become inconvenient. I want to assure you that we priests are attentive to the need to balance the joy of celebrating Baptism at Mass with the practical concern of not unduly lengthening the Mass. I ask for your patience and understanding as we move forward with this plan and make necessary adjustments.

A couple months ago, I shared with you the parish goals developed by the Future Directions Committee. These emerged from our parish listening sessions. Several of these goals encouraged us to be welcoming to families and young people. They challenged us to connect young families with the parish community. I think our plans for baptisms at Mass are one of the ways we can begin to make those connections. Thank you for your support.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“Ella se acercó entonces a Jesús y postrada ante él, le dijo, “¿Señor, ayúdame!” ... Entonces Jesús le respondió, “Mujer, ¡Qué grande es tu fe! Que se cumpla lo que desees”. Y en aquel mismo instante quedó curada su hija. (Mateo 15: 21-28). En este XX Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, leemos de una mujer cananea que sale a buscar y a rogar a Jesús que cure a su hija que está atormentada por un demonio. ¿Cuál mamá no hace hasta la imposible para que sus hijas e hijos se alivien de cualquier enfermedad? Esta mamá cananea no era diferente a las mamás que nos rodean ahora. Pero tenía unos obstáculos.

Primero, esta mujer era cananea, con costumbres y tradiciones diferentes a los judíos. Segundo, como era cananea era vista como una persona impura y los judíos evitaban contacto con estas personas por no contagiarse de sus impurezas. Pero a esta mujer no le interesa. Aunque no era judía y vivía con otras tradiciones no de buena vista a los judíos, ella sabía que Jesús podía a sanar a su hija. Y por su confianza en Jesús y su insistencia a que cure a su hija, Jesús escucha su clamor, su oración, y su hija es curada. Jesús ve la fe de esta mujer cananea, no ve si es judía o no. Y creo que esta semana deberíamos meditar sobre este Jesús que quiere sanar nuestras enfermedades. Las enfermedades que se ven y no ven, esas que están enraizadas en nuestro corazón, como la enfermedad del egoísmo, autosuficiencia, envidia, narcisismo, y otras actitudes que destruyen a nosotros mismos y a las personas de nuestro alrededor. Acerquémonos a Jesús y pidámosle con confianza como la mujer cananea, que Jesús quiere curarnos y sanarnos.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

Isaiah 56:1,6-7

The Lord reveals his salvation to all.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalms 67:2-3,5-6,8

All the nations will praise God.

Second Reading

Romans 11:13-15,29-32

God's favor to Israel is irrevocable.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 15:21-28

Jesus heals the daughter of the Canaanite woman because of her great faith.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today we move ahead in our reading of Matthew's Gospel. Last week we read about Jesus walking on the water and the disciples' confession of faith that Jesus is the Son of God. If we were reading Matthew's entire Gospel, we would have read about Jesus' debate with the Pharisees about Jewish purity laws. Jesus argues that it is not what goes into us that makes us unclean; he is referring to the strict Jewish dietary rules. Instead our words and our actions—what comes out of us—make us unclean because they emerge from a heart that is unclean.

Knowing about Jesus' debate with the Pharisees helps us to understand today's Gospel. In fact the story heightens the surprise and shock we feel as we hear Jesus' exchange with the Canaanite woman. The woman, who is not Jewish, approaches Jesus, requesting that he heal her demon-possessed daughter. At first Jesus ignores her; he says nothing. The disciples ask Jesus to send her away, and Jesus agrees, remarking that he was sent to minister to the Jews alone.

The woman persists, paying homage to Jesus, and yet Jesus denies her request again. He even insults her, using a Jewish word of derision for Gentiles, "dog." But the woman cleverly turns Jesus' insult into an affirmation of faith. Only then does Jesus grant her request and heal her daughter.

Jesus' unresponsiveness to this woman may strike us as uncharacteristic or shocking. Yet in Matthew's Gospel, Jesus' ministry is directed primarily to the people of Israel. At only a very few points, such as the one found in today's Gospel, do we find Jesus anticipating the later Christian ministry to the rest of the world.

Behind Matthew's text we can hear this early Christian community's struggle to understand how God's selection of Israel is consistent with two events: Israel's rejection of Jesus and the Gentiles' acceptance of Jesus. Just as Jesus was surprised by the faith expressed by the Canaanite woman, so too the first Christians were surprised that the Gentiles would receive the salvation God offered through Christ. In today's second reading from Paul's letter to the Romans, we hear the apostle Paul considering this same concern.

The faith that the Canaanite woman expresses is an affirmation of and confidence in God's abundant mercy. Yes, salvation comes through Israel, but it overflows for the benefit of all.
