A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

I have always been intrigued by the influence of St. Monica on her son St. Augustine. (The memorials of these two saints are celebrated back-to-back on August 27 and 28. This year the 21st Sunday of Ordinary Time replaces St. Monica.)

The circumstances of St. Monica's life could have made her a nagging wife, a bitter daughter-in-law, and a despairing parent, yet she did not give way to any of these temptations. Although she was a Christian, her parents gave her in marriage to a pagan, Patricius, who lived in her hometown of Tagaste in North Africa. Patricius had some redeeming features, but he had a violent temper and was licentious. Monica also had to bear with a cantankerous mother-in-law who lived in her home. Patricius criticized his wife because of her charity and piety, but always respected her. Monica's prayers and example finally won her husband and mother-in-law to Christianity. Her husband died in 371, one year after his baptism.

Monica had at least three children who survived infancy. The oldest, Augustine, is the most famous. At the time of his father's death, Augustine was 17 and a rhetoric student in Carthage. Monica was distressed to learn that her son had accepted the Manichean heresy—"all flesh is evil"—and was living an immoral life. For a while, she refused to let him eat or sleep in her house. Then one night she had a vision that assured her Augustine would return to the faith. From that time on, she stayed close to her son, praying and fasting for him. In fact, she often stayed much closer than Augustine wanted.

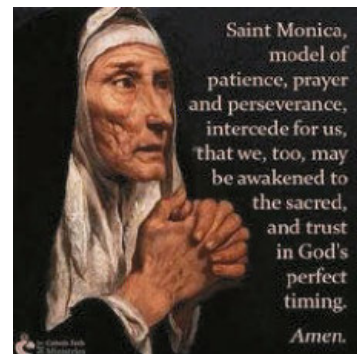

When he was 29, Augustine decided to go to Rome to teach rhetoric. Monica was determined to go along. One night he told his mother that he was going to the dock to say goodbye to a friend. Instead, he set sail for Rome. Monica was heartbroken when she learned of Augustine's trick, but she still followed him. She arrived in Rome only to find that he had left for Milan. Although travel was difficult, Monica pursued him to Milan.

In Milan, Augustine came under the influence of the bishop, St. Ambrose, who also became Monica's spiritual director. She continued her prayers for Augustine during his years of instruction. At Easter 387, St. Ambrose baptized Augustine and several of his friends. Soon after, his party left for Africa. Although no one else was aware of it, Monica knew her life was near the end. She told Augustine, "Son, nothing in this world now affords me delight. I do not know what there is now left for me to do or why I am still here, all my hopes in this world being now fulfilled." She became ill shortly after and died.

Almost all we know about St. Monica comes from the writings of St. Augustine, especially his Confessions. He portrays her as a mother who patiently prayed for her wayward son. At every moment of her life, she expressed her love for him. She rejoiced that God used someone else to touch his heart and lead him to faith. In these ways, she can serve as a model for mothers of all times.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“Luego Jesús les preguntó, “Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy yo?” Simón Pedro tomó la palabra y le dijo, “Tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios vivo”. Los judíos del tiempo de Jesús esperaban ansiosamente la venida del Mesías. El Mesías iba a restaurar todo lo que habían perdido a otros imperios y naciones. El Mesías iba a ser un gran guerrero, como el Rey David, conquistando y dominando con fuerza y violencia. Pero Jesús es diferente a lo que esperaban. Jesús habla de un Reino de Dios basado en el amor y la misericordia. Él sana a los enfermos y levanta a los muertos, restaura la dignidad de todos, y no le importa su color ni su religión. Los discípulos ven lo que Jesús está haciendo y diciendo. En el Evangelio de este XXI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, hay una conversación entre Jesús y sus discípulos sobre, ¿Qué dice la gente quien es Jesús? Los discípulos le dan varias respuestas, pero luego les hace esta pregunta personalmente, “Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy yo?” Pedro tiene la respuesta ganadora, y Jesús lo reconoce y luego explica la misión de Pedro en la historia de la salvación. Pero los reto a analizar la pregunta que Jesús les hace a los discípulos en sus propias vidas, “¿Quién es Jesús para ti?” ¿Jesús es alguien que miramos en las imágenes y hacemos oraciones bonitas? O, ¿es alguien que vemos en el crucifijo de un rosario que ponemos en nuestro carro como amuleto de la suerte? ¿Quién es Jesús para ti? O, ¿es alguien real, a quien le hablamos como si fuera nuestro mejor amigo? ¿Quién te reta a amar y perdonar más, a ser más paciente y respetuoso? ¿Quién es Jesús para ti?

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Ministerio de Consolación

Cada uno de nosotros vive el duelo de la pérdida de un ser querido de una manera diferente. Algunas personas tratan de lidiar con su dolor por sí mismos y no quieren o no necesitan asistencia de afuera. Sin embargo, muchos otros buscan y encuentran consuelo al compartir su dolor, enojo, depresión u otras emociones que pueden experimentar después de la pérdida de un ser querido.

Nos reunimos los lunes a las 7:00pm en el salón parroquial.

Para más información, comuníquese con Lola Enríquez, 760-712-2029.

- * an adult who received some but not all of the sacraments.
- * an adult who was raised in another faith and now wishes to become Catholic.

We are now forming a new group of catechumens and candidates. The English group will meet on Sunday mornings beginning September 10. This is a change from our meeting date in the past. We will invite the English group to attend the 9:00 am Mass together and then stay for another hour of formation after the Mass.

For those in the English group can sign up or seek further information by contacting Fr. Ron at rmbagley@yahoo.com or 760-729-2866 or our coordinators Brick and Rebecca Langford at carlsbadrebecca@gmail.com.

Learn More about the Eucharist

As a part of the Diocesan Institute, Fr. Ron Bagley will be teaching a six week course entitled The Eucharist and Sunday. It will be held here at St. Patrick Parish Center on Tuesday evenings, beginning on September 12, 6:30-9:00 pm and conclude on October 24 (skipping September 26).

The course will explore the biblical and liturgical meaning of Sunday, and the Eucharist, sacrament of the Paschal Mystery, as source and summit of the Christian life. Because this course will explore the biblical, theological and liturgical foundations of the Eucharist, it is very appropriate at the beginning of the National Eucharistic Revival year.

Registration is being handled by the Diocesan Institute office. Contact them at <https://sdcatholic.org/office-for/diocesan-institute/course-schedule/> or call (858) 490-8212. This course can be used for credit toward diocesan certification or for personal enrichment. If you have questions, contact Fr. Ron.

Hurricane Aftermath

We are grateful that our parish property did not suffer any damage as a result of this "historic storm". However, lower attendance at Mass last weekend resulted in a much smaller collection. Please add your usual weekly contribution to your next offering at Mass (or use online giving). Our parish budget depends on your regular support.

Ruah Adonai to Resume October 4

Registration is this weekend for Ruah Adonai - Breath of God Bible study August 26 and 27

after all the morning Masses.

A Biblical Walk Through the Mass (5 sessions)

"The Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive him Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist." Watch a video clip here

Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy

(10 sessions) "God sent prophets at critical times to call the people back to their covenant relationship. Prophets proclaimed the consequences of continued sin, called people to repentance, and declared God's faithful love. They also spoke of the future to shed light on current events and to reveal God's plans and purposes."

Watch a video clip here.

Ruah Adonai - Breath of God Bible Study is open to men and women. No previous bible study experience needed. Our mission is to know, to love and to serve God. We meet Wednesdays from 8:30 am to 10 am in the Parish Hall to view an engaging video presentation followed by a lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information contact Kelly Le Berthon at kelly.leberthon12@gmail.com

Annual Catholic Appeal

As we move into the last quarter of this year, it is time to think about your donation to the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). It is the opportunity we have to contribute to the good work being done by Catholic Charities and various pastoral ministries of the Diocese. Our parish goal (the actual amount we will be assessed) is $96,625.00. To date, we have collected $71,582.22 in cash and pledges. That means we are still $25,042.78 short of our goal. If we do not reach that goal, we will be assessed the balance.

Reminder: no money donated to ACA can be used for legal fees or bankruptcy settlement. ACA is a restricted fund that can only be used for the purpose and intention of the donors.

Religious Education & Family Ministry (PreK – 8th grade)

Dear Families,

Our catechists are excited about the new school year and look forward to welcoming public school students who have already received their First Holy Communion to their weekly classes.

Together they pray, discuss, and expand the knowledge of faith and help each other live catholic values every day. The students create personal faith journals with reflections about the Sunday gospels. They are invited to take on responsibilities as student leaders within our program's prayer services, devotions, saints presentations, and the Christmas pageant, and in our parish community as altar servers and to help with our monthly Masses.

Classes begin in September. Signing up is easy.

Sign up online: Visit our website www.stpatrickcarlsbad.com. Click on Religious Education and then Preschool – 8th grade. Information about our weekly classes from Preschool through 8th grade and preparation for First Holy Communion (and Baptism if needed) are at the side bar. The online form can be submitted electronically.

Sign up in person: We have an Open House on Sunday August 27, 2023 in the parish center after the gam Mass. You may also contact us at MDornisch@stpatrickcarlsbad.com or 760-729-8442.

Aid to Maui

Being residents of California, we know the horrible effect of wildfires. Yet the devastation in Maui is catastrophic. As Christians we see in this disaster an opportunity to practice the Corporal Works of Mercy: feeding the hungry, providing shelter for the homeless, bringing healing to the sick, comforting those who mourn, and so on.

There are many ways for us to help but the greatest need at the moment is for cash for immediate relief, supplying very basic needs, and starting the long rebuilding process. Many organizations are coming to the aid of Maui, most of them quite legitimate. But there are scammers out there. The following organizations can be trusted and will make sure that help gets to those who need it. Consider a donation to help those in need.

Our parish is participating in a special collection to assist the Church in Hawaii recover from the devastation caused by the recent fires. This will be a second collection on August 26-27. Proceeds from this collection will be sent to the Diocese of Honolulu, of which Maui is a part.

"The Eucharist, although it is the fullness of sacramental life, is not a prize for the perfect but a powerful medicine and nourishment for the weak."

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

Isaiah 22:19-23

God will remove Shebna from his office as master of the palace.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 138:1-3,6,8

God's kindness is forever.

Second Reading

Romans 11:33-36

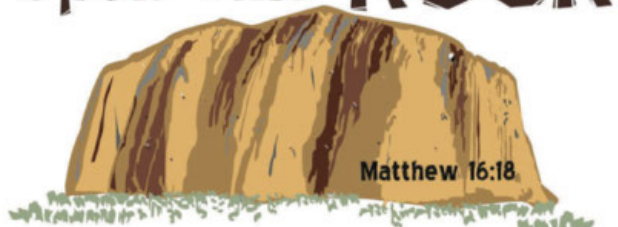

Paul sings praise to God.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 16:13-20

Simon Peter acknowledges Jesus as the Christ and is given the key to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Upon This ROCK

I Will Build My Church

Background on the Gospel Reading

It is important to read today's Gospel and next week's Gospel as two parts of a single story. These readings are a turning point in Matthew's Gospel. This week we hear Jesus name Simon Peter as the rock upon which he will build his Church. Next week we will hear Jesus call this same Simon Peter "Satan" when he reacts negatively to Jesus' prediction about his passion and death.

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks his disciples what people are saying about his identity. The disciples indicate that most people believe that Jesus is a prophet of Israel. Then Jesus asks his disciples who they believe that he is. Simon Peter answers, identifying Jesus as the Messiah, the Son of God.

Jesus commends Simon Peter for this profession of faith, indicating that this insight has come from God. Because of Simon Peter's response, Jesus calls him the "rock" upon which Jesus will build the Church. This is a word play on the name Peter, which is the Greek word for "rock." Peter is then given special authority by Jesus, a symbolic key to the Kingdom of Heaven. Peter will play an important role in the early Christian community as a spokesperson and a leader.

In today's Gospel, Peter's recognition of Jesus' identity is credited to a revelation by God. This will contrast sharply with Jesus' rebuke of Peter in next week's Gospel. When Peter rejects Jesus' prediction of his passion and death, Peter is said to no longer be thinking as God does but as humans do.

The use of the term church in today's Gospel is one of only three such occurrences in Matthew's Gospel. Peter in this Gospel is being credited as the foundation for the Church, a privilege granted to him because of his recognition of Jesus' identity. The Church continues to be grounded in the faith that Jesus Christ is Lord.
