A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

We are in the midst of the Jewish High Holy Days. The two main High Holy Days are Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. All Jewish holidays follow the lunar calendar, which is why they begin on a different date every year. This year, the High Holy Days are September 15-17 for Rosh Hashanah and September 24-25 for Yom Kippur. Some years they can begin as late as October. It's also important to note that all Jewish holidays begin at sundown the night before, and last through sundown on the last day of the holiday.

Why is this important for us? It is because Catholics and all Christians are sprung from the roots of our Jewish ancestors. Jesus and all his first disciples were thoroughly Jewish. They celebrated these holy days. Rosh Hashanah means "head of the year" in Hebrew. As the first holiday in the Jewish calendar year, it is essentially the celebration of the Jewish New Year. Rosh Hashanah is considered a time for renewal, reflection, and excitement for the possibilities the new year may bring.

Yom Kippur is the holiest day of the year in Judaism because it is believed to be the day the Book of Life is sealed. It is also known as the Day of Judgment or the Day of Atonement and is observed by fasting and intense prayer. Many Jews spend much of the day at synagogue, repenting and asking for forgiveness of their sins, as well as the sins of others. The day ends with again blowing the shofar, symbolizing the closing of the Book of Life. Traditionally, Jews may then break the day-long fast with a celebratory meal at home with family after sundown.

Even as we Catholics profess our belief in Christ as the Messiah, the Son of God, and Savior of the world, we also recognize God's unfailing, steadfast love for His chosen people, Israel. In our mission of preaching Christ to the world, we do not dismiss or reject the spiritual treasures of the Jewish people. Also, as Pope St. John Paul II said in Miami in 1987: "Differences in faith should not cause enmity but open up the way of reconciliation, so that in the end 'God may be all in all' (1 Corinthians 15:28)."

Similarly, Pope Benedict XVI said that in those areas of faith in which we diverge, "we need to show respect and love for one another"

Vatican II condemned all forms of anti-Semitism and called it a sin. This has been restated by every pope since the 1960s. The Church has repeatedly stressed that Jews are not responsible for the death of Jesus. These old prejudices need to be purged from our thoughts. Pope John Paul II referred to Jews as "our elder brothers and sisters." That should be our attitude as well.

I am pleased to be able to accept the invitation of Temple Solel (Cardiff-by-the-Sea) to join their congregation in prayer on the evening of September 24. During these holy days, let us pray for and with our Jewish friends and greet them in a spirit of shalom.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: “Si tu hermano comete un pecado, ve y amonéstalo a solas. Si te escucha, habrás salvado a tu hermano”. (Mateo 18: 15-20). Este domingo escuchamos la enseñanza de Jesús a sus discípulos de la manera que la comunidad necesita enfrentar a un hermano que está viviendo en pecado con la esperanza de salvarlo. Primero es hablar con él a solas. Y si el hermano no hace caso, regresar con él después, pero esta vez que vayan dos a tres personas para que haya testigos de lo que se está hablando. Y si no hace caso el hermano, y sigue en su pecado, díselo a la comunidad. Y si ni a la comunidad le hace caso, entonces el hermano es expulsado de la comunidad, “como si fuera un pagano o publicano”. El evangelista Mateo, le está hablando a una comunidad de judíos que se ha convertido al cristianismo. Y ahora miran esta enseñanza de Jesús la manera de tratar con personas que se han desviado del camino de Dios. Jesús sabe que entre nosotros siempre habrá luchas y desacuerdos, no quiere que vivamos en “la oscuridad” o sentirnos perdidos y sin dignidad. Jesús quiere sanar y restaurar relaciones que han sido dañadas por el pecado. Es muy fácil mirar el error de otros, y luego juzgamos y criticamos, pero ese no es nuestro papel. San Pablo nos dice, “amar a nuestro prójimo como a ti mismo”. ¡Y ése es nuestro papel! En el Evangelio se nos da un esquema para remediar problemas y luchas. Pero nunca olvidemos que somos hijas e hijos de un Dios de amor y compasión. Y así como Dios nos trata, así debemos ser nosotros, reflejando amor y compasión a los que nos rodean.

The course will explore the biblical and liturgical meaning of Sunday, and the Eucharist, sacrament of the Paschal Mystery, as source and summit of the Christian life. Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

Ezekiel 33:7-9

The Son of Man is appointed as guardian of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 95:1-2,6-9

Song of praise to God, our salvation.

Second Reading

Romans 13:8-10

The Law is summarized in the commandment to love your neighbor as yourself.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus teaches his disciples how to settle disputes in the Church.

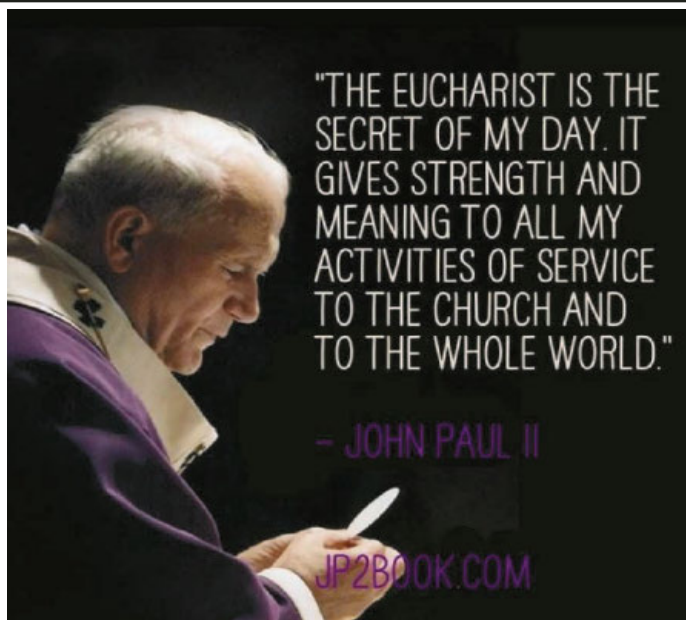

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel reading is taken from a chapter of Matthew's Gospel, which is sometimes called the "discourse on the Church" or the "church order" discourse. In this part of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus speaks more directly about matters of Church discipline and order. In today's reading we find one of only three instances in which Jesus uses the word church in Matthew's Gospel. In Matthew's record of Jesus' teaching, we can hear echoes of the kinds of issues faced by the early Christian community.

In the first part of the "discourse on the Church" (Matthew 18:1-14), Matthew addresses the Christian community's concerns about rank. Jesus responds to the disciples' question about who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Jesus indicates that those who wish to enter the kingdom of heaven must be like children, and he cautions those leaders who might lead these "little ones" astray. He also responds with the parable of the lost sheep, indicating how God will seek out and bring back those "little ones" who have strayed.

In today's Gospel reading, Matthew 18:15-20, Jesus addresses a common occurrence in the Christian community: a dispute between two members of the Church. Jesus outlines a procedure for settling such matters fairly. The victim should privately address the offender and attempt to resolve the dispute without outside involvement. If that fails, then the victim should bring two or three witnesses and confront the offender again. If the dispute is still unresolved, the matter should be brought to the attention of the entire community. If the offender refuses to adhere to the reparations prescribed by the community, then Jesus suggests that the offender may be expelled from the Church.

Jesus does not discourage disagreement within the community of the Church; he acknowledges the reality of conflict and error and offers his disciples a means for addressing such matters. It is in the conclusion to this teaching that the message of hope is found: Jesus is present with the community and will guide the community in its relations. If decisions are taken in prayer, then the community can be assured of God's assistance.
