A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

This coming week, all ordained priests ministering in the diocese of San Diego are invited to the annual Convocation of Priests. Fr. Azam and I will join our brother priests for this event in Temecula on September 25-27. It is part of our ongoing formation as priests. The Church reminds us that our formation did not end at our ordination.

Ongoing formation plays a crucial role in enhancing the effectiveness of priests in their ministry. It helps priests to continually grow and develop in their understanding of their vocation and mission as ministers of Christ in the Church. Through ongoing formation, priests are able to deepen their awareness of their share in the Church's saving mission and the seriousness of their obligation to preach the Gospel and be faithful stewards of the mysteries of God.

Ongoing formation encompasses various dimensions, including human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral aspects. It helps priests to live out their identity and ministry in the Church and for the Church, enabling them to become doers of the Word and to live in love. By deepening their faith and understanding of who they truly are as ministers of Christ, priests are able to exercise their ministry with fidelity and generosity, even in the face of difficulties and fatigue.

During our annual Convocation of Priests, we will have time to pray together, to socialize, to listen to talks, and to share with our bishops and brother priests. The featured speaker for this year's convocation is Most Rev. George Thomas, Archbishop of Las Vegas. He will give five conferences over the three days. We will also take the opportunity to have a celebration with those priests who are observing their Silver and Golden anniversaries of ordination.

The three days of the Convocation will close with a special Evening Prayer on Wednesday, during which we will pray for our two new auxiliary bishops: Rev. Micael Pham and Rev. Felipe Pulido. Also during this liturgy, Cardinal Robert McElroy will bless their pontifical insignia: pectoral cross, crozier and ring.

On Thursday, September 28, Fathers Pham and Pulido will be ordained as bishops by Cardinal McElroy at St. Therese of Carmel Church. Co-consecrators will be Bishop Joseph J. Tyson of Yakima, WA, and Bishop John P. Dolan of Phoenix, AZ. Many bishops and priests will concelebrate. Due to the number of people expected, it is a ticketed event and only those with tickets will be admitted to the church. Others will be directed to the parish hall for livestream participation. The whole Diocese rejoices in the gifts these new bishops bring to the pastoral care of our Church.

In conclusion, I assure you that we, your priests and bishops, appreciate your prayers and support. It is only by the grace of God that we are able to exercise the ministry to which we have been called. Please pray that God will continue to give us this grace.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“Toma, pues, lo tuyo y vete. Yo quiero darle al que llegó al último lo mismo que a ti. ¿Qué no puedo hacer con lo mío lo que yo quiero? ¿O vas a tenerme rencor porque yo soy bueno? De igual manera, los últimos serán los primeros, y los primeros, los últimos”. (Mateo 20:1-16). Muchas veces caemos en la tentación de medir lo que tenemos con lo que tienen otros. Aunque sabemos que hemos sido bendecidos por Dios de muchas maneras. Pero al mirar a otros ganar o tener más, nos entran celos y nos preguntamos, “¿Por qué ellos? Yo quiero lo mismo.” El compararnos con otros es un defecto humano, y deberíamos cuidarnos de eso. En el Evangelio de este XXV Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Jesús les cuenta a sus discípulos la parábola de los trabajadores de la viña. Que había un propietario que salió a buscar trabajadores para su viña, y salió a diferentes horas del día, y a cada grupo le decía que les iba a pagar un denario. Llega el tiempo de pagarles, llama primero a los últimos hasta llegar a los primeros. Los últimos reciben un denario, los que llegaron antes de ellos también reciben un denario. Pero cuando llegan los primeros, los que llegaron desde la mañana y que soportaron el peso del día, pensaban que iban a recibir más de un denario. Y cuando el propietario les paga un denario, con lo que habían concordado, se quejan. La tentación de compararnos no sólo es en las cosas materiales sino también en las cosas espirituales. Dios nos llama constantemente y nos quiere bañar con su gracia y paz. Unos respondemos inmediatamente y a otros nos cuesta responder y tardamos. Dios es paciente y nos espera con amor.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Mass for Anointing of the Sick

On Saturday Sept. 30 at 11am we will be celebrating the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick with a Mass.

The sacrament is open to anyone who has a chronic illness or is physically weakened because of old age or a serious health problem. The sacrament of the sick will be offered in both English and Spanish. Anyone is welcome to join in the prayers of the Mass.

RCIA Is For You If You Are:

- * an adult (18+) who has never been part of a formal religion.
- * an adult who was baptized in a faith tradition other than Catholicism.
- * an adult who received some but not all of the sacraments.
- * an adult who was raised in another faith and now wishes to become Catholic.

We are now forming a new group of catechumens and candidates. The English group will meet on Sunday mornings. This is a change from our meeting date in the past. We will invite the English group to attend the 9:00 am Mass together and then stay for another hour of formation after the Mass.

For those in the English group can sign up or seek further information by contacting Fr. Ron at rmbagley@yahoo.com or 760-729-2866 or our coordinators Brick and Rebecca Langford at carlsbadrebecca@gmail.com.

Reflection for 25th Sunday of Ordinary Time

God's love is unlimited, powerful, and available to all – no matter when they discover it. We do not need to worry about the amount of love allotted to us. In God's abundance, we all get what we need.

Prayer Intention: for our (parish) family: Give us the grace to be generous to others with love and goodness.

Registration for Religious Education is still open

The weekly classes are held on Sunday mornings, Monday, and Tuesday afternoons. Families choose the class time that works best for their schedule. We invite children in preschool, elementary school and Jr. High and students that need preparation for First Holy Communion (and Baptism if needed) to become part of our Religious Education family.

Online registration: www.stpatrickcarlsbad.com Click on Religious Education, then Preschool – 8th grade. The online form can be submitted electronically.

You may also contact us at

SCAM ALERT of Emails and Texts from Fr. Ron Bagley

Once again, an email scammer is trying to take advantage of our parishioners. The person sends an email or text to parishioners claiming to be Fr. Ron, and asks for gift cards or cash or asks for some favors.

Fr. Ron will never make such requests of parishioners. Another indication that it is a scam is to look at the email address of the sender. It will have Fr. Ron's name in it but it is not his email. Please delete these emails and block the texts immediately as such a request will never come from the parish through an email or text.

Season of Creation

Restoring Our Common Home

1 September – 4 October 2021

#SeasonOfCreation www.catholicbishops.ie #CreationTime

The Season of Creation is an ecumenical observance that occurs every year. It starts September 1, the Day of Prayer for Creation, and ends October 4, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of ecology beloved by many Christian denominations. The Catholic Church has been a part of this observance since 2015.

Saints Francis and Clare had a relational understanding of creation. All creatures, from the smallest to “our Sister, Mother Earth,” were sisters and brothers, part of the very family of God. Because of this, Francis was named the patron saint of ecology by Pope John Paul II.

Following this tradition, St. Bonaventure developed a theological and spiritual vision that acknowledged all creation as emanating from the goodness of God, existing as a “footprint” of God, and leading us back to God if we are able to “read” nature properly. He spoke of creation as the first book that God wrote.

Choose some natural wonder: a leaf, a sunset, a flower, a stately tree, an animal, or the beach. Remember: Jesus said “consider the lilies,” not look at them or smell them, but reflect on them. What does it show you about God?

The heavens are telling the glory of God,

And all creation is shouting for joy!

Come, dance in the forest, come, play in the field,

And sing, sing to the glory of the Lord!

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

Isaiah 55:6-9

God's ways are far beyond the ways of human beings.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 145:2-3,8-9,17-18

God is near to those who call upon him.

Second Reading

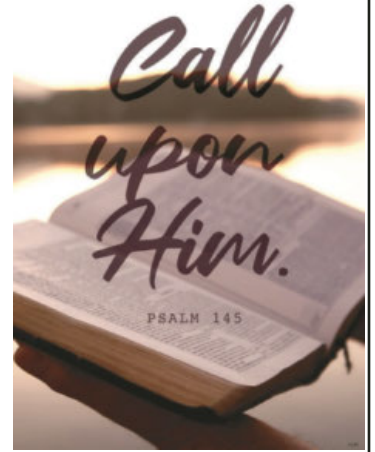

Philippians 1:20c-24,27a

Paul tells the Philippians to live for Christ.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 20:1-16

In the parable of the workers in the vineyard, Jesus teaches about God's generous mercy.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel, Jesus moves from Galilee to teach in Judea where he is sought out by great crowds and tested by the Pharisees on issues such as marriage and divorce. Jesus also encounters a rich young man who is unable to accept Jesus' demand that he leave his possessions to follow him. Jesus' response to the rich young man sounds very much like the conclusion we will find in today's Gospel: the first will be last and the last will be first.

On the surface, the parable of the workers in the vineyard appears to be an offense to common sense. Those who work a longer day ought to be paid more than those who work just an hour or two. When viewed in this way, the landowner seems unfair. That is because we are reading into the parable our own preconceived notions of how fairness and equality should be quantified.

A close read shows us that the landowner paid on the terms that were negotiated. The landowner, it seems, has acted completely justly. The parable goes beyond that, however, and we come to see that the landowner is not simply just, he is exceptionally just. He is radically just. He has given those who labored in the field for a full day their due pay. But he has also given a full-day's wage to those who worked only a single hour. No one is cheated, but a few receive abundantly from the landowner just as we receive from God more than what is merely justifiable or due. God, like the landowner, is radically just and abundantly generous. The workers who complain are made to look foolish as they lament the fact that landowner has made all workers equal. Indeed, what more could one ask for than to be treated as an equal at work or anywhere else?

The parable reminds us that although God owes us nothing, he offers abundantly and equally. We are occasionally tempted to think that our own actions deserve more reward, more of God's abundant mercy, than the actions of others. But God's generosity cannot be quantified or partitioned into different amounts for different people. When we think that way, we are trying to relate to God on our terms rather than to accept God's radically different ways.
