A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

As you have seen, the repairs to our church have become a longer project than we expected. I want to use this space today to update you on our progress.

You may recall that it started with removal of a huge beehive in the bell tower and tenting the church and other buildings for termites. That project revealed both the extent of the termite damage as well as the water that was leaking into the church building. The damage to the belltower was repaired.

Speaking of water intrusion, we discovered that our windows in the church (above the stations of the cross) were allowing water to leak into the walls. After consulting with architects and contractors, we decided that all 14 windows needed to be replaced. The windows were ordered and have arrived. You will notice that they were recently installed on the Tamarack side of the building. The other 7 will be installed after Easter.

Again, due to water intrusion, it was also necessary to replace some wood and to make repairs on the stucco on the outside of the church which had deteriorated due to age. We began on the Tamarack side of the church and are working our way around the building along the north side and ending at the main doors of the church. Finally, there is also water intrusion from below in the music room of the church. Workers will need to dig an exploratory hole to inspect the flashing. Then we be able to determine the extent of the work that needs to be done.

You may have noticed that we are gradually replacing the kneelers in the church. This is through the efforts of Rick Nelson who is moving systematically through the church. It will take a while to complete, but Rick is saving us a lot of money.

In addition to the church, we are also repairing air vents in the parish offices, rectory and parish hall. Many of them were leaking during the recent rains. New signage is also planned for the entire property.

Two major projects are still waiting to be undertaken. We know that we need to replace the roof of the parish offices and the parish center. Those buildings will also need stucco work and painting. Likewise, the house of Tamarack (where Fr. Azam and I live) is in desperate need of window replacement and siding. We are trying to plan for these projects as time and budget permit.

Your generosity has made it possible for us to continue with these necessary repairs. The wonderful response to our increased giving campaign last fall has provided the means for this important work. Please continue to be generous so that we can continue.

Special thanks to Maria Gonzalez, our Parish Manager, for her diligence and patience in following all of these projects to completion while securing the best pricing.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo de parte del Diácono Miguel

“Jesús les dijo, ‘El que quiera servirme, que me siga, para que donde yo esté, también esté mi servidor. El que me sirve será honrado por mi Padre’. (Juan 12: 20-33). Hoy celebramos el V Domingo de Cuaresma, cada día más cerca de las fiestas Pascuales. Jesús siempre nos invita a que no busquemos el reino de este mundo, sino busquemos el Reino de los Cielos, la Vida Eterna. El Evangelio de este domingo San Juan escribe de estas palabras, muerte y fruto. Jesús nos dice que Él morirá, pero que por su muerte en la cruz habrá mucho fruto. Y nos pide a nosotros que hagamos lo mismo que Él. Que no nos preocupemos de las cosas de este mundo, no porque todas son malas, sino que estas cosas del mundo son pasajeras. ¿Qué llevamos con nosotros cuando nos llega la muerte? NADA. Las cosas del mundo nos engañan y nos hacen pensar que más tenemos y más felices seremos. Pero eso no es verdad. Lo que nos da paz y gozo, dignidad y esperanza, es Jesús, nuestro Señor y Redentor. ¿Qué nos pide Jesús? Que seamos como un grano de trigo que es sembrado, con amor, y después se mira el fruto, especialmente en nuestras familias. No es fácil morir a uno mismo, nos cuesta, requiere humildad, confianza, fe y perdón, todo esto nos hace vulnerables. Hemos sido condicionados a hacer todo lo contrario, ser independiente, egoísta, autosuficientes. Hemos construido muros a nuestro alrededor para protegernos de otros. Pero Jesús nos dice que esto no es necesario. Que nuestra mirada se mantenga fija en Jesús, que muere en la cruz y resucita tres días después destruyendo la muerte para toda la humanidad. Esa es nuestra herencia. Vivamos con esa fe y sirviendo a otros como Jesús nos enseñó.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

V Domingo de Cuaresma

Juan 11:1-45

Por todas partes, en el texto en el que san Juan nos relata la resurrección de Lázaro, salta a la vista el cariño que Jesús sentía hacia esta familia de Betania: “tu amigo está enfermo”; “Jesús quería mucho a Marta, a su hermana y a Lázaro, cuando le dijeron que Lázaro estaba enfermo se quedó dos días más en el lugar donde se encontraba. Después dijo a sus discípulos: – Vamos otra vez a Judea”; “Jesús, al ver llorar a María y a los judíos que habían llegado con ella, se conmovió profundamente y se estremeció, y les preguntó: – ¿Dónde lo sepultaron? Le dijeron: – Ven a verlo Señor. Y Jesús lloró. Los judíos dijeron entonces: – ¡Miren cuánto lo quería!”. “Jesús, otra vez conmovido, se acercó a la tumba. Era una cueva, cuya entrada estaba tapada con una piedra. Jesús dijo: – Quiten la piedra”. Y más adelante, la bella oración que Jesús dice delante de la tumba de su amigo: “Padre, te doy gracias porque me has escuchado. Yo sé que siempre me escuchas, pero lo digo por el bien de esta gente que está aquí, para que crean que tú me has enviado. Después de decir esto, gritó: – ¡Lázaro, sal de ahí!”

Bible Marathon

A Public Reading of the Gospel of Mark
Saturday, March 23, 2024 at 9:00am to 11:00am in the church.

A "Bible marathon" is an ancient practice of publicly reading the Word of God (cf. Nehemiah 8:6-8). In a Bible marathon, the community reads the entire Bible for days. But don't worry! We won't be doing that! Since this is Liturgical Year B, which uses the Gospel of Mark, we will only read the entire Gospel of Mark.

The goal of this spiritual exercise is not to memorize the passages, but to bless our tongues as we read the Word of God; our ears as we hear the Word of God; and our hands as we hold the Word of God.

Family Stations of the Cross: Fridays at 4pm in Church.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jesus shows us how life and death are not opposite but closely linked. The life of a plant requires that a seed is buried in the ground, so it can sprout and produce fruit. At times, we might need to give up something that is important to us to help another person. We put somebody else's needs above our own. Those actions will bear fruit. A new way of being in the world shines through.

Reflect: When have you felt stronger because you sacrificed something for a friend or family member?

Act: How can your acts bear fruit for others? Commit to doing something kind for a family member, friend, or neighbor.

Pray: Lord, give us your grace that our life may bear fruit.

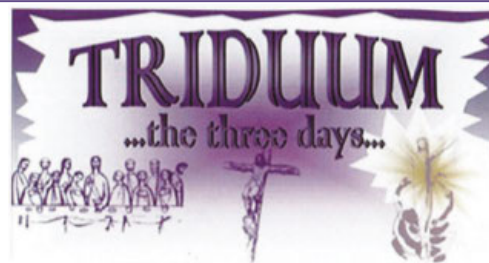

Lenten Family Journey: Attend the Family Stations of the Cross at 4pm this Friday in church.

Blessings. Margit Dornisch

Jeremiah tells the people that the Lord will make a new covenant with them, planting the law within their hearts.

Psalm 51:3-4, 12-13, 14-15

Second Reading

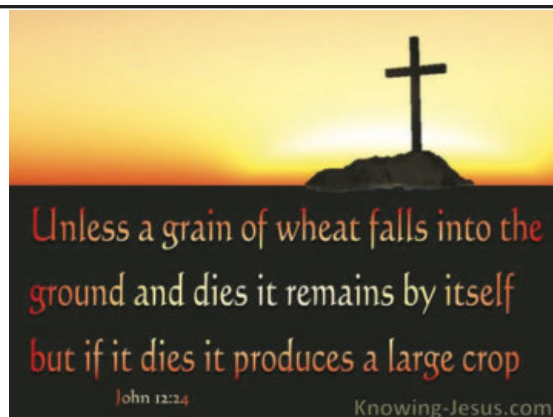

Hebrews 5:7-9

Through his sufferings, Jesus gained salvation for all who obey him.

Gospel Reading

John 12:20-33

Jesus teaches his disciples about the way in which he will be glorified by God, and a voice from heaven is heard to affirm this teaching.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel reading is taken from the Gospel of John. We are reading much further into John's Gospel than we have for the past two weeks. Chapter 12 of John's Gospel is a preparation for the beginning of the passion narrative to follow. Jesus has just raised Lazarus from the dead—an important sign in John's Gospel, which inspired many people to believe in Jesus. This event also marks the turning point in Jesus' conflict with the Jewish authorities. John's Gospel tells us that the Sanhedrin met after this event and made plans to kill Jesus. In the 12th chapter of John's Gospel, Jesus is anointed at Bethany and enters Jerusalem in triumph. We again see evidence of the significance of the raising of Lazarus to this event; John reports that the crowds also gathered to see Lazarus.

Following his triumphant entry into Jerusalem, Jesus predicted his suffering, death, and Resurrection and prepared his disciples to believe in the salvation that his death would accomplish. Using the metaphor of the grain of wheat, Jesus presented the idea that his dying would be beneficial. He also taught that those who would be his disciples must follow his example of sacrifice. This theme will be repeated in John's account of the Last Supper, when Jesus washed the feet of his disciples as an example of how they must serve one another.

The final section of today's Gospel might be read as John's parallel to the agony in the garden. Unlike the Synoptic Gospels, the Gospel of John does not record Jesus' anguished prayer in the garden of Gethsemane before his arrest. Although comparable words are found in today's reading, Jesus gives a confident response to the question he raises when asking God to save him from his impending death. After announcing his conviction that it is for this purpose that he came, a voice from heaven speaks, as if in answer to Jesus' prayer. This voice, like the one heard at Jesus' baptism and at Jesus' Transfiguration—events reported in the Synoptic Gospels but not in John's Gospel—affirms that God welcomes the sacrifice that Jesus will make on behalf of others. In John's Gospel, Jesus teaches that this voice was sent for the sake of those who would believe in him.

In today's Gospel, we also hear Jesus speak about the cosmic framework against which we are to understand his passion, death, and Resurrection. Through his death and Resurrection, Jesus conquered Satan, the ruler of this world. In this way the world is judged, but the judgment is not condemnation. Instead, through Jesus' dying and rising, salvation is brought to the world.
