A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Since the year 2000, the Church has referred to the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday. Pope St. John Paul II made that designation when he canonized St. Mary Faustina Kowalska, a religious woman who lived in the first half of the 20th century. She is said to have had revelations from Jesus who sent her as a messenger “reminding the world of the truth of our faith revealed in the Holy Scripture about the merciful love of God toward every human being.”

The main point of this revelation is that our God is a God of love and compassion, not of punishment or retribution. God desires that we return the love we have received by loving God and our neighbor. God desires that we accept his invitation to taste of his mercy by turning away from our sins and accepting his forgiveness.

Long before this 20th century revelation, God had revealed to St. John Eudes that God desires to embrace sinners and extend his mercy to all who suffer, physically or spiritually. He believed that he and his confreres were “Missionaries of Mercy.” Back in the 17th century, he wrote to his brothers: “We are missionaries of mercy, sent by the Father of Mercies to dispense his treasures of mercy to those in need.” The mercy of God was the principal theme in the more than 120 parish missions he preached in his lifetime. As he formed young men to be priests, he stressed this fundamental message: “you are missionaries of mercy.”

Many people know that St. John Eudes was “the father, apostle and doctor of liturgical devotion to the Holy Heart of Jesus and Mary.” (Pope St. Pius X in 1909). For St. John Eudes, that Heart of Jesus and Mary is a rich symbol that encapsulates the love and mercy of God. He referred to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as “a Furnace Burning with Love for us.” He always preached that the mercy of God is easily accessible to all people.

The Eudist Fathers want to share some of the richness of the spirituality of our Founder. That is why we will be offering St. John Eudes in the Easter Season. Join us for 5 Thursday Nights or 5 Friday Mornings and experience the spirituality of this great missionary of mercy. The series will begin on Thursday April 11, at 7:00pm and be repeated on Friday April 12, at 10:00am. The first presentation will give an overview of the life and mission of St. John Eudes. I will share the other topics next week.

Please plan to join us. We believe our founder has a lot to offer. We’d like to share it with you.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo de parte del Diácono Miguel

“Jesús se presentó de nuevo en medio de ellos y les dijo, ‘La paz esté con ustedes’. Luego le dijo a Tomás, ‘Aquí están mis manos; acerca tu dedo. Trae acá tu mano, métela en mi costado y no sigas dudando, sino cree’. Tomás le respondió, ‘Señor mío y Dios mío!’.” (Evangelio San Juan 20:19-31). ¿Cómo podemos culpar a los discípulos que se encuentran atemorizados por la muerte de Jesús? El texto de este 2º Domingo de Pascua nos dice que estaban encerrados en la casa por miedo a los judíos. Ellos sabían que lo que le paso a Jesús, crucifixión y muerte, era su destino. Jesús había prometido una nueva vida, un Reino de Dios que iba a permanecer para siempre. Ellos le habían creído y habían dejado todo para seguir a Jesús. Ahora se encuentran desilusionados, enojados, pensando, ¿y ahora qué haremos? Eso nos puede pasar a nosotros. Seguimos a Jesús, tratamos de ser fieles y discípulos responsables, pero ¿qué pasa cuando nos encontramos con algún tipo de tensión? ¿Con un problema o algo que no va a nuestro acuerdo? El temor, la frustración, y la ansiedad toma control de nosotros y quitamos nuestra mirada en Jesús. Jesús entiende la fragilidad humana, pero no se espanta de la humanidad. Sino siempre sale a encontrarse con nosotros y nos ofrece su paz. Jesús les ofrece su paz a sus discípulos, y es por medio de esa paz que nos da la gracia para seguir caminando con un corazón lleno de fe y confianza. Jesús Resucitado nos ha abierto las puertas a la Vida Eterna. Y esa Vida Eterna se puede vive ahora en nuestras vidas ordinarias. Aceptamos esta invitación de Jesús.

Juan 20:19-31

“Señor mío y Dios mío”

Nuestro Señor se hace presente en la vida de los discípulos, después de la resurrección, para remarcar la misión de anunciar su Evangelio a todas las naciones.

En medio de estos acontecimientos, surgen dudas e incomprendiones. La caridad de Cristo se impone sutilmente, incluso con los incrédulos quienes lo reconocen y proclaman mediante una de las oraciones más hermosas que tenemos: ¡Señor mío y Dios mío!

Hagamos el proposito de acrecentar la devoción por la Eucaristía, reconociendo la presencia de Cristo en ella, y pidamosle que aumente nuestra fe en Él.

After a wonderful Lent and Sacred Triduum, it's important to thank so many people who helped us grow in faith through our programs and liturgical celebrations:

- * Our music ministry (a splendid combination of all our choirs), the lectors, Eucharistic ministers, altar servers, ministers of hospitality and sacristans who all contributed their gifts and talents to our liturgies.
- * To our parish staff who put in many extra hours to make sure that the set-up and décor for all the liturgies was in place and well-prepared.
- * To all those who prepared and led our Bible Studies, Lenten Mission and other adult faith formation programs.
- * To our various service ministries who reach out in our name to those who lack food and shelter.
- * To our priests and deacons who led us in vibrant and deeply spiritual celebrations.
- * To our wonderful parishioners who filled our church over and over again for the liturgies and spiritual programs of Lent, Holy Week and Easter.

May God continue to bless St. Patrick Catholic Community with a lively faith, a desire to share that faith, and a commitment to serve those in need.

Get your team together!
 Sign up for the first
 St. Patrick's Catholic Trivia

Night to be held on Tuesday, April 30 at 7:00 pm in our parish hall. You need a team of three to compete. It could be from the same organization (Altar Society, School Board, Knights of Columbus, etc.), or the same ministry (Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Catechists, Youth Core Team, etc.), or any group of neighbors or people you socialize with.

How will it work? Teams will answer multiple choice questions about the Bible, Catholic customs and traditions, and Catholic teaching. Reviewing the Catholic Trivia from the last few years of newsletters would be a good place to go to prepare. The teams that choose the most correct answers and do so the fastest will be the prize winners.

Sign up by sending an email to Fr. Ron (rmbagley@yahoo.com) with the names of your team members, their email addresses, and the name you have chosen for your team (e.g., The Adams Street Trio).

Religious Education & Family Ministry

Second Sunday of Easter/Sunday of Divine Mercy

On the evening of that first day of the week, the disciples were hiding behind locked doors as Jesus came and stood in their midst. His greeting Peace be with you comforted them and he showed them his hands and his side. Then Jesus commissioned them with his words and his breath. As the Father has sent me, so I send you ... Receive the Holy Spirit. Filled with the Holy Spirit the disciples are sent out that others may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. Believing in Jesus Christ promises life, now and eternally.

Reflect: How can we let the Holy Spirit transform us and the ways we see and treat others?

Pray: Risen Lord, animate our souls with the gift of your Holy Spirit so that our lives spread your love.

Act: How can you spread kindness and joy this week?

Second Sunday of Easter – Year B

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 4:32-35

The first Christian community shared their possessions, and no one was needy.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 118:2-4,13-15,22-24

The Lord's mercy endures forever.

Second Reading

1 John 5:1-6

Those who love God keep his commandments.

Gospel Reading

John 20:19-31

Thomas believes because he sees Jesus.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's reading from the Gospel of John is proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter in each of the lectionary cycles. This fact alone should alert us to the significance of the encounters with the resurrected Jesus that are described in this reading. This Gospel combines two scenes: Jesus' appearance to his disciples after his Resurrection and Jesus' dialogue with Thomas, the disciple who doubted.

Part of the mystery of Jesus' Resurrection is that he appeared to his disciples not as a spirit, but in bodily form. We do not know, however, exactly what this form looked like. Earlier in John's Gospel, when Mary of Magdala first encountered the risen Jesus, she did not recognize him until he spoke to her. In Luke's Gospel, the disciples walking along the road to Emmaus did not recognize Jesus until he broke bread with them. We know from readings such as today's that in his resurrected form, Jesus was not bound by matter; he appeared to the disciples inside a home even though the door was locked. Yet the disciples could still touch the marks of his Crucifixion.

In today's Gospel, Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun; as Jesus was sent by God, so Jesus sends his disciples. He gives his disciples the gift of the Holy Spirit so that they will be able to accomplish this task. Jesus' words to his disciples also highlight the integral connection between the forgiveness of sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit. With the grace of the Holy Spirit, we can share forgiveness and reconciliation with others.

Thomas, the doubting disciple in today's reading, represents the reality of the Church that comes after this first community of witnesses to Jesus. All but the first disciples of Jesus must believe without seeing. Like Thomas, we may doubt the news that Jesus, who was crucified and buried, appeared to his disciples. Our human nature seeks hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to his disciples after his death is indeed the same Jesus who was crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to be our representative in obtaining this evidence. He gives witness to us that the Jesus who was raised is the same Jesus who died. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, we are among those who are blessed, for we have not seen and yet believe.
