A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

We say that we believe that Jesus rose from the dead. What is it that the Church teaches about the resurrected body of Jesus. I will summarize briefly:

1. The Resurrection of Christ was not a return to earthly life, but rather his risen body participates in the divine life and has the characteristics of a glorified body.
2. The risen Jesus was able to appear to his disciples in various ways, not limited by space and time, as his humanity no longer belongs only to the earthly realm but to the divine realm of the Father.
3. The Resurrection of Jesus was a real, physical resurrection of his body, which still bore the marks of his Passion. The Apostles attested to experiencing the risen Lord, including touching his body and eating with him.
4. Christ's death was a real, physical death, but his body was preserved from corruption by divine power. His Resurrection on the third day was the proof that his body did not undergo bodily decay.
5. The Resurrection of Christ is the model and source of our own future bodily resurrection. Just as his body was transformed and glorified, so too will our mortal bodies be restored and clothed with glory and immortality.
6. Faith in the Resurrection of Christ is the foundation for our hope in the resurrection of the dead. His Resurrection is the proof that there is a resurrection of the dead, and he will be the one to raise us up on the last day.

In summary, the Catholic Church teaches that the risen body of Jesus was a real, physical body that participated in the divine life, was no longer limited by earthly constraints, and serves as the model and source of our own future bodily resurrection.

Not only do we affirm this belief, but we rejoice in its consequences for us in this life and in the world to come. Every sacrament is an encounter with the risen Christ. Every celebration of the Eucharist is a sharing in His Paschal Mystery.

The Lord is risen, alleluia.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo de parte del Diácono Miguel

“Mientras hablaban de esas cosas, se presentó Jesús en medio de ellos y les dijo, ‘La paz esté con ustedes’. Ellos, desconcertados y llenos de temor, creían ver un fantasma. Pero Él les dijo, ‘No teman, soy yo. ¿Por qué se espantan? ¿Por qué surgen dudas en su interior?’”. (Evangelio según San Lucas 24: 35-48). Temor, ¿cuánto poder tiene el temor para el ser humano? El temor nos encierra, nos ciega, nos impide mirar “más allá”. El temor nos atrapa y nos hace sentir que “nuestro mundo” se nos termina. Pensamos que todos “nuestros sueños e ideas” serán destruidas, y preguntamos, “¿todo “mi” esfuerzo, “mi” trabajo, “mi” sacrificio, para qué sirvió?” Nos enfocamos en el mí y no en Dios. Somos seres humanos luchando para vivir una vida de discípulo de Jesús. Somos un producto que se encuentra en el proceso de una conversión continua, este proceso de conversión nunca se termina. Para llevar a cabo este proceso de conversión requiere que mantengamos nuestros ojos en Jesús, el Resucitado. De encontrarnos con Jesús todos los días, en cada cosa que hagamos. En darnos cuenta del amor tan grande de Jesús para nosotros y para toda la humanidad, y en ese momento que nuestras vidas cambian, porque la “Paz de Cristo” entra en nuestros corazones. Y esa paz nos da algo que el mundo no nos puede dar. Los discípulos del Evangelio de este Tercer Domingo de Pascua se dan cuenta de que Jesús está con ellos, y es en ese momento que vencen el temor. Jesús quiere que sepamos que Él vive, que Él ha vencido la muerte, y nos ofrece una Nueva Vida. Confíemos, seamos valientes, y aceptemos la Nueva Vida que nos ofrece Jesús.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Tercer Domingo de Pascua

Lucas 24:35-48

Jesucristo quiere dejar claro que su resurrección era un acontecimiento que tenía que suceder, pero primero tenía que padecer. Ellos, aún incrédulos, tuvieron que ir madurando poco a poco en esta realidad que cambiaría sus vidas y la vida de millones de personas a lo largo de los siglos.

Recordemos lo que pasó con los discípulos de Emaús. Les tuvo que explicar las escrituras y entonces lo reconocieron al partir el pan. Cristo les “abre” su inteligencia para comprender mejor los misterios de la fe. Así también nosotros necesitamos pedirle a Dios con insistencia que nos ilumine para comprender mejor el misterio que encierra nuestra vida cristiana, para poder discernir adecuadamente ante un mundo que nos propone el egoísmo, la desvalorización de lo humano. Pedirle a Dios que nos ilumine para vivir con coherencia, dando testimonio cristiano de caridad, de virtud, de generosidad. Que Cristo abra nuestras inteligencias y nos oriente como lo hizo con sus discípulos.

Vatican Document on Human Dignity

Because it covers a wide variety of "hot button" topics which are all related to the Church's teaching on human dignity, a recently released Church teaching document has received a lot of attention from the press. Unfortunately, the secular press will choose to highlight the issues that they think "will sell papers." Even so-called Catholic media outlets will pick and choose the things they will emphasize.

Below is a link to the Vatican document Dignitatis Infinitas. It is 25 pages. While there is no substitute for reading the full document, there is an excellent summary made by Gerard O'Connell, a reputable and careful Catholic journalist who is always faithful to the exact message being presented. This week's e-newsletter includes a copy of this summary. It will give you a taste of the rest of the document.

Please do not rely on the secular press or biased Catholic news outlets for your understanding of this important document.

Catholic Trivia Night

Get your team together!
Sign up for the first

St. Patrick's Catholic Trivia

Night to be held on Tuesday, April 30 at 7:00 pm in our parish hall. You need a team of three to compete. It could be from the same organization (Altar Society, School Board, Knights of Columbus, etc.), or the same ministry (Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Catechists, Youth Core Team, etc.), or any group of neighbors or people you socialize with.

How will it work? Teams will answer multiple choice questions about the Bible, Catholic customs and traditions, and Catholic teaching. Reviewing the Catholic Trivia from the last few years of newsletters would be a good place to go to prepare. The teams that choose the most correct answers and do so the fastest will be the prize winners.

Sign up by sending an email to Fr. Ron (rmbagley@yahoo.com) with the names of your team members, their email addresses, and the name you have chosen for your team (e.g., The Adams Street Trio).

There will be a limited number of teams and first come first served. No entry fee. Spectators are welcome and encouraged to attend to cheer on your favorite team.

Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us;
make our hearts burn while you speak to us.
Luke 24:32

Soup Suppers Are Delicious!

Dear parishioners & friends:

Join us for delicious homemade soup & dessert in the parish hall starting at 4:30 - 6pm every Thursday.

This Week Thursday April 18th We will feature French Onion Soup with bread & dessert!

No cost to join us for food, conversation & music!

Religious Education & Family Ministry

Third Sunday of Easter

While the two disciples shared with the others how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread, Jesus stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." Again, Jesus showed the startled and terrified disciples his hands and his feet. He even asked for something to eat to ensure them that he is not a ghost. Again, Jesus reminded them what was written about him in Scripture and the mission that lies ahead.

With his powerful words "Peace be with you" Jesus offers us his gift of peace in all circumstances of our life. When we allow Jesus' peace to make a home in our soul we can live with hope and trust.

Reflect: How can you let Jesus Christ fill you with peace?

Pray: Risen Lord, strengthen our souls with the gift of your peace.

Act: How can we practice peace this week?

Third Sunday of Easter – Year B

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 3:13-15,17-19

Peter preaches that Jesus has been raised from the dead and calls upon the people to repent.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 4:2,4,7-8,9

A prayer seeking God's favor

Second Reading

1 John 2:1-5a

Those who know God keep his commandments.

Gospel Reading

Luke 24:35-48

Jesus appears again to his disciples and shares a meal with them.

Background on the Gospel Reading

On the third Sunday of Easter, we continue to hear Gospel accounts of Jesus' appearances to his disciples following his Resurrection. Today's reading, taken from the Gospel of Luke, follows immediately after the report of Jesus' appearance to his disciples on the road to Emmaus. This is the event being recounted by the disciples in the opening verse of today's Gospel.

Consistently in the reports of Jesus' post-Resurrection appearances, Jesus greets his disciples with the words, "Peace be with you." This is a most appropriate greeting. The disciples have witnessed the death of someone they loved, and they now fear for their own lives as well. Peace is what they need more than anything else. Jesus often connects this greeting of peace with another gift—forgiveness. In today's Gospel, this connection is made in the final verses.

Even as they hear Jesus' greeting of peace, the disciples are startled and terrified. They are uncertain about what to make of the figure before them and, quite understandably, they mistake Jesus for a ghost. Yet the figure before them is not a ghost; Jesus invites them to experience his resurrected body with their senses, to look and to touch. The figure before them is flesh and bone, still bearing the marks of crucifixion. Although the disciples cannot forget his suffering and death, peace begins to take root in their hearts, as their fears turn to joy and amazement.

As further proof of his identity and of his resurrected body, Jesus eats with his disciples. The disciples have known Jesus best through the meals that he has shared with them. Descriptions of these meals are a defining element of Luke's Gospel. By eating with his disciples after his Resurrection, Jesus recalls all these meals, and most importantly, he recalls the Last Supper.

Luke's report of the Last Supper and the meals that Jesus shared after his Resurrection unveil for us the significance of the Eucharist. Having shared a meal with his disciples, Jesus now uncovers for them the significance of what was written about him in the Scriptures. So, too, our celebration of the Mass is an encounter with Jesus, through the Word and the Sacrament of the Eucharist. As Jesus commissions his disciples to be witnesses to what Scriptures foretold, our celebration of the Eucharist commissions us. Like the disciples, we are sent to announce the good news of Jesus' forgiveness of sins.

The Holy Scriptures lead us to God and open the path
to the knowledge of God.

Saint John Chrysostom
