A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Most of the apostles and lots of other saints have their own feast day, but how about the two most famous saints of the early church that we celebrate this weekend? On February 22 the Church celebrates the “Chair of Peter” the sign that Peter was the first among the apostles and the one designated to lead the early Church after Jesus’ Resurrection and Ascension. You may have seen the painting by Paul Rubens which shows Peter with the “Keys” and wearing the pallium of the office of Bishop.

But there is no “Feast of St. Peter.”

St. Paul, although not one of the Twelve, was an Apostle commissioned by Jesus. There is the January 25 celebration of “The Conversion of St. Paul” which commemorates the Damascus Road episode described in Acts of the Apostles 9:1-31, 22:1-22, and 26:9-24. It is the scene made famous by the “Conversion on the Way to Damascus” painting by Caravaggio.

But there is no “Feast of St. Paul.”

The two leading saints of the early Church are celebrated together as the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, (or the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul if celebrated on a Sunday as it is this year). This celebration is a liturgical feast in honor of the martyrdom in Rome of the apostles Saint Peter and Saint Paul and is always observed on June 29.

It’s a very old tradition. St. Augustine of Hippo (late 4th century) says in his Sermon 295: “One day is assigned for the celebration of the martyrdom of the two apostles. But those two were one. Although their martyrdom occurred on different days, they were one.” The Preface of the Mass for the feast of these saints reminds us of their unique yet complementary importance:

For by your providence [O Lord]
the blessed Apostles Peter and Paul bring us joy:
Peter, foremost in confessing the faith,
Paul, its outstanding preacher,
Peter, who established the early Church from the remnant of Israel,
Paul, master and teacher of the Gentiles that you call.
And so, each in a different way
gathered together the one family of Christ;
and revered together throughout the world,
they share one martyr’s crown.

May our faith grow stronger on the foundation of these great apostles.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo de parte del Diácono Miguel

“Por tercera vez le preguntó, ‘Simón, hijo de Juan, ¿me quieres?’ Pedro se entristeció de que Jesús le hubiera preguntado por tercera vez si lo quería, y le contestó, ‘Señor, tú lo sabes todo; tú bien sabes que te quiero’. Jesús le dijo, ‘Apacienta mis ovejas’”. Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad de san Pedro y san Pablo, Apóstoles. Dos figuras muy importantes de la Iglesia que fundó Cristo. Pedro, un hombre de mucha pasión, fe y que estaba listo para darlo todo por Jesús. Pero conocemos la historia de Pedro cuando miro a Jesús cargar su cruz al calvario. En ese momento difícil, él niega que conoce y que sigue a Jesús. Pablo, sabemos que perseguía a los cristianos, queriendo terminar con todos, hasta que llegó su tiempo de conversión. Dos figuras muy humanas y de mucha convicción. Pedro, es reconocido como el primer papa de Iglesia Católica. Pablo es acreditado de escribir 13 epístolas en el Nuevo Testamento y predicando el Evangelio a los gentiles sin cesar. Dios nunca se cansa de llamarnos y pedirnos que lo sigamos. Pensamos que uno necesita ser perfecto para ser usado como instrumento de Dios. Pero eso es incorrecto. Dios nos llama a nosotros, los pecadores. Nos llama a que abramos el corazón lo invitemos a que entre, y que tome la posición principal de nuestra vida. No dejemos que nuestra baja autoestima o vergüenza por lo que estamos haciendo o hemos hecho nos detenga. Mejor, mirar a Jesús, y dejarnos ser amados y perdonados, y miraremos lo que Dios hace en ti y en mí.

Diácono Miguel Enríquez

A ti te daré las llaves del Reino de los Cielos

Cristo pregunta a sus apóstoles: ¿quién dice la gente que soy yo? Pone esta pregunta sólo después de haber llevado a término su misión de enseñar lo que el

Padre le ha dicho. Podría decirse que el caso ya está expuesto y ahora llega el momento de pronunciar el juicio. Sin embargo, la gente que ha visto y oído todas las pruebas necesarias para reconocerlo como Mesías, no termina por comprender sus signos. Es como si un velo cubriera sus ojos y les impidiese dar una respuesta segura y convincente: "Tú eres el Cristo, el Hijo de Dios vivo."

Para Pedro, al igual que para Pablo tiempo después, Cristo fue un auténtico enigma difícil de descifrar. Por ejemplo, ¿qué pensaría Pedro al ver a su maestro caminando sobre las aguas? O ¿cuáles sentimientos fluirían en su corazón cuando escucha de Cristo "sobre ti edificaré mi Iglesia" y más tarde le dice "apártate de mí Satanás."

Este misterio sobre Cristo lo comprenderíamos mejor con los ojos de la fe que nos da el Padre. Mientras la fe no sea el oxígeno de nuestra vida, no seremos capaces de reconocer a Cristo como el Mesías. Por esto Cristo le dice a Pedro "dichoso Tú, Pedro, porque esto no te lo ha revelado ningún hombre sino mi Padre que está en el cielo."

El don de la fe se lo dona el Padre a Pedro no por mérito de Pedro ni por sus cualidades personales -era pescador- sino por su propia bondad Dios. Es el don más precioso, el de reconocer a Dios como Mesías, como la auténtica luz que guiará nuestros pasos hacia la felicidad eterna. Y gracias a la fe Pedro y Pablo encontraron la fuerza para llevar a término su misión en la tierra.

First Millennial Saint Carlo Acutis Will Be Canonized September 7

Pope Leo XIV has set Sept. 7 as the rescheduled date to canonize the Catholic Church's first millennial-era saint Carlo Acutis. Acutis' canonization was originally scheduled for April 27, but was postponed following the death of Pope Francis on April 21.

Acutis was 15 when he died in northern Italy in 2006, after a short bout with leukemia. He has become enormously popular especially among young Catholics who have been flocking to the shrine in his honor in Assisi. His tomb in Assisi has become a pilgrimage site, especially during the 2025 Holy Year underway. It features a glass coffin in which Acutis can be seen dressed in sneakers, jeans and a sweatshirt.

While he enjoyed regular pastimes for his age — hiking, video games, and joking around with friends — he also taught catechism in a local parish and did outreach to the homeless. He used his computer skills to create an online exhibit about more than 100 eucharistic miracles recognized by the church over many centuries.

In setting the Sept. 7 date, Leo announced that Acutis would be canonized along with another Italian Catholic, Pier Giorgio Frassati, who also died young at age 24 after contracting polio.

May these young saints be an inspiration to all millennials and people from every generation.

Our parish Masses on Friday, July 4 are at 7:00 and 8:00 am as usual.

On July 4 all parish offices are closed in observance of Independence Day.

Religious Education & Family Ministry (Prek - 8th grade)

Saints Peter and Paul

The Solemnity honors the Saints Peter and Paul, the two great apostles of the early Church. St. Peter was one of the earliest and closest followers of Jesus. With his understanding and his faith in Jesus as the Messiah St. Peter became the foundation for the Church's future. St. Peter was the first Bishop of Rome. St. Paul is known for his extensive travels preaching the good news of Jesus Christ for the salvation of all people. He described his missionary work as a race emphasizing its great urgency. St. Paul willingly offered his life in service of Jesus' teachings and the universality of God's love.

Children: How can Sts. Peter and Paul help us follow Jesus?

Adults: How did Sts. Peter and Paul grow in faith in Jesus Christ?

Prayer: Jesus Christ, help us to love you as Sts. Peter and Paul did.

Collection for Missions This Week

This weekend, June 28 - 29, we welcome Father Tom Lucas who will speak on behalf of Casa de los Pobres. This is our annual opportunity to support the missionary activity of the Church through the Annual Cooperative Missionary Appeal. Casa de los Pobres is a comprehensive social services center in neighboring Tijuana.

For more than 60 years the Casa, the House of the Poor directed by the Franciscan Missionary Sisters of Our Lady of Peace, has provided food, clothing, medical services, counselling and catechetical ministries to all who come to their door. Each year they provide more than 300,000 meals, and each month many people visit their outpatient medical clinic and social services office. The current situation migrants becomes more difficult with each passing day, and our help is needed more than ever to provide for our neediest brothers and sisters who live 50 miles and a world away from here.

Fr. Tom Lucas will speak at all of our Masses on June 28 and 29. There will be a second collection in support of this ministry. Envelopes are available at the doors of the church. Thank you for your generous support in this vital work.

Feast of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, Apostles

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 12:1-11

Now I know it is indeed true: the Lord has saved me from the power of Herod.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 34:2-9

The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18

All that remains now is the crown of righteousness.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 16:13-19

You are Peter; and I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of heaven.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Mark places this incident at Caesarea Philippi. Luke, because of the importance he wishes to give to prayer in his Gospel, places it in the context of Jesus praying. But Matthew keeps it at Caesarea Philippi. In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the disciples for a "field report" by asking what people are saying about him. He refers to himself as the Son of Man, a term derived from the Jewish Scriptures, found in the book of Daniel and in other apocryphal writings. Many scholars suggest that "Son of Man" is best understood to mean "human being."

As Jesus turns the question directly to the disciples and asks what they believe, Peter speaks for all of them when he announces that they believe Jesus to be the Christ. "Christ" is the Greek translation of the Hebrew word for "messiah," which means "the anointed one." At the time of Jesus, the image of the "messiah" was laden with popular expectations, most of which looked for a political leader who would free the Jewish people from Roman occupation.

Because Jesus has referred to himself a number of times in Matthew by Christological titles this moment is not the revelation of who Jesus is as in Mark. Instead, it marks an important moment in the development of the Church. Jesus uses this occasion to bless Peter, who represents all the disciples but also has a unique role to play in the founding of the new community. Peter is blessed not because of a personal insight but because God revealed to him who Jesus is. Peter is the rock on which Jesus will build the Church.
