A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

On this weekend on which we celebrate the great freedom we enjoy as a nation, it is a good time to reflect on the Catholic teaching on the real meaning of freedom.

Freedom, in Catholic teaching, is not simply the ability to do whatever one wants, but a power rooted in reason and will to act or not to act, to do this or that, and to perform deliberate actions on one's own responsibility (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1731). It is a gift from God that allows individuals to shape their own lives and direct themselves toward goodness.

According to Catholic teaching, freedom makes individuals responsible for their actions, especially when those actions are voluntary. True freedom is oriented towards what is truly good and ultimately towards God. It grows and matures when directed toward truth and goodness, reaching perfection when directed toward God, our beatitude (CCC).

Authentic freedom is not a license to do whatever one pleases, especially if it is evil. Freedom is linked with the knowledge of truth. As Jesus said, "You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free".

Freedom should not be construed as a pretext for moral anarchy but must remain linked to truth and the moral order. As Pope St. John Paul II said so well, authentic freedom is at the "service of justice," while choosing disobedience and evil leads to the "slavery of sin". He also told us that human freedom has been damaged by sin, and it is only by the aid of God's grace that one can bring their relationship with God into full flower.

On another occasion, Pope John Paul II said that true freedom implies the capability of choosing good without constraint, which is essential for making moral choices. He said that individuals should not be misled by false values and deceptive slogans about freedom, recognizing that true love respects God's plan.

In summary, freedom in the Catholic context is not the choice to do whatever one wants. It is a gift that entails responsibility and is perfected when aligned with truth, goodness, and ultimately, God. It is not an end but a means to pursue what is truly good, and it should not be used as a justification for actions that contradict moral order or harm oneself or others.

For us as Catholics, this what it means "to let freedom ring!"

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

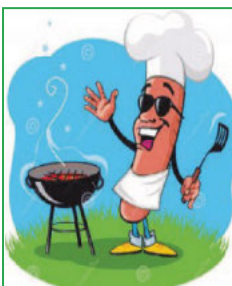

Un saludo de parte del Diácono Miguel

“Cuando entren en una casa digan, ‘Que la paz reine en esta casa’. Y si allí hay gente amante de la paz, el deseo de paz de ustedes se cumplirá; si no, no se cumplirá.

Quédense en esa casa”. (Evangelió según san Lucas 10: 1 -9). En el Evangelio que leemos en este 14 Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, miramos cómo Jesús envía a sus discípulos que vayan “todos lados” a predicar la Buenas Nuevas. Y les da instrucciones muy claras; les advierte que en el camino encontraran de todo, bueno y malo, pero que no se preocupen que Dios siempre proveerá, y su voluntad se cumplirá siempre. Jesús les dice que cuando entren en una casa, digan, “La paz este con ustedes”. Y que, si “es gente de la paz”, el deseo de los discípulos se cumplirá. Pero si la gente “no es de paz”, que no se preocupen, que se sacudan el polvo de los pies, y sigan adelante en la obra. Pregunta, ¿Somos gente de la paz para recibir la paz que Dios que nos quiere dar y poner en nuestro corazón? Somos humanos con tendencias humanas, donde nuestro orgullo o el temor a ser vulnerables nos gana, esto nos cierra porque no queremos ser lastimados. Esa es nuestra reacción natural. ¿Pero si nos cerramos, podrá entrar el Espíritu Santo y llenarnos de esa paz verdadera y transformadora, que nos hace sentir como hijas e hijos amados de Dios? Vivemos en un tiempo difícil y nos damos cuenta de que lo único que importa es mantener nuestra mirada en Jesús, poner nuestra fe, confianza y paz en Él, porque es lo único que importa. Abramos nuestro corazón, dejar que esos muros de protección que hemos construido sean bajados y reine la paz de Jesús en nosotros.

First Millennial Saint Carlo Acutis Will Be Canonized September 7

Pope Leo XIV has set Sept. 7 as the rescheduled date to canonize the Catholic Church's first millennial-era saint Carlo Acutis.

Acutis' canonization was originally scheduled for April 27, but was postponed following the death of Pope Francis on April 21.

Acutis was 15 when he died in northern Italy in 2006, after a short bout with leukemia. He has become enormously popular especially among young Catholics who have been flocking to the shrine in his honor in Assisi. His tomb in Assisi has become a pilgrimage site, especially during the 2025 Holy Year underway. It features a glass coffin in which Acutis can be seen dressed in sneakers, jeans and a sweatshirt,

While he enjoyed regular pastimes for his age — hiking, video games, and joking around with friends — he also taught catechism in a local parish and did outreach to the homeless. He used his computer skills to create an online exhibit about more than 100 eucharistic miracles recognized by the church over many centuries.

In setting the Sept. 7 date, Leo announced that Acutis would be canonized along with another Italian Catholic, Pier Giorgio Frassati, who also died young at age 24 after contracting polio.

May these young saints be an inspiration to all millennials and people from every generation.

Liturgy of the Word for Children during the 9am mass

Children ages 4-9 that attend mass with their family can hear the Word of God in language they can understand and reflect on in their own words. Following the Opening Prayer, the presider calls forth the children. We send them along with the adult catechist to the church basement classroom. The children will return to their family at the time of the Offertory.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus sends his disciples in pairs ahead of him to every town and place he intends to visit. What matters most to him is to make people understand that the reign of God is at hand. Jesus instructs the disciples to go quickly and travel light. They are to spread his peace, cure the sick, and proclaim the reign of God. On their mission the disciples depend on the hospitality that is offered to them. When they encounter peaceful people, the peace they carry will be extended.

Adults: Where would you like peace to grow? To whom can you extend peace?

Children: How can you be a peacemaker this week?

Prayer: Jesus, help us to spread your peace.

Blessings,

Margit Dornisch - Office for Religious Education and Family Ministry

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

First Reading

Isaiah 66:10-14c

I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 123:1-4

Our eyes are fixed on the Lord.

Second Reading

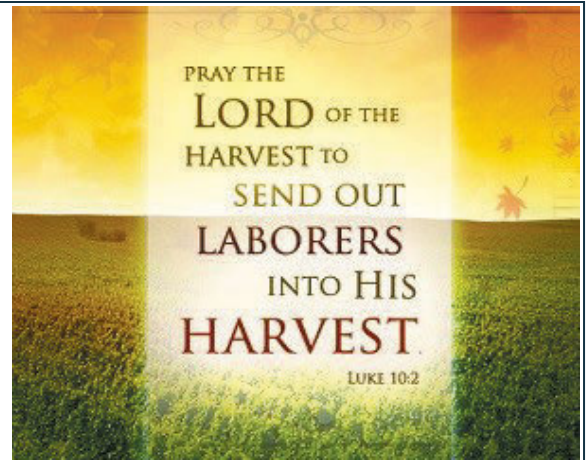

Galatians 6:14-18

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Reading

Luke 10:1-12,17-20

Jesus sends out 72 people to announce the coming kingdom.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel begins immediately after the final verse in last Sunday's Gospel. After strong language about the difficulties of discipleship, Jesus immediately appoints 72 people to go ahead of him to every town and place he plans to visit, proclaiming that the Kingdom of God is at hand. He sends them in pairs. In the Law of Moses two witnesses were needed for a testimony to be credible. It was probably also a safer way to travel.

Jesus admits it will be difficult, that he is sending them out like lambs among wolves. Yet they are to bring nothing with them, not even a money bag or sandals. They are to greet no one on the way so as not to be distracted from their mission. When they enter a house, their message is simply "peace." The response they will receive may be positive or negative. Either way, they are to know that the Kingdom of God is at hand. They are not to demand special treatment but eat and drink whatever is given to them. They are to stay in one house and are not to look around for one that provides better accommodation. They are to heal the sick as a sign that the Kingdom of God is at hand for them. Like Jesus' miracles, healing is a sign of the coming of the kingdom. If the town will not receive them, they are to shake the dust from their feet and move on. Even in the case of such rejection they should know that the Kingdom of God is at hand.

When they return from their journeys, they are rejoicing because their mission has been successful. Demons were under their power because of Jesus' name. Jesus may have sent them out as lambs among wolves, but at the conclusion of this passage he assures them that they have been given power over the enemy and nothing will harm them, not even serpents and scorpions.

A key theme of today's Gospel and last Sunday's Gospel is discipleship—its challenges, its difficulties, and its rewards. Sharing in the mission of Jesus is difficult, but everyone is called to do it, not just some professionals trained for ministry. Even for us today, the harvest is plentiful. We should pray to the master of the harvest to send out workers for his harvest.
