PASTOR'S NOTES -

Fr. George G. Perez, CJM - Pastor
26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares the parable of a rich man who lived in luxury while, just outside his gate, a poor man named Lazarus suffered in silence. The rich man's fault wasn't his wealth—it was his blindness. He failed to truly see Lazarus. His heart was closed by indifference.

This story challenges us to examine our own lives. It's easy to become comfortable, to rely solely on ourselves, and to surround ourselves with people and things that make life pleasant. But in doing so, we can become blind to the pain of others—those who are suffering, lonely, or in need right at our doorstep.

Death, the great equalizer, will one day come to us all. Jesus reminds us to live in such a way that we are ready—not simply by avoiding wrongdoing, but by actively living with generosity, compassion, and love. Every day is a chance to grow in love.

One powerful way to respond to this Gospel is by cultivating gratitude. When we give thanks for the gifts we already have—life, health, family, faith, daily bread—we begin to see the world differently. Gratitude softens our hearts and opens our eyes to the “Lazarus” in our midst. It stirs us to share what we have received.

Today, more than 800 million people live in extreme poverty around the world. Many struggle just to find enough food. Jesus urges us not to turn away—not to become numb—but to respond with compassion: through our prayers, our generosity, and our concrete actions.

This week, take time to notice the people around you - especially those who may feel unseen or forgotten. A kind word, a moment of listening, or a simple act of care can make a lasting difference. When we care for others in this way, we welcome Christ Himself—and live as true disciples. At the core of our Catholic faith is this mission:

- * We are created in love by God, who desires a relationship with us.
- * Jesus Christ came to redeem us through His life, death, and resurrection.
- * By grace, we are called to eternal life and are nourished by the sacraments - especially the Eucharist, where Christ is truly present.
- * And we are sent out to love God with all our heart, and to love our neighbor as ourselves.

May we live this call with open eyes, open hands, and open hearts.

In a World of Ashes, Hope Is the Final Flame

Notas del Párroco –
P. George G. Pérez, CJM- Párroco
26º Domingo del tiempo ordinario

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús comparte la parábola de un hombre rico que vivía en la abundancia mientras, justo afuera de su puerta, un hombre pobre llamado Lázaro sufría en silencio. La culpa del hombre rico no fue su riqueza, sino su ceguera. No supo ver de verdad a Lázaro. Su corazón estaba cerrado por la indiferencia.

Esta historia nos desafía a examinar nuestra propia vida. Es fácil sentirnos cómodos, confiar solo en nosotros mismos y rodearnos de personas y cosas que hacen la vida agradable. Pero al hacerlo, podemos volvernos ciegos al dolor de los demás —de aquellos que sufren, que están solos o necesitados justo a nuestro lado.

La muerte, el gran igualador, un día llegará para todos nosotros. Jesús nos recuerda vivir de tal manera que estemos preparados —no simplemente evitando el mal, sino viviendo activamente con generosidad, compasión y amor. Cada día es una oportunidad para crecer en el amor.

Una manera poderosa de responder a este Evangelio es cultivar la gratitud. Cuando damos gracias por los dones que ya tenemos —la vida, la salud, la familia, la fe, el pan de cada día— comenzamos a ver el mundo de otra manera. La gratitud ablanda nuestro corazón y abre nuestros ojos al “Lázaro” que está en medio de nosotros. Nos impulsa a compartir lo que hemos recibido.

Hoy, más de 800 millones de personas viven en pobreza extrema en el mundo. Muchos luchan simplemente para encontrar suficiente comida. Jesús nos llama a no apartar la mirada, a no volvernos insensibles, sino a responder con compasión: a través de nuestra oración, nuestra generosidad y nuestras acciones concretas.

Esta semana, tómate tiempo para notar a las personas que te rodean —especialmente a quienes pueden sentirse invisibles u olvidados. Una palabra amable, un momento de escucha, o un simple acto de cuidado puede marcar una gran diferencia. Cuando cuidamos de los demás de esta manera, recibimos al mismo Cristo y vivimos como verdaderos discípulos. En el corazón de nuestra fe católica está esta misión:

- * Somos creados por amor por Dios, quien desea una relación con nosotros.
- * Jesucristo vino a redimirnos con su vida, muerte y resurrección.
- * Por la gracia, somos llamados a la vida eterna y somos alimentados por los sacramentos —especialmente la Eucaristía, donde Cristo está verdaderamente presente.
- * Y somos enviados a amar a Dios con todo el corazón y a amar a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos.

Que vivamos este llamado con los ojos abiertos, las manos y el corazón abiertos.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus continues his teaching about virtuous living as he describes the eternal reward of Lazarus and the consequences the rich man must endure from the way he lived among his neighbors. The rich man valued his wealth above everything and everyone. He neglected the beggar Lazarus at his doorstep. Righteous living calls for works of mercy by which we help our neighbor with their material, emotional, and spiritual needs.

What kind acts can we do this week to support a classmate, friend, or family member?

Weekly Family Rosary in October

We meet Friday afternoons from 4:00pm – 4:30pm to pray a family rosary. The rosary is a beautiful ancient prayer. It suits all ages and uses all our senses. As we pray to God, the Father, and turn to Mary, our Mother, we reflect on the life of Jesus, make petitions, praise God, and thank God for blessings.

Do you need support in teaching the faith to young people in your family or preparing children for the Sacraments of First Communion or Baptism of older students?

St Phoebe Prayer Service September 30, 7pm in Church

St. Phoebe earned the trust of St. Paul. He asked her to deliver his writing to the church in Rome, which we know as Paul's Letter to the Romans.

Join us as we honor this woman of great courage and deep love as a role model for us. With prayer and song we look to Phoebe who ministered to God's people. We will reflect on our call to study and live God's word within our community.

All are welcome!

Faith Based (drop-in) Grief Support Group

Everyone is welcome and encouraged to come. There is no registration or standard curriculum. The group is designed for the bereaved to have a place that they feel safe to share their experiences, and gain personally by supporting others as well as being supported by others. The group is facilitated by trained grief counselor, Dcn. Rick from St. Pat's, and Rev. Chris from St. Michael's.

First Reading

Amos 6:1,4-7

God will judge the complacency of the people and their leaders.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 146:7-10

Happy are those who find solace in God, the help of the poor.

Second Reading

1 Timothy 6:11-16

Paul exhorts Timothy to stay faithful to God in all things.

Gospel Reading

Luke 16:19-31

Jesus tells the parable of the reversal of fortunes between the rich man and the poor man, Lazarus.

Background on the Gospel Reading

A major theme in the Gospel of Luke is the importance of the care of the poor in the life of discipleship. In the parable found in today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the life of a rich man and the poor man, Lazarus, who lives in the shadow of the rich man and his wealth. Both die. Lazarus finds himself in heaven; the rich man in the netherworld. The rich man asks for assistance from Lazarus in his torment. But Abraham reminds the rich man of the good things he had in his life and describes the current situation as a reversal of fortunes. The rich man then asks that Lazarus be sent to warn his family, but this is denied with the reminder that Moses and the prophets have warned of judgment for those who neglect the care of the poor.

In the context of Luke's Gospel, this parable, delivered in the presence of a crowd of listeners, is part of Jesus' response to some Pharisees. These Pharisees are described in Luke's Gospel as "loving money." (Note: The Pharisees were followers of a sect of Judaism active before, during, and after Jesus' lifetime. They taught an oral interpretation of the Law of Moses as the basis for popular Jewish piety. They put less emphasis on Temple worship and more on applying the law to everyday life. Though they are often portrayed negatively in the Gospels, they shared many of Jesus' and the early Church's concerns about the law.) Jesus observed that the actions of some Pharisees betrayed misplaced priorities: they spoke one way, but acted in another. The story of the rich man and Lazarus demonstrates the importance of the care of the poor and is a reminder to those who would follow Jesus of the unimportance of wealth in the eyes of God.

"At [the rich man's] gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores."
- Luke 16:20-21

"Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."

St Jerome
