PASTOR'S NOTES -

Fr. George G. Perez, CJM - Pastor
27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

With change often comes uncertainty. It has been a month since I arrived, and already small but meaningful changes have taken place in our worship at Mass. The Eucharistic celebration is the very heart of our faith, the place where heaven and earth meet. Every detail of how we celebrate is meant to draw us into the mystery of God's presence and help us return to Him in humility. That is why we have made certain adjustments, such as removing the hand sanitizers from the altar. This decision was made prayerfully, with the hope that our focus might remain entirely on the Lord. The sanctuary — the altar space — is the holiest place in the church, and we should always treat it with reverence, allowing nothing to distract us from what is taking place there: the sacrifice of Christ made present for us.

Today's readings invite us to deepen our trust in that presence. In the Gospel, the apostles cry out, "Increase our faith!" Jesus responds by speaking about the power of faith, comparing it to a mustard seed — the tiniest of seeds, yet full of life and potential. This image reminds us that faith does not need to be perfect or immense to be effective. Even a little faith, placed entirely in God, can move mountains and transform our lives. Faith is not merely a feeling; it is a gift, and a gift that calls us to action. When we trust God, He leads us to unexpected places, carries us through difficult seasons, and surprises us with His grace. St. Paul's exhortation to Timothy — to "stir into flame the gift of God" — is a call for us to live our faith boldly and courageously, even when the world tempts us toward fear or discouragement.

Finally, Jesus teaches that faith expresses itself in service. True disciples do not serve for recognition or reward but out of love for God. The deeper our faith, the more naturally we will serve others with joy, patience, and generosity.

This week, let us pray with the apostles: "Lord, increase our faith!" May we trust Him more completely, allow Him to guide our steps, and let our faith shine through daily acts of love and service.

Installation of Our New Pastor

Notas del Párroco – P. George G. Pérez, C.J.M.- Párroco 27º Domingo del tiempo ordinario

Con el cambio suele venir mucha incertidumbre. Ya ha pasado un mes desde mi llegada, y hemos realizado algunos cambios pequeños pero significativos en nuestra celebración de la Misa. La Eucaristía es el corazón de nuestra fe, el lugar donde el cielo y la tierra se encuentran. Cada detalle de cómo celebramos debe ayudarnos a entrar en el misterio de la presencia de Dios y a volver a Él con humildad. Por eso hemos hecho ciertos ajustes, como retirar los desinfectantes de manos del altar. Esta decisión fue tomada después de mucha oración, con la esperanza de que nuestra atención permanezca completamente en el Señor. El santuario — el espacio del altar — es el lugar más sagrado de la iglesia, y siempre debemos tratarlo con reverencia, permitiendo que nada nos distraiga de lo que allí sucede: el sacrificio de Cristo hecho presente para nosotros.

Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a profundizar nuestra confianza en esa presencia. En el Evangelio, los apóstoles claman: “¡Auméntanos la fe!” Jesús responde hablando del poder de la fe, comparándola con un grano de mostaza — el más pequeño de los granos, pero lleno de vida y potencial. Esta imagen nos recuerda que la fe no tiene que ser perfecta ni enorme para ser eficaz. Incluso una fe pequeña, puesta completamente en Dios, puede mover montañas y transformar nuestra vida.

La fe no es solo un sentimiento; es un don, y un don que nos llama a la acción. Cuando confiamos en Dios, Él nos lleva a lugares inesperados, nos sostiene en las pruebas y nos sorprende con su gracia. Las palabras de San Pablo a Timoteo — “reaviva el don de Dios” — nos llaman a vivir nuestra fe con valentía y sin miedo, incluso cuando el mundo nos tienta al desánimo.

Finalmente, Jesús nos enseña que la fe se expresa en el servicio. Los verdaderos discípulos no sirven por reconocimiento o recompensa, sino por amor a Dios. Cuanto más profunda es nuestra fe, más naturalmente serviremos a los demás con alegría, paciencia y generosidad.

Esta semana, recemos junto con los apóstoles: “¡Señor, aumentanos la fe!” Confiemos más plenamente en Él, dejemos que guíe nuestros pasos y hagamos brillar nuestra fe a través de pequeños actos de amor y servicio.

Procession in Honor of the World Day of Migrants and Refugees

Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish invites you to celebrate the Jubilee of Migrants and Refugees by accompanying us in procession and prayer to celebrate the Jubilee of Hope. The procession will begin at Our Lady of Guadalupe, 1770 Kearney, at 2pm and will end at the Holy Door of Hope at St. Joseph Cathedral (1535 Third Ave). There will be a special prayer in the Cathedral at 3:30pm. We recommend using public transportation to arrive at Our Lady of Guadalupe, as parking is limited. For decades, Our Lady of Guadalupe has stood alongside immigrants in San Diego, offering shelter and support to individuals newly released from detention centers or experiencing street releases. Today, through the FAITH project of interfaith court accompaniment, the parish continues this legacy by walking with immigrants and their families during some of the most challenging moments of their journeys. We commit ourselves to walking with our brothers and sisters, knowing that God walks alongside us.

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The apostles asked Jesus to give them more faith. Jesus pointed out that to be his disciple is not about having "more faith". To be his disciple requires to truly have faith – even in the smallest amount – to accomplish great things. Faith is a gift from God and is lived in attention to the ordinary responsibilities and tasks of life. As disciples we do both: we ask God for the gift of faith and thank God for his grace.

Parents: Can you share a story where a tiny amount of faith was enough?

Children: How can you live your faith this week by being responsible and kind?

Pray Loving Father, give us grace to be diligent and faithful in our responsibilities.

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

First Reading

Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

The patience of the just man shall be rewarded when he sees the vision fulfilled.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 95:1-2,6-7,8-9

Sing joyfully to God, our salvation.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:6-8,13-14

Paul urges Timothy to remain strong in the Spirit of faith Timothy received.

Gospel Reading

Luke 17:5-10

Jesus teaches the apostles the importance of faith and service to God.

“All people are like grass,
and all their glory is like
the flowers of the field;
the grass withers
and the flowers fall,
but the word of the Lord
endures forever.”
1 Peter 1:24-25

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus teach about faith and service to God. The context is a continuing dialogue between Jesus and his followers about what it means to be a disciple of Jesus. Jesus has just finished an instruction on sin and forgiveness. There are two related teachings that Jesus offers to his disciples when they cry out for an increase in faith.

The first is the familiar reminder that faith, even just a little, will enable the followers of Jesus to do wondrous things. But this uplifting and inspiring teaching is quickly followed by the second teaching, a caution about knowing one's place in God's plans. The disciples of Jesus are to understand themselves as servants to God and his plans. Even when God works wonders through us, with our mustard seed-sized faith, we must not seek praise. Our participation in God's plans is God's grace to us—nothing more, nothing less.

When we are graced enough to cooperate with God, the work we do is nothing more than our obligation to God as faithful stewards. And yet, our faith enables us to believe that what we have offered in service to God, as his servants, can be made to produce a hundredfold.

St. Patrick Trunk or Treat

St. Patrick Church needs your help! Let's show our love and support for our parish and local community by creating a safe, fun, family-friendly Halloween celebration for our kids.

We are looking for volunteers to host a vehicle or table at our upcoming Trunk or Treat event. It's a great way to spread joy and a little candy this Halloween season.

Can't host a vehicle or table? Candy donations are also a huge help and greatly appreciated. Let's make this event spooktacular for everyone. Thank you for your support!
