PASTOR'S NOTES -

Fr. George G. Perez, CJM - Pastor - 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel opens with a simple, heartfelt plea: "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!" Ten lepers stand at a distance, crying out for mercy. They suffer not only from disease but also from loneliness, shame, and rejection. Yet, Jesus hears them. He always listens to those who are hurting.

During Jesus's time, leprosy damaged the skin, caused a terrible smell, and led to social isolation. But even today, there are types of "leprosy" that wound the heart rather than the body. Some people bear emotional wounds — the pain of criticism, gossip, or betrayal that destroys their dignity. Others carry within them the "odor" of resentment, anger, or bitterness, which makes life heavy and relationships hard. And some feel excluded, forgotten, or made to feel they don't belong — sometimes even within their own families or faith communities.

Nevertheless, Jesus approaches all these sufferings. He seeks to restore what has been broken, heal what sin or hurt has damaged, and reunite us in communion. His healing isn't just physical; it touches the deepest parts of our hearts.

When the ten lepers were healed, only one returned — and that was a Samaritan, someone considered an outsider. The Gospel reminds us that gratitude and faith aren't limited to the most religious or to specific groups. The Samaritan's heart recognized God's presence in his healing, and he came back to thank Him.

Thus, faith isn't just about belonging to a structure or movement. It's a personal relationship with Jesus. It's about recognizing God's mercy and responding with gratitude.

The word Eucharist means thanksgiving. Every time we gather for Mass, we're invited to do what the Samaritan did — to return to the Lord and say, "Thank you." Perhaps we've taken our blessings for granted. Maybe we've been healed in ways we no longer notice. Today calls us back to gratitude, to return to the Eucharist, to fall at Jesus' feet and give thanks.

Some might say, "Father, the Mass feels long," or "the priest doesn't inspire me." I understand. But we don't come for the priest; we come for Jesus. We come to give thanks, to recognize that everything we have — our life, our family, our faith — is a gift.

Life is brief, brothers and sisters, but when lived with gratitude, it becomes full and beautiful.

Let us be the one who returns. Let us come back to Jesus, back to the Eucharist, back to thanksgiving, and not leave until the final blessing.

Notas del Párroco – P. George G. Pérez, C.J.M.- Párroco 28º Domingo del tiempo ordinario

El Evangelio de hoy comienza con una súplica sencilla y sentida: “¡Jesús, Maestro, ten compasión de nosotros!” Diez leprosos se mantienen a distancia, clamando por misericordia. Sufren no solo por la enfermedad, sino también por la soledad, la vergüenza y el rechazo. Sin embargo, Jesús los escucha. Siempre escucha a los que sufren.

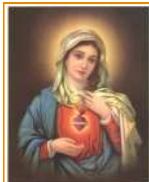

En la época de Jesús, la lepra dañaba la piel, producía un olor terrible y llevaba al aislamiento social. Pero incluso hoy existen tipos de “lepra” que hieren el corazón más que el cuerpo. Algunas personas llevan heridas emocionales: el dolor de las críticas, los chismes o la traición que destruyen la dignidad. Otros cargan el “olor” del resentimiento, la ira o la amargura, lo que hace la vida pesada y dificulta las relaciones. Y algunos se sienten excluidos, olvidados o como si no pertenecieran —a veces incluso dentro de sus familias o comunidades de fe.

No obstante, Jesús se acerca a todos estos sufrimientos. Busca restaurar lo que se ha roto, sanar lo que el pecado o el dolor han dañado y reunirnos en comunión. Su sanación no es solo física; toca las partes más profundas de nuestro corazón. Cuando los diez leprosos fueron sanados, solo uno regresó —y era un samaritano, alguien considerado un extranjero. El Evangelio nos recuerda que la gratitud y la fe no están limitadas a los más religiosos ni a grupos específicos. El corazón del samaritano reconoció la presencia de Dios en su sanación y volvió para darle gracias.

Así, la fe no se trata solo de pertenecer a una estructura o movimiento. Es una relación personal con Jesús. Es reconocer la misericordia de Dios y responder con gratitud. La palabra Eucaristía significa acción de gracias. Cada vez que nos reunimos para la Misa, estamos invitados a hacer lo que hizo el samaritano: volver al Señor y decir, “Gracias”. Quizás hemos dado por sentadas nuestras bendiciones. Tal vez hemos sido sanados de maneras que ya no notamos. Hoy se nos invita a regresar a la gratitud, a volver a la Eucaristía, a postrarnos ante Jesús y darle gracias.

Algunos podrían decir: “Padre, la Misa se siente larga” o “el sacerdote no me inspira”. Lo entiendo. Pero no venimos por el sacerdote; venimos por Jesús. Venimos a dar gracias, a reconocer que todo lo que tenemos —nuestra vida, nuestra familia, nuestra fe— es un regalo.

La vida es breve, hermanos y hermanas, pero cuando se vive con gratitud, se vuelve plena y hermosa. Seamos el que regresa. Volvamos a Jesús, volvamos a la Eucaristía, volvamos a la acción de gracias, y no nos vayamos hasta la bendición final.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In Jesus' time, lepers were outcasts and cutoff from their immediate family and wider community. This Sunday's gospel tells of a miraculous healing of ten lepers. They cry out to Jesus for help. Jesus hears their cries. He tells them to show themselves to the priest, who will witness their healed condition and allow them back into their communities. Ten lepers were healed; only one leper, a Samaritan, returns to Jesus to praise and thank God. Jesus points out that the Samaritan leper has gained something far more important than a physical cure; he has gained eternal salvation. Salvation is offered to each of us if we desire to know God, turn to him, and respond to his love and mercy.

Children: Can you think of some reasons why the other nine lepers did not return to thank Jesus?

Parents: Do you turn to Jesus to guide you?

Prayer Intention: Loving Father, give us grace to trust in your mercy.

Next Family Rosary: Friday, October 17, from 4:00pm – 4:30pm. We will meet in the Guadalupe Chapel. Prayer sheet and rosary provided.

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

First Reading

2 Kings 5:14-17

Naaman is cleansed of his leprosy and chooses to serve the God of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 98:1,2-3,3-4

Rejoice! The salvation of God is made known to all.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 2:8-13

Those who remain faithful to Christ will share Christ's glory.

Gospel Reading

Luke 17:11-19

Jesus heals 10 lepers, and one, the Samaritan, returns to give thanks.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today we hear about how Jesus, continuing on his journey to Jerusalem, heals 10 lepers. This story is a lesson about faith and reminds us that faith is sometimes found in unlikely places. Ten people afflicted with leprosy cry out to Jesus. Struck with pity, Jesus heals all 10. However, only one is described as glorifying God and returning to thank Jesus. The one who returns is a Samaritan, a foreigner. In the Jewish circles in which Jesus lived, Samaritans were looked down upon because of the differences between the two communities in their observance of Judaism. It is significant, therefore, that Jesus commends the Samaritan for his faith, which has been his salvation. Throughout Luke's Gospel, faith is found in surprising places.

Another lesson for us in this Gospel has to do with salvation. All 10 of the lepers were given the gift of healing, but in his gratitude to God for this gift, the Samaritan found salvation. Our salvation is found in recognizing the gifts we have been given and knowing to whom we must offer our thanks.

St. Patrick Trunk or Treat

St. Patrick Church needs your help! Let's show our love and support for our parish and local community by creating a safe, fun, family-friendly Halloween celebration for our kids.

We are looking for volunteers to host a vehicle or table at our upcoming Trunk or Treat event. It's a great way to spread joy and a little candy this Halloween season.

Can't host a vehicle or table? Candy donations are also a huge help and greatly appreciated. Let's make this event spooktacular for everyone. Thank you for your support!
