PASTOR'S NOTES -

Fr. George G. Perez, CJM - Pastor -

*Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran
Basilica in Rome*

Today we celebrate the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome, the mother church of all churches and a powerful sign of unity within the Catholic Church. This feast reminds us that the Church is not merely made of bricks and stone, but is a living temple where God dwells among His people. Each one of us, as members of the Body of Christ, forms part of this sacred temple that reveals God's presence in the world.

In the Gospel, Jesus enters the temple and drives out those who had turned a place of prayer into a marketplace. His zeal for His Father's house challenges us to look within and ask: Have I allowed distractions, selfishness, or indifference to take over the space meant for God? The cleansing of the temple is not only about buildings; it is about the cleansing of our hearts, where true worship begins.

The prophet Ezekiel describes water flowing from the temple, bringing life and healing wherever it goes. This image reminds us that when Christ dwells in us, His grace flows outward, renewing our families, workplaces, and communities. We are called to be channels of that same life-giving water, allowing God's presence in us to touch others with mercy and compassion.

St. Paul reminds us that we are God's building, His holy temple (1 Cor 3:9–17). This is both a great privilege and a responsibility. Holiness is not optional—it is part of our identity as Christians. To honor this calling, we must nurture prayer, charity, and justice in our daily lives.

Let us also remember three simple invitations for this feast:

Do not “negotiate” with God—faith is a relationship, not a transaction.

Care for what is sacred—show reverence in church, in dress, and in behavior.

Rebuild the Church—each of us has a role in helping the Church grow through love and service.

May this feast renew our desire to honor both the physical churches where we gather and the spiritual temple within us. Christ longs to dwell in you—let Him find a worthy home.

LATERAN
BASILICA

Notas del Párroco –
P. George G. Pérez, CGM – Párroco
Fiesta de la Dedicación de la Basílica de
Letrán

Hoy celebramos la Dedicación de la Basílica de San Juan de Letrán en Roma, la iglesia madre de todas las iglesias y un signo de unidad para toda la Iglesia católica. Esta fiesta nos recuerda que la Iglesia no está hecha solo de ladrillos y piedra, sino que es un templo vivo donde Dios habita en medio de su pueblo. Cada uno de nosotros, como miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo, formamos parte de este templo sagrado que manifiesta la presencia de Dios en el mundo.

En el Evangelio, Jesús entra en el templo y expulsa a los que lo habían convertido en un mercado. Su celo por la casa de su Padre nos invita a mirar dentro de nosotros mismos y preguntarnos: ¿He permitido que las distracciones, el egoísmo o la indiferencia ocupen el lugar que pertenece a Dios? La purificación del templo no se refiere solo a los edificios, sino también a la limpieza interior del corazón, donde comienza el verdadero culto.

El profeta Ezequiel describe el agua que brota del templo y que lleva vida y sanación a donde llega. Esta imagen nos recuerda que cuando Cristo habita en nosotros, su gracia fluye hacia afuera, renovando nuestras familias, trabajos y comunidades. Estamos llamados a ser canales de esa misma agua viva, permitiendo que la presencia de Dios en nosotros toque a los demás con misericordia y compasión.

San Pablo nos recuerda que somos edificio de Dios, su templo santo (1 Cor 3,9–17). Esto es tanto un gran privilegio como una gran responsabilidad. La santidad no es opcional; es parte esencial de nuestra identidad cristiana. Para vivirla, debemos alimentar la oración, la caridad y la justicia en nuestra vida diaria. Recordemos también tres invitaciones sencillas en esta fiesta:

No “negociar” con Dios: la fe es una relación, no un trueque.

Cuida lo sagrado: muestra reverencia en la iglesia, en tu vestir y en tu comportamiento.

Reconstruye la Iglesia: cada uno tiene un papel en su crecimiento mediante el amor y el servicio.

Que esta fiesta renueve nuestro deseo de honrar tanto los templos donde nos reunimos como el templo espiritual que somos. Cristo desea habitar en ti; deja que encuentre en tu corazón un hogar digno.

Why is the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica Important?

St. John Lateran is the official cathedral of the Bishop of Rome, the Pope. All five Lateran Councils met there, and it is the location where a new pope is officially installed. Due to its historical and hierarchical preeminence, it holds the title of archbasilica and is considered the "mother of all churches".

Commissioned by Emperor Constantine, it was the first major Christian basilica built in Rome.

It served as the official papal residence for nearly 1,000 years before the papacy moved to the Vatican.

The Lateran Treaty, which established the Vatican City as an independent state, was signed in the basilica.

The inscription on the façade of the basilica, "Omnium urbis et orbis ecclesiarum mater et caput" (Mother and Head of all the churches of the city and the world), emphasizes its symbolic role as the symbolic center of Roman Catholicism.

Due to technological difficulties, the livestream from our church will not be available for a few weeks. We are awaiting a new part for the system.
Thank you for your patience.

The Knights of Columbus will be collecting deodorant and underwear for La Posada starting November 8 - November 23 look for the blue barrels.

Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome

The temple in Jerusalem was the central house of worship for the Jewish people. Jesus called it "my Father's house". He became angry that his father's house was being used as a marketplace. Then, Jesus talked about a new temple, raised up in three days. People didn't understand that he was referring to his body, his death and resurrection. Saint Paul reminds us today that we are the temple of God. When we gather for prayer or worship in the church building, we are together God's holy temple. Talk about how our beautiful church can help us pray and learn to treat each other with love and respect.

Halloween Candy Drive

Donate wrapped Halloween candy to the House of the Poor in Tijuana. The sweets will become part of the Sisters' annual Christmas distribution to over 1700 families. Please put wrapped candy in bags marked "Candy Collection". Toothbrushes and toothpaste are also appreciated. Please bring donations to the Religious Education class or the Parish Office by November 10. Thank you.

Only Three Weeks until the Christmas Boutique

The ladies of the Altar Society will be on the church patio on This Sunday November 9 and Next Sunday November 16 selling tickets for their Raffle

Baskets to be given away on November 23 at their Boutique. Stop by and check out the amazing baskets they have put together, one valued at over $400.

We have a special treat for the kids this year: we just received notice from the North Pole that Santa will be at our Boutique on Sunday, November 23. In addition, we have a Santa Workshop for the kids on Sunday the 23rd where they can make their own Christmas ornament. This is a free workshop just for our young church members. While your kids are making their ornaments with the help of our members, you parents will have time to check out all the wonderful items we have for sale.

Stop by and help our ladies make this a successful event.

Showers of Blessings would like to thank everyone who gave so generously to our ministry last weekend. We are very grateful.

Showers of Blessings quiere agradecer a todos los que donaron tan generosamente a nuestro ministerio el fin de semana pasado. Estamos muy agradecidos.

Annual Catholic Appeal

ACA is an important part the Church's outreach in the Diocese of San Diego. Every parish has to support the mission of the Diocese. Our goal this year is high: $105,875.00

It is a challenge for us to achieve it.

So far, we have only collected about $76,889.80. We need another $28,985.20 to reach our goal. If we do not reach our goal, our parish must make up the difference. Please help us and the Diocese by making your contribution.

The brochures that describe the good ministries done by ACA and how to contribute are located at the doors of the church. If you have any questions, call the parish office or stop by.

Thank you for your support!

Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome

First Reading

Ezekiel 47:1-2,8-9,12

I saw water flowing out from beneath the threshold of the temple toward the east.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 46:2-3,5-6,8-9

God is our refuge and our strength.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 3:9-11,16-17

You are the temple of God.

Gospel Reading

John 2:13-22

He spoke about the temple of his own body.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The story of the cleansing of the Temple is found in all four Gospels. In Matthew, Mark, and Luke, Jesus is upset with the deceitful practices of the vendors and expels them for that reason. But in John, Jesus' authority is contrasted with the authority of the Temple cult and is a criticism of the cult itself.

The story is composed of two parts, Jesus' action in the Temple and Jesus' predictions about the Temple's destruction. The time of year is the sacred feast of Passover. If the many pilgrims to Jerusalem during Passover were to have animals for the sacrificial rituals of the feast, it was necessary to sell cattle in the Temple and to change the unclean Roman money. By denouncing this, Jesus is cutting to the core of the Temple cult.

The story is really about Jesus' fate, not the Temple's fate, revealing that Jesus, not the Temple, is the locus of God's presence on earth. As they often do in John, the Jews misunderstand Jesus' words. This gives John the chance to explicitly state his point. Although this is the beginning of his ministry, Jesus is already speaking of his coming death and Resurrection. John intentionally integrates a post-Resurrection perspective into the Gospel narrative. The statement that concludes this passage uses the fact of the Resurrection to prove the point of Jesus' words. Believers need to remember the words and actions of Jesus and claim them as affirmations of the truths of their faith.

Christians sometimes point to Jesus' anger in this passage as a way to point out Jesus' humanity. But this would miss the powerful point of the entire Gospel, that the Word became flesh. The point is not that Jesus' anger proves he is human. It is that a human being, in his words and actions, can claim the authority of God.

Faith Based (drop-in) Grief Support Group

Everyone is welcome and encouraged to come. There is no registration or standard curriculum. The group is designed for the bereaved to have a place that they feel safe to share their experiences, and gain personally by supporting others as well as being supported by others. The group is facilitated by trained grief counselor, Den. Rick from St. Pat's, and Rev. Chris from St. Michael's.
