PASTOR'S NOTES -
Fr. George G. Perez CJM - Pastor
Sixth Sunday of Easter

As we continue our Easter journey, the joy of the Resurrection remains at the center of our celebration. Today's readings on this Sixth Sunday of Easter remind us that the risen Jesus does not leave His disciples—or us—alone. Instead, He offers us the gift of His abiding presence, His peace, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

In the Gospel, Jesus speaks these comforting words: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." This is one of the most beautiful promises of our faith. God does not remain distant or removed from our daily struggles. Through love and faithful obedience, God chooses to dwell within us. Our lives become sacred places where God lives and acts.

Jesus also promises the coming of the Holy Spirit, whom He calls the Advocate. The Spirit teaches us, reminds us of Christ's words, and strengthens us to live as His disciples. Easter faith is not something we generate on our own. It is sustained by God's Spirit, who accompanies us through moments of confusion, difficulty, and change. When we feel unsure of our direction or burdened by the challenges of life, the Holy Spirit continues to guide, inspire, and comfort us.

One of the central themes of today's Gospel is peace. Jesus says, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." This peace is not the absence of problems or conflict, but the deep assurance that God is present and in control. It is a peace the world cannot give—a peace rooted in trust, hope, and love. This gift allows us to face life's uncertainties with courage and calm, even when the path ahead is unclear.

The First Reading shows the early Church discerning God's will together. Faced with disagreement, the community listens, prays, and allows the Holy Spirit to guide their decisions. This reminds us that faith is lived not only individually but also communally. As a parish family, we are called to listen to one another, to seek unity, and to trust that the Spirit continues to work among us today.

The Sixth Sunday of Easter invites us to reflect on how we live our faith in everyday life. Do our choices reflect our love for Christ? Do we make room for God to dwell within our hearts? Are we open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit when faced with difficult decisions?

As we move closer to Pentecost, let us ask for renewed openness to the Spirit's presence. May we embrace Christ's gift of peace and become instruments of that peace in our families, our parish, and our world. Living as Easter people means carrying the light of the risen Christ wherever we go, trusting that God truly dwells with us, now and always.

The Word of the Week...

This week's word: Mendicant

In Catholic practice, mendicant refers to a group, usually a religious order, that relies on the generosity of others for their livelihood. This includes certain monastic congregations and orders that depend on "begging."

The Young Adult Ministry will be sponsoring a toiletries drive for the months of April & May. All donations collected will be used to put together care packages by the Young Adult Ministry and they will distribute them to the homeless.

Please bring your donations to the parish office.

NOTAS DEL PÁRROCO –
P. George G. Pérez, CJM - Párroco -
VI Domingo de Pascua

A lo largo del tiempo de Pascua, la Iglesia continúa celebrando la alegría de la Resurrección. En este Sexto Domingo de Pascua, las lecturas nos recuerdan que Jesús resucitado no nos deja solos. Él permanece con nosotros, nos ofrece su paz y nos envía el don del Espíritu Santo para guiarnos y fortalecernos en nuestra vida cristiana.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos dice: “El que me ama, guardará mi palabra, y mi Padre lo amará, y vendremos a él y haremos morada en él.”

Estas palabras revelan una verdad profunda de nuestra fe: Dios no es distante. Él desea habitar en nuestros corazones. Cuando amamos a Cristo y vivimos su mensaje, nuestra vida se convierte en un lugar sagrado donde Dios vive y actúa.

Jesús también promete el envío del Espíritu Santo, el Defensor, quien nos enseñará y nos recordará todo lo que Él nos ha dicho. La fe no es solo un esfuerzo humano; es una respuesta sostenida por la acción del Espíritu en nosotros. En los momentos de duda, cansancio o dificultad, el Espíritu nos acompaña, nos ilumina y nos da fuerza para seguir adelante como discípulos del Señor.

Un tema central del Evangelio es el don de la paz. Jesús nos ofrece una paz diferente a la del mundo: “La paz les dejo, mi paz les doy.” Esta paz no significa ausencia de problemas, sino la certeza de que Dios está con nosotros en medio de toda situación. Es una paz que calma el corazón, que sostiene en la prueba y que nos permite caminar con confianza aun cuando enfrentamos incertidumbre.

La primera lectura nos presenta a la comunidad cristiana primitiva discerniendo la voluntad de Dios. Ante un conflicto importante, los discípulos escuchan, dialogan y se dejan guiar por el Espíritu Santo. Esto nos recuerda que la fe se vive en comunidad. Como parroquia, estamos llamados a caminar juntos, a escucharnos con respeto y a buscar siempre la unidad bajo la guía del Espíritu.

Este Domingo de Pascua nos invita a revisar nuestra propia vida. ¿Estamos viviendo realmente como discípulos de Cristo? ¿Permitimos que Dios habite en nuestro corazón? ¿Buscamos la guía del Espíritu Santo en nuestras decisiones diarias?

A medida que nos acercamos a la solemnidad de Pentecostés, pidamos un corazón más abierto a la acción del Espíritu. Que podamos acoger la paz que Cristo nos regala y convertimos en instrumentos de esa paz en nuestras familias, en nuestra parroquia y en el mundo.

Vivir la Pascua es vivir con la certeza de que Cristo está vivo y camina con nosotros, hoy y siempre.

El grupo de matrimonios los invita a participar en nuestras reuniones todos los sábados después de la Santa Misa. Nos reunimos de las 8:00pm a las 9:30pm en el sótano de la iglesia.

¡Los esperamos!

Vatican II and Its Implementation

Fr. Ron Bagley will be teaching a course on the Second Vatican Council. It will take place at St. Patrick Parish Center, on June 2, 9, 16, 23; & 30, from 6:00 – 9:00 pm

Objectives of the Course:

- * place the Second Vatican Council in historical context within the Church and the world by indicating those events and trends that led up to Vatican II
- * provide an overview of the main topics and themes treated by the council
- * identify major results of the implementation of the Council since its closure
- * identify the ways that Pope Leo XIV has already indicated that he will continue to implement the teachings of Vatican II

There will be a textbook: Christopher M. Bellitto (ed.), Essential Vatican II: The Council for the Future of the Church (Paulist Press, 2024)

Registration through the website of the Diocesan Institute:

Sixth Sunday of Easter

In this Sunday's reading Jesus tells his disciples: Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him. These are important words that Jesus has for us as well. By doing what he has told us we show our love for him. Jesus knows how difficult this would be for us if we had to do it all alone. So, he promises to provide a Helper, an Advocate, the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit living and working in us enables us to put the teaching of Jesus into action.

Adults: What are the reasons for hope that you have?

Children: How can you help someone that needs a friend?

Prayer: Lord Jesus, help us to show our love for you in our words and actions.

Information about our program year 2026-2027 will be forthcoming soon. Registration for fall classes for faith formation for children in preschool through 8th grade, including sacramental preparation for students in public school will begin in June.

IMPORTANT DATE CHANGE FOR THE YE OLDE GARAGE MONTHLY SUNDAY SALE.

Because Mother's Day is on May 10 (which is usually our regular Sunday Sale), the Ye Olde Garage Monthly Sunday Sale will be postponed until May 17 from 8:30am to 2:30pm Please come and visit. Just look for us at the far Northeast Parking Lot and we will be right there by the American Flag.

We look forward to seeing you.

If you are interested in joining this ministry, please leave your name and phone number at the Parish office and we will definitely get back to you.

Each year, millions of Americans face the reality of living with a mental health condition. However, mental illness affects everyone directly or indirectly through family, friends or coworkers. Please come and meet members of St. Patrick's Mental Health Ministry team on the church patio the weekend of May 16-17 we will be sharing information about our ministry and providing Mental health resources.

Hope to see you there.

If you need support or resources please call St. Patrick's Mental Health Support line at 760-729-2866 ext. 393

Calling all men of St. Patrick's!
Want more Jesus in your life?

"Absolutely!" Then the St. Patrick's Men's Bible Study might be for you! We are a group of men, parishioners, who have been meeting here for years to bring more Jesus into our lives. It's working! Every meeting we use St. Ignatius of Loyola's time tested Lectio Divina method of learning about Jesus. Specifically, we read and study the gospel we will hear at Mass that coming Sunday. You don't need to bring anything or prepare in advance to participate, there's no signing up, and it's free. we meet in the Fr. Mullen Room here at St. Patrick's School, on Wednesdays, from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. It's the corner room closest to the Pie Shop. For more details please reach out to Joe Jean at j8j8e8a8n@gmail.com

Sixth Sunday of Easter – Year A

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 8:5-8,14-17

The people of Samaria accept the Gospel of Jesus proclaimed to them by Philip.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 66:1-7,16,20

Sing praise to God, all the earth.

Second Reading

1 Peter 3:15-18

Be ready to give explanation for your hope in Christ.

Gospel Reading

John 14:15-21

Jesus promises his disciples that he will send them another advocate, the Spirit of truth.

Background on the Gospel Reading

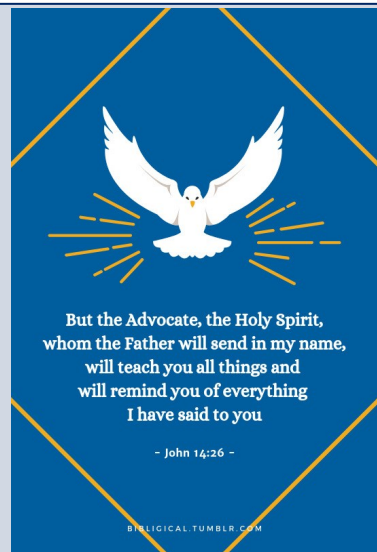

Today's Gospel is a continuation of last week's Gospel: Jesus is speaking to his disciples at the Last Supper. In today's reading Jesus offers encouragement to his disciples, who will soon see him crucified. He reassures them that even though he will leave them, he will not abandon them. Instead he will send them the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, through whom the disciples will continue to live in union with Jesus.

Jesus uses the term Advocate to describe the Holy Spirit, whom the disciples will receive. Another word used to describe the Holy Spirit is Paraclete, a legal term meaning "one who offers defense for another." Note that Jesus says that he will send "another Advocate." Jesus himself is the first advocate, interceding for his disciples with the Father.

In today's reading Jesus contrasts his impending departure with the permanence of the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus will leave to return to the Father, but the Holy Spirit will remain with the disciples.

Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, the disciples will come to know and appreciate the unity of the Son and the Father. They will also understand that they too participate in the communion between the Father and the Son: "On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you" (John 14:20).

Today's reading is one example of the contrast that John's Gospel presents between the community of disciples, to whom God will reveal himself, and the unbelieving world, which will remain in darkness. The unbelieving world cannot accept the "Spirit of truth," whom the disciples will receive. Only through the Spirit will God's revelation and love be known.
