PASTOR'S NOTES -
Fr. George G. Perez CJM - Pastor
Pentecost Sunday

As we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, the Church rejoices in the gift of the Holy Spirit poured out upon the Apostles and upon all believers. Pentecost marks not only the fulfillment of Christ's promise, but also the birth of the Church—our beginning as a people sent forth to proclaim the Gospel with courage, faith, and joy. In the First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we hear the powerful account of the Holy Spirit descending upon the disciples as a strong driving wind and tongues of fire. Those who had once been fearful and hidden away were transformed into bold witnesses of Christ. Filled with the Spirit, they spoke in many languages, and people from every nation could understand them. This beautiful moment reminds us that the Holy Spirit unites people across every difference and calls all humanity into communion with God. In the Gospel, Jesus appears to His disciples and says, "Peace be with you." He then breathes on them and says, "Receive the Holy Spirit." The gift of the Spirit is inseparable from the mission Christ entrusts to His followers. The Spirit is not given merely for comfort or consolation, but to strengthen us for service. We are sent into the world to bring forgiveness, healing, mercy, and hope to others. Pentecost is not simply an event we remember from long ago. The Holy Spirit continues to work within the Church and within each one of us today. Through Baptism and Confirmation, we have received the gifts of the Holy Spirit—wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. These gifts are meant to guide our daily lives and help us grow closer to Christ. In a world often marked by division, fear, and uncertainty, the Holy Spirit calls us to become instruments of unity and peace. We are invited to listen more carefully to God's voice, to speak with kindness and truth, and to live with generosity and compassion. The Spirit strengthens us to respond faithfully even when discipleship is difficult. As a parish community, Pentecost invites us to renew our commitment to the mission of the Church. Each of us has a role in building up the Body of Christ through prayer, service, and love. Whether in our homes, our workplaces, our school, or our parish, we are called to reflect the presence of Christ to others. Today, let us pray for a renewed outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon our hearts and upon our parish community. May the Spirit fill us with faith, strengthen us with hope, and set our hearts ablaze with the love of God. May we go forth as joyful disciples, courageously witnessing to Christ in all that we do. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

NOTAS DEL PÁRROCO –
P. George G. Pérez, CJM - Párroco -
Domingo de Pentecostés

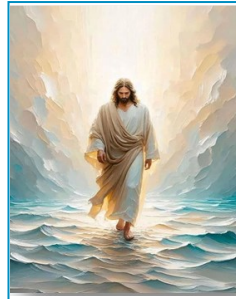

Al celebrar hoy la gran solemnidad de Pentecostés, la Iglesia se llena de alegría por el don del Espíritu Santo derramado sobre los Apóstoles y sobre todos los creyentes. Pentecostés marca no solamente el cumplimiento de la promesa de Cristo, sino también el nacimiento de la Iglesia: el comienzo de nuestra misión como pueblo enviado a anunciar el Evangelio con valentía, fe y alegría. En la Primera Lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, escuchamos el poderoso relato de la venida del Espíritu Santo en forma de viento fuerte y lenguas de fuego. Aquellos discípulos que antes estaban llenos de miedo y encerrados se transformaron en testigos valientes de Cristo. Llenos del Espíritu, comenzaron a hablar en diferentes lenguas, y personas de muchas naciones podían comprenderlos. Este hermoso momento nos recuerda que el Espíritu Santo une a las personas por encima de toda diferencia y llama a toda la humanidad a la comunión con Dios. En el Evangelio, Jesús se aparece a sus discípulos y les dice: “La paz esté con ustedes.” Después sopla sobre ellos y les dice: “Reciban el Espíritu Santo.” El don del Espíritu está inseparablemente unido a la misión que Cristo confía a sus seguidores. El Espíritu no se nos da solamente para nuestro consuelo, sino para fortalecernos en el servicio. Somos enviados al mundo para llevar perdón, sanación, misericordia y esperanza a los demás.

Pentecostés no es simplemente un acontecimiento del pasado. El Espíritu Santo continúa obrando hoy en la Iglesia y en cada uno de nosotros. Por medio del Bautismo y la Confirmación hemos recibido los dones del Espíritu Santo: sabiduría, entendimiento, consejo, fortaleza, ciencia, piedad y temor de Dios. Estos dones están llamados a guiarnos en nuestra vida diaria y ayudarnos a crecer en nuestra relación con Cristo.

En un mundo marcado tantas veces por la división, el miedo y la incertidumbre, el Espíritu Santo nos llama a ser instrumentos de unidad y de paz. Nos invita a escuchar con más atención la voz de Dios, a hablar con caridad y verdad, y a vivir con generosidad y compasión. El Espíritu nos fortalece para responder con fidelidad incluso cuando el camino del discipulado se vuelve difícil.

Como comunidad parroquial, Pentecostés nos invita a renovar nuestro compromiso con la misión de la Iglesia. Cada uno de nosotros tiene un papel importante en la construcción del Cuerpo de Cristo a través de la oración, el servicio y el amor. Ya sea en nuestros hogares, en el trabajo, en la escuela o en la parroquia, estamos llamados a reflejar la presencia de Cristo a los demás. Pidamos hoy una nueva efusión del Espíritu Santo sobre nuestros corazones y sobre toda nuestra comunidad parroquial. Que el Espíritu nos llene de fe, nos fortalezca en la esperanza y encienda en nosotros el fuego del amor de Dios. Que salgamos al mundo como discípulos alegres y valientes, dando testimonio de Cristo en todo lo que hacemos.

Ven, Espíritu Santo, llena los corazones de tus fieles y enciende en ellos el fuego de tu amor.

“Reciban el Espíritu Santo”

Domingo de Pentecostés

En el Domingo de Pentecostés aparecen los dos grandes frutos de la Pascua: los dones del Espíritu: la paz y la alegría. El Espíritu Santo es el amor de Dios derramado en nuestros corazones, y la paz y la alegría son sus principales efectos en la vida cristiana. La paz es el primer saludo del Resucitado: “Paz a ustedes”. La paz no es mera ausencia de conflictos ni simple tranquilidad. Es una paz profunda e integral que nace de la comunión con Dios y de la orientación hacia Él como Sumo Bien. Supone armonía interior, orden moral, justicia y plenitud de vida. Nadie puede contribuir a la paz del mundo sin un mínimo de armonía interior. Además, la paz es fruto del amor: es la atmósfera de quienes aman, la melodía de fondo de la caridad. La alegría es el otro gran fruto del Espíritu. La alegría es el brillo del amor de Dios en nosotros. Quienes, a pesar del dolor, siguen cantando cada mañana son los bienaventurados. Paz y alegría: frutos del Espíritu y misión permanente para la Iglesia.

An Important Encyclical on Artificial Intelligence (AI)

Pope Leo XIV and the co-founder of artificial intelligence company Anthropic will launch the pontiff's first encyclical on May 25, a document on the care of human dignity in the era of AI. Anthropic has billed itself as the AI company that puts safety and risk-mitigation at the forefront of its research. Pope Leo, who has made AI a priority of his young pontificate, is greatly concerned about AI in warfare and has called for monitoring of how the technology is used.

The pope's presence at the launch of the document, Magnifica Humanitas (Magnificent Humanity) is also significant, since such presentations are usually conducted in the Vatican press room with a few selected officials and invited guests who answer reporters' questions about the document. This time, the Vatican is bringing out an all-star cast for a formal launch in the main Vatican auditorium: Two of its top cardinals, doctrine chief Cardinal Victor Manuel Fernández and development chief Cardinal Michael Czerny, will be the main presenters. A representative from Anthropic will be among the lay speakers, along with theologians Anna Rowlands and Leocadie Lushombo. Of course, Pope Leo himself will speak about this important Church document.

Vatican II and Its Implementation

Fr. Ron Bagley will be teaching a course on the Second Vatican Council. It will take place at St. Patrick Parish Center, on June 2, 9, 16, 23; & 30, from 6:00 – 9:00 pm

Objectives of the Course:

- * place the Second Vatican Council in historical context within the Church and the world by indicating those events and trends that led up to Vatican II
- * provide an overview of the main topics and themes treated by the council
- * identify major results of the implementation of the Council since its closure
- * identify the ways that Pope Leo XIV has already indicated that he will continue to implement the teachings of Vatican II

There will be a textbook: Christopher M. Bellitto (ed.), Essential Vatican II: The Council for the Future of the Church (Paulist Press, 2024)

Registration through the website of the Diocesan Institute:

Blessing for Graduates

On the weekend of May 30-31, we will offer a special blessing for all graduates from high school and college. It will be given at every weekend Mass. We thank God for our young people who have worked so hard to earn their diplomas. May God bless them in their future endeavors.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA)

Are you or someone you know interested in becoming Catholic?

Whether you have been baptized in another Christian church or never been baptized, OCIA is the process we use to welcome new members into the Church.

It is also for adults who have never finished receiving the sacraments of initiation (for example, they did not receive the Sacrament of Confirmation when they were younger).

It is a process of discernment and formation, in the context of the Christian community, which leads to the decision to be fully initiated as a Catholic Christian. This happens when adults receive Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil (next March 27).

A new group will be formed over the summer. Then beginning in early September, candidates attend our formation sessions every Sunday morning immediately after the 9:00 am Mass. They attend the Mass and then meet in the parish hall until 11:00 am. Attendance is important and those who miss too many sessions will not be included in the celebration at the Easter Vigil. To get the process started, those interested should contact Fr. Ron Bagley to arrange an interview. Email rmbagley@yahoo.com or call 760-729-2866, x 309.

Our Third Annual Catholic Trivia Night will be on Wednesday, June 10, beginning at 6:30 pm. Parish groups compete against one another for the title of St. Patrick Trivia Champions. All you need is a team of three. You can form a team among your neighbors, people from the same ministry or parish organization, friends who attend the same Mass. When you have your team, send an email to Fr. Ron (rmbagley@yahoo.com). Include the names of the team members, a contact person, and the name you're giving your team. Get your team of three people ready and start preparing. (Hint: review the weekly trivia questions from the newsletter.)

Pentecost Sunday

At Pentecost the church celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit. John's Gospel pictures Jesus breathing the gift of his Spirit on the disciples. He calms them with his peace and gives them the power to give peace to others by forgiving their sins. "As the Father has sent me, so I send you," Jesus says. Being sent by Jesus is our mission as well. The words mission and mass have the same Latin root of missa. At the end of mass, we are sent with these (or similar words) "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life." Each of us is sent by Jesus to serve and love and help others right where we are.
Children: Who needs your help this week?
Adults: What gift do you hope to receive from the Holy Spirit? How could you use it to serve others?
Prayer: Come, Holy Spirit, and fill our hearts with your love.

Thank you for a great year!

Our religious education program has ended for this year. We had 174 students in our classes. Four of our students were baptized, 58 boys and girls celebrated their First Confession and First Holy Communion, and 50 children began their sacramental preparation. Eight of our students will attend high school in the fall and are invited to begin Confirmation preparation.

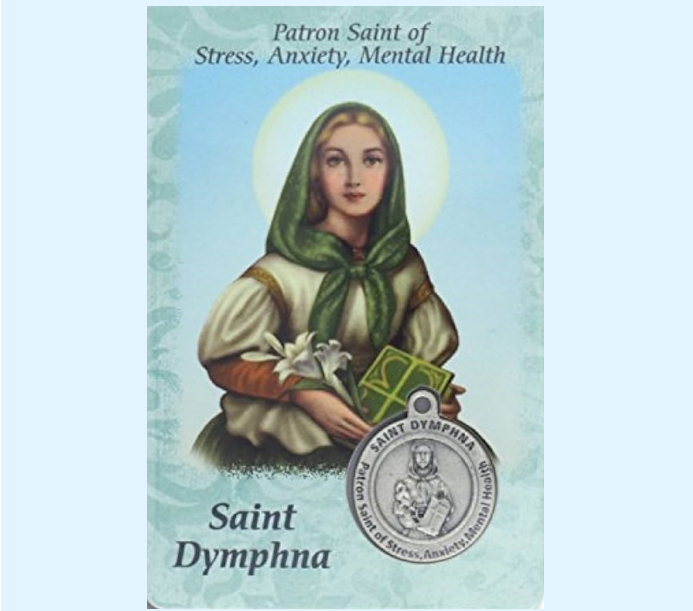

Information about our program year 2026-2027 is available on our parish website www.stpatrickcarlsbad.com Religious Education Preschool to 8th Grades. Registration for fall classes and sacramental preparation for students in public school, is open. You may register online or call our office to make an appointment. You can reach us at mdornisch@stpatrickcarlsbad.com or 760-729-8442.

Blessings, Margit Dornisch - Office for Religious Education and Family Ministry

ST. AUGUSTINE: PRAYER OF THE HS

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy.
Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy.
Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy.
Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy.
Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy.
AMEN.

Solemnity of Pentecost – Year A

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

The Holy Spirit descends upon the apostles gathered in Jerusalem.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 104:1,24,29-31,34

God's Spirit renews the earth.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7,12-13

We are all one in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading

John 20:19-23

Jesus appears to his disciples and gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The Season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the Feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, John 20:19-23, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. Yet the event in John's Gospel takes place on Easter Sunday. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts. It is enough that we know that after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

We already heard today's Gospel proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter this year (Lectionary Cycle A). That Gospel passage, however, also included the description of Jesus' appearance to Thomas. In that context, we were led reflect on belief and unbelief.

In the context of the Feast of Pentecost, John 20:19-23 reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." He breathes the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and sends them to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins. Jesus' act of breathing the Holy Spirit mirrors God's act of breathing life into Adam at the time of Creation. In fact, both the Greek and Hebrew words for "spirit" can also be translated as "breath."

This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. The reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life. In the Sacrament of Baptism, we are cleansed of sin and become a new creation in Christ. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the mercy of God through the forgiving of sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people.
