PASTOR'S NOTES -
Fr. George G. Perez CJM - Pastor
The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, traditionally known as Corpus Christi, a beautiful feast that invites us to reflect deeply on the greatest gift Jesus has given to His Church: the Eucharist. At the heart of our Catholic faith is not simply an idea, a symbol, or a memory, but the real presence of Jesus Christ—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity—offered to us in Holy Communion. The readings today help us understand the depth of this sacred mystery. In the First Reading, Melchizedek, the king and priest, offers bread and wine in thanksgiving to God. This ancient offering foreshadows the perfect offering of Christ at the Last Supper and on the Cross. In the Second Reading, St. Paul recounts the words Jesus spoke on the night before He died: "This is my body that is for you... This cup is the new covenant in my blood." These words are repeated at every Mass because the Eucharist is not simply a remembrance of something long ago; it is the living sacrifice of Christ made present for us today. In the Gospel, Jesus feeds the large crowd with five loaves and two fish. Though the crowd was hungry physically, this miracle points to an even greater hunger within every human heart—a hunger for God. Jesus satisfies that hunger in the Eucharist. He does not leave us empty or alone but continually nourishes us with His own life. The Eucharist is truly the source and summit of our Christian life. Every Mass is an encounter with Jesus Christ. When we come forward to receive Holy Communion, we are invited into communion not only with God but also with one another as members of His Body, the Church. The Eucharist strengthens us, heals us, and transforms us little by little into the people God calls us to be. This solemn feast is also an invitation to renew our reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. We should never receive Holy Communion casually or without reflection. Instead, we are called to approach the altar with humility, gratitude, and faith. Spending time in Eucharistic adoration, even for a few quiet moments, allows us to rest in the presence of the Lord and open our hearts to His grace. The most powerful blessing we receive is at the end of Mass, when we are sent forth into the world carrying Christ within us. Nourished by His Body and Blood, we are called to be His presence in our homes, workplaces, schools, and communities. May we always treasure the gift of the Eucharist and allow it to shape our lives with love, mercy, and faithful service.

Corpus Christi

The Word of the Week...

This week's word: Transubstantiation

Transubstantiation is the teaching of the Catholic Church that the bread and wine are changed into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ during the Mass. While the physical appearance, taste, and texture remain the same, the underlying reality – or "substance" – becomes completely the risen Lord.

Our Third Annual Catholic Trivia Night will be on Wednesday, June 10, beginning at 6:30 pm. Parish groups compete against one another for the title of St. Patrick Trivia Champions. All you need is a team of three. You can form a team among your neighbors, people from the same ministry or parish organization, friends who attend the same Mass. When you have your team, send an email to Fr. Ron (rmbagley@yahoo.com). Include the names of the team members, a contact person, and the name you're giving your team. Get your team of three people ready and start preparing. (Hint: review the weekly trivia questions from the newsletter.)

Everyone is welcomed to come cheer on your favorite team, learn some interesting facts about our faith, and just have fun. Hope to see you there!

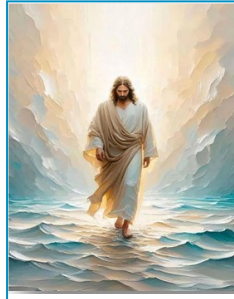

NOTAS DEL PÁRROCO –
P. George G. Pérez, CJM - Párroco -
Solemnidad del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo
(Corpus Christi)

Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo, tradicionalmente conocida como Corpus Christi, una hermosa fiesta que nos invita a reflexionar profundamente sobre el regalo más grande que Jesús ha dado a su Iglesia: la Eucaristía. En el corazón de nuestra fe católica no hay simplemente una idea, un símbolo o un recuerdo, sino la presencia real de Jesucristo —Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad— ofrecido a nosotros en la Sagrada Comunión. Las lecturas de hoy nos ayudan a comprender la profundidad de este sagrado misterio. En la Primera Lectura, Melquisedec, rey y sacerdote, ofrece pan y vino en acción de gracias a Dios. Esta antigua ofrenda anuncia la ofrenda perfecta de Cristo en la Última Cena y en la Cruz. En la Segunda Lectura, San Pablo recuerda las palabras que Jesús pronunció la noche antes de morir: “Esto es mi cuerpo, que se entrega por ustedes... Este cáliz es la nueva alianza sellada con mi sangre.” Estas palabras se repiten en cada Misa porque la Eucaristía no es simplemente el recuerdo de algo sucedido hace mucho tiempo; es el sacrificio vivo de Cristo hecho presente para nosotros hoy. En el Evangelio, Jesús alimenta a la multitud con cinco panes y dos peces. Aunque la gente tenía hambre física, este milagro apunta a un hambre aún más profunda en el corazón humano: el hambre de Dios. Jesús sacia esa hambre en la Eucaristía. Él no nos deja vacíos ni solos, sino que continuamente nos alimenta con su propia vida. La Eucaristía es verdaderamente la fuente y la cumbre de la vida cristiana. Cada Misa es un encuentro con Jesucristo. Cuando avanzamos para recibir la Sagrada Comunión, somos invitados a entrar en comunión no solamente con Dios, sino también unos con otros como miembros de su Cuerpo, la Iglesia. La Eucaristía nos fortalece, nos sana y nos transforma poco a poco en las personas que Dios nos llama a ser.

Esta solemnidad también es una invitación a renovar nuestra reverencia por el Santísimo Sacramento. Nunca debemos recibir la Sagrada Comunión de manera rutinaria o sin reflexión. Más bien, estamos llamados a acercarnos al altar con humildad, gratitud y fe. Pasar tiempo en adoración eucarística, aunque sea solo unos momentos de silencio, nos permite descansar en la presencia del Señor y abrir nuestros corazones a su gracia.

La bendición más poderosa que recibimos es la bendición final al terminar la Misa, cuando somos enviados al mundo llevando a Cristo dentro de nosotros. Alimentados por su Cuerpo y Sangre, estamos llamados a ser su presencia en nuestros hogares, trabajos, escuelas y comunidades. Que siempre valoremos el don de la Eucaristía y permitamos que transforme nuestras vidas con amor, misericordia y servicio fiel.

DIÓCESIS DE SAN DIEGO

Se les pide a los fieles de la Diócesis de San Diego que actúen con precaución ante un grupo de hombres que se hacen pasar fraudulentamente por sacerdotes y un obispo católico. Afirman ser Misioneros Guadalupanos del Santísimo Sacramento (MGSS) y están ofreciendo sacramentos a familias católicas a cambio de dinero. Se informa al público que cualquier sacramento conferido por estos hombres es inválido e ilícito. Este grupo de hombres—algunos de ellos sacerdotes ordenados, pero ahora reducidos al estado laical—han formado su propia secta; residen en Rosarito, pero no están en comunión con la fe de la Iglesia católica romana. Se han recibido informes sobre la presencia de estos sacerdotes fraudulentos en nuestra diócesis; por ello, se les pide a los fieles contactar a su párroco en caso de tener conocimiento de cualquier incidente. Algunos nombres de los sacerdotes fraudulentos son: Obispo Lauro, Octavio Aguilar Oliveros, Gabriel Figueroa y Raymundo Figueroa Pérez.

Si alguna persona ha sido víctima de fraude en relación con estos sacerdotes, por favor, contacte a las autoridades.

OCIA

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Are you or someone you know interested in becoming Catholic?

Whether you have been baptized in another Christian church or never been baptized, OCIA is the process we use to welcome new members into the Church.

It is also for adults who have never finished receiving the sacraments of initiation (for example, they did not receive the Sacrament of Confirmation when they were younger). It is a process of discernment and formation, in the context of the Christian community, which leads to the decision to be fully initiated as a Catholic Christian. This happens when adults receive Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil (next March 27).

A new group will be formed over the summer. Then beginning in early September, candidates attend our formation sessions every Sunday morning immediately after the 9:00 am Mass. They attend the Mass and then meet in the parish hall until 11:00 am. Attendance is important and those who miss too many sessions will not be included in the celebration at the Easter Vigil. To get the process started, those interested should contact Fr. Ron Bagley to arrange an interview. Email rmbagley@yahoo.com or call 760-729-2866, x 309.

Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

This Friday, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Many people think that this liturgical feast was begun by St. Mary Alocoque and St. Claude Colombiere. Actually, a little before those saints, St. John Eudes composed a Mass in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The bishops of France gave their permission to have the feast celebrated publicly for the first time on October 20, 1672. For St. John Eudes the Heart of Jesus was primarily a symbol of love: God’s love for us, our love for God, and our love for one another. On this Friday, we will use the Mass composed by St. John Eudes to celebrate this solemnity at our parish Masses.

Religious Education & Family Ministry (Prek - 8th grade)

Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

The mystery of the Eucharist is the mystery of our union with Jesus Christ. Each time we receive holy communion we allow Christ to fill and transform our lives. Jesus himself becomes our nourishment, our strength for a life of discipleship. In each celebration, we are given the life of Christ; we are uniquely transformed and reformed into Christ, his body on earth.

For parents: What does it mean for you to be bread for others as Jesus was?

For children: In what ways can Jesus help you do good things for others?

Prayer: Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me. Blood of Christ, inebriate me. Water from the side of Christ, wash me. Passion of Christ, strengthen me. O good Jesus, hear me. Within your wounds conceal me. Do not permit me to be parted from you. From the evil foe protect me. At the hour of my death call me. And bid me come to you, to praise you with all your saints for ever and ever. Amen.
(The Anima Christi, a prayer from the 14th century, is prayed after receiving Holy Communion)

DIOCESE OF SAN DIEGO

The faithful of the Diocese of San Diego are asked to exercise caution with a group of men fraudulently posing as Catholic priests and bishop. They claim to be Guadalupan Missionaries of the Most Holy Sacrament (MGSS) and are offering sacraments to Catholic families in exchange for money. The public is advised that any sacraments conferred by these men are invalid and illicit. These group of men-some of them ordained priests but now laicized, have formed their own sect and reside in Rosarito but are not in communion with the Roman Catholic Church. Reports of these fraudulent priests have been sighted in our diocese and the public must contact their pastor should you become aware of any incidents. Some of the fraudulent priests names are: Bishop Lauro, Octavio Aguilar Oliveros, Gabriel Figueroa, Raymundo Figueroa Pérez.

If anyone is a victim of fraud relating to these priests, please contact the authorities.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord

First Reading

Deuteronomy 8:2-3,14b-16a

Moses tells the people to remember how God delivered them from slavery in Egypt.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 147:12-15,19-20

Praise God, Jerusalem!

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

Though many, we are one body when we partake of the Body and Blood of Christ.

Gospel Reading

John 6:51-58

Jesus says, "I am the living bread."

Background on the Gospel Reading

This Sunday we celebrate a second solemnity during this period of Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This day was once called Corpus Christi, which is Latin for "Body of Christ." In the revised Lectionary the name for this day is expanded to reflect more completely our Eucharistic theology.

Today's Gospel is taken from the Gospel according to John. The reading is part of a discourse between Jesus and a crowd of Jews. The discourse comes shortly after the miracle of Jesus' multiplication of the loaves and fishes. In John's Gospel, miracles such as this are identified as "signs" through which people come to believe that Jesus is the Son of God. These signs are followed by dialogue, or discourse that interprets and explains the miracle. In John's Gospel, Jesus' multiplication of the loaves is said to have occurred near Passover, thus linking it to the Exodus story and God's saving action toward the Israelites.

Having seen Jesus multiply the loaves and fishes, the crowd pursues him, perhaps seeking more food but also looking for another sign. Jesus tells the crowd that he is the bread of life. He explains that just as God gave the Israelites manna to sustain them in the desert, so now God has sent new manna that will give eternal life. It is in this context that Jesus repeats those words in today's Gospel and tells them again that he is the living bread that came down from heaven.

Jesus' words are not well understood by the crowd; they argue that Jesus is not from heaven but born of Mary and Joseph. The crowd also has trouble understanding how Jesus could give them his flesh to eat. Jesus tells them that when they eat his flesh and drink his blood, they will remain forever connected to him. These are difficult words, but they are important because they seek to show us our intimate connection with Jesus.

This is the mystery that is at the heart of our Eucharistic theology. In the elements of bread and wine, Jesus' Body and Blood are truly present. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us. This communion with the Lord makes us one body, brings us eternal life, and sends us forth to be Christ's Body in the world.
