11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Made for Greatness, Not Comfort

As Christians, it is easy to seek comfort. We naturally desire security, ease, and a life free from difficulties. Yet the Gospel reminds us that God did not create us merely for comfort; He created us for greatness—greatness in holiness, love, and service.

Jesus Himself never promised His disciples a comfortable life.

Instead, He said, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me” (Matthew 16:24). The path of discipleship involves sacrifice, perseverance, and trust. The saints understood this truth well. They did not become saints because they avoided challenges; they became saints because they embraced God’s will even when it was difficult.

True greatness is not measured by worldly success, wealth, or recognition. In God’s eyes, greatness is found in humility, faithfulness, and love. A mother who patiently cares for her family, a volunteer who serves quietly behind the scenes, a person who forgives despite being hurt, or a parishioner who remains faithful in prayer during difficult times—these are examples of true Christian greatness.

Comfort often tempts us to remain where we are. Greatness calls us to grow. Comfort says, “Stay where it is easy.” Christ says, “Come, follow me.” Comfort avoids sacrifice. Love embraces sacrifice for the good of others. When we step beyond our comfort zones to serve, evangelize, forgive, or deepen our relationship with God, we discover the joy and purpose for which we were created. The Solemnity of Corpus Christi, celebrated this past weekend, offers a powerful example. In the Holy Eucharist, Jesus gives Himself completely to us. He chose not comfort, but love. Through His Body and Blood, He nourishes and strengthens us to be His disciples in the world. Each time we receive the Eucharist, we are called to become more like Him—self giving, courageous, and holy. As we journey through this year, let us ask ourselves: Am I seeking comfort, or am I striving for the greatness to which God calls me? Am I willing to trust Him when the road is challenging? Am I allowing His grace to transform me into the saint He created me to be?

May we never settle for a comfortable faith. Instead, may we pursue the greatness found in Christ, knowing that God has called each of us to live lives of purpose, holiness, and love. With the Lord at our side, we can accomplish far more than we could ever imagine.

“Be strong and courageous... for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.” (Joshua 1:9)

The Word of the Week...

This week’s word: Lavabo

In the Catholic Mass, the Lavabo is the ritual washing of the priest’s hands during the Preparation of the Gifts. Originally, it had a practical purpose but now it is a symbolic gesture of interior purification and humility before he prays the Eucharistic Prayer.

The USCCB will consecrate our nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus in anticipation of the 250th anniversary of our nation.

To join in this historical effort, the Diocese of San Diego will participate in the 250 Holy Hours of adoration beginning the weekend of June 14 leading up to Independence Day on July 4. The 250 hours are collective hours, every person that attends; constitutes one hour. Parishes throughout the diocese will host Holy Hours based on the following themes specified by the USCCB:

Holy Hour for Life, Holy Hour for Peace, Holy Hour for Life, Marriage, and Religious Liberty, Holy Hour for Vocations, Holy Hour Against Racism, and Sacred Heart Holy Hour.

NOTAS DEL PÁRROCO –
P. George G. Pérez, CJM - Párroco -
XI Domingo Ordinario
Hechos para la Grandeza,
No para la Comodidad

Como cristianos, es natural buscar la comodidad. Deseamos seguridad, tranquilidad y una vida libre de dificultades. Sin embargo, el Evangelio nos recuerda que Dios no nos creó simplemente para vivir cómodamente; nos creó para la grandeza: la grandeza de la santidad, del amor y del servicio.

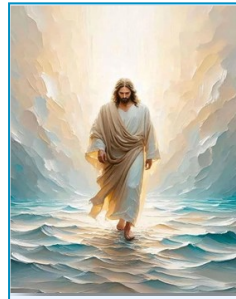

Jesús nunca prometió una vida fácil a sus discípulos. Al contrario, les dijo: “El que quiera venir detrás de mí, que renuncie a sí mismo, cargue con su cruz y me siga” (Mt 16,24). El camino del discipulado exige sacrificio, perseverancia y confianza en Dios. Los santos comprendieron esta verdad. No alcanzaron la santidad evitando los desafíos, sino abrazando la voluntad de Dios incluso cuando era difícil.

La verdadera grandeza no se mide por el éxito, el dinero o el reconocimiento. A los ojos de Dios, la grandeza se encuentra en la humildad, la fidelidad y el amor. Una madre que cuida con paciencia a su familia, un voluntario que sirve silenciosamente a su parroquia, una persona que perdona una ofensa, o un fiel que permanece constante en la oración durante momentos de prueba, son ejemplos de auténtica grandeza cristiana.

La comodidad nos invita a quedarnos donde estamos. La grandeza nos llama a crecer. La comodidad dice: “Quédate donde todo es fácil”. Cristo nos dice: “Ven y sígueme”. La comodidad evita el sacrificio; el amor lo abraza por el bien de los demás. Cuando salimos de nuestra zona de confort para servir, evangelizar, perdonar o profundizar nuestra relación con Dios, descubrimos la alegría y el propósito para los cuales fuimos creados.

La Solemnidad del Corpus Christi, que celebramos este fin de semana pasado, nos ofrece un ejemplo perfecto. Jesús se entrega completamente a nosotros en la Sagrada Eucaristía. No eligió la comodidad; eligió el amor. En su Cuerpo y Sangre encontramos la fuerza necesaria para vivir como verdaderos discípulos. Cada vez que recibimos la Eucaristía, somos invitados a parecernos más a Cristo: generosos, valientes y santos.

Por eso, vale la pena preguntarnos: ¿Estoy buscando comodidad o estoy respondiendo al llamado de Dios a la grandeza? ¿Estoy dispuesto a confiar en Él cuando el camino se vuelve difícil? ¿Permito que su gracia transforme mi vida? No nos conformemos con una fe cómoda. Dios nos llama a algo mucho más grande. Nos llama a la santidad. Con Cristo a nuestro lado, podemos superar cualquier obstáculo y convertirnos en testigos vivos de su amor en el mundo. Que la Virgen María, modelo de fe y entrega, nos ayude a responder con valentía al llamado de Dios. Y que recordemos siempre que no fuimos creados para la comodidad, sino para la grandeza que se encuentra en seguir a Jesucristo. “Sé fuerte y valiente... porque el Señor tu Dios está contigo dondequiera que vayas” (Josué 1,9).

What is ORDINARY TIME?

Returning to "Ordinary Time"

Ordinary Time is the period in the Church's liturgical calendar outside the major seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. The name comes from the Latin ordinalis, meaning "numbered" or "ordered," as the weeks are counted sequentially.

During this season, priests wear green vestments to symbolize growth and hope.

Ordinary Time doesn't mean mundane or unimportant; rather, it is a purposeful stretch of time designed for spiritual growth and deepening your faith in the rhythm of everyday life. We resumed Ordinary Time on the day after Pentecost, but the last two Sundays were solemnities. The two periods of Ordinary Time run from the end of the Christmas season until the beginning of Lent. This second period that we just entered extends all the way to the beginning of Advent. Since we are in Year A of the Sunday lectionary cycle, we will be listening to passages from Matthew's gospel on all the remaining Sundays of Ordinary Time.

OCIA

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Are you or someone you know interested in becoming Catholic?

Whether you have been baptized in another Christian church or never been baptized, OCIA is the process we use to welcome new members into the Church.

It is also for adults who have never finished receiving the sacraments of initiation (for example, they did not receive the Sacrament of Confirmation when they were younger). It is a process of discernment and formation, in the context of the Christian community, which leads to the decision to be fully initiated as a Catholic Christian. This happens when adults receive Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil (next March 27).

A new group will be formed over the summer. Then beginning in early September, candidates attend our formation sessions every Sunday morning immediately after the 9:00 am Mass. They attend the Mass and then meet in the parish hall until 11:00 am. Attendance is important and those who miss too many sessions will not be included in the celebration at the Easter Vigil. To get the process started, those interested should contact Fr. Ron Bagley to arrange an interview. Email rmbagley@yahoo.com or call 760-729-2866, x 309.

Pre-Order Tamale Sale Saturday, June 27th 2026

The Spanish Ministries of our parish will be selling tamales on Saturday, June 27.

They will have Traditional Mexican Pork and Chicken tamales wrapped in corn husks. They will be selling for $36.00 a dozen or $4.00 for each tamale.
(1/2 dozen orders available).

To place your Pre-order call Lola at (760) 712-2029 and leave a message with your order.

Please pre-order no later than June 24th.

Orders will be ready for pick up on Saturday,
June 27 between 1pm–6:30pm in the parish hall kitchen.

MEN'S HEALTH MONTH

June is Men's Health Month, and it is an important reminder that preventive care matters at every age. Studies continue to show that men are far less likely to schedule routine checkups and preventive appointments, often waiting until something feels wrong before seeking care. Annual physicals are one of the simplest ways to stay proactive about your health and can help identify potential concerns early.

Preventive visits may include: blood pressure and cholesterol screenings, blood sugar testing, skin checks, preventive lab work (including PSA) and wellness discussions. Make an appointment as an expression of love for someone who cares for you.

Religious Education & Family Ministry (PreK - 8th grade)

Registration for the school year 2026-2027

Register online: Visit the parish website www.stpatrickcarlsbad.com, click on Religious Education, PreK – 8th grade. Registration information and the link to the online form are in the top right corner.

Register in person: Please contact our office at 760-729-8442 or mdornisch@stpatrickcarlsbad.com

Liturgy of the Word for Children will be offered during the 9am mass in the summer.

Children ages 4-9 that attend mass with their family can hear the Word of God in language they can understand and reflect on in their own words. Following the Opening Prayer, the presider calls forth the children and sends them along with the adult catechist to the church basement classroom. The children will return to their family at the time of the Offertory.

Reflection: 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

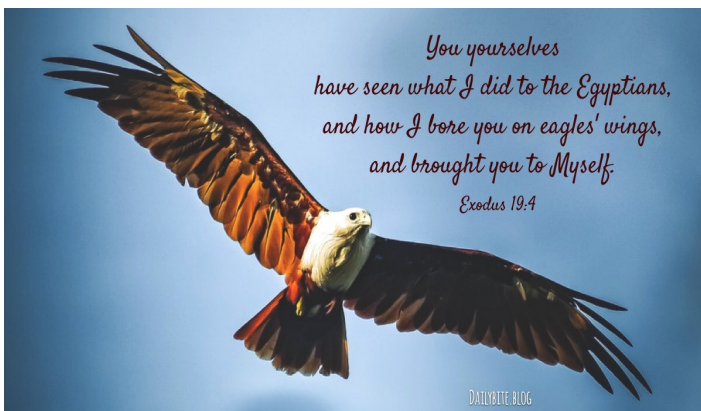

In the gospel reading, we hear that Jesus' heart was moved with pity as he compared the crowd to sheep without a shepherd. Sheep are very important animals. Their safety and health are crucial for the well-being of a community. When God calls his people the flock he tends to, it shows how valuable we are to God. The grace of our baptism calls us to assume responsibility within God's family and helping God's kingdom to grow.

Parents: How can you share the Good News of God's love with others this week?

Children: How can you bring joy to someone this week?

Prayer: We are God's people: the sheep of his flock. His kindness endures forever.

Six-week Summer Bible Study with Acts

The Good News of the Holy Spirit

God sent Jesus' followers the Holy Spirit and enabled them to continue what Jesus has initiated: reconciliation, inclusion of outcasts, and care for the needy.

God unfolds his grand plan of salvation first through Jesus, then through the Church. The Church led by his Spirit is God's instrument in the world.

In small groups we will discuss how the Holy Spirit guided the early church through unexpected growth, including suffering, and how he might call us to serve others and our community with his powerful help.

Join our study, it will be held in the parish center with evening and morning sessions:

- ♦ 6 Monday evenings: 7:00pm –8:30pm, beginning July 13.
- ♦ 6 Wednesday mornings: 9:30am –11:00am, beginning July 15. $15 booklet fee.

Registration weekend June 20/21 after all the Masses. Look for a table on the church patio. Or contact Carole King at stpatbiblestudy40@gmail.com

Eleventh Sunday of Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

Exodus 19:2-6a

God tells Moses that the Israelites will be his special people.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 100:1-3,5

We are the people of God.

Second Reading

Romans 5:6-11

Christ died for us while we were still sinners and reconciled us to God.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 9:36-10:8

Jesus sends the twelve apostles to proclaim the kingdom of heaven.

*The harvest is plentiful
but the workers are few.
Ask the Lord of the harvest,
therefore, to send out workers
into his harvest field.*

Matthew 9:37,38

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares his mission to proclaim the kingdom of heaven with his disciples. The signs of the kingdom's presence consist of the work that Jesus has already been doing: the sick are cured, lepers are cleansed, demons are driven out, and the dead are raised to life. The disciples are sent to continue doing the work that Jesus has begun. This is a moment of transition in Matthew's Gospel. The focus has shifted from the ministry of Jesus to the work of the community that he has inaugurated. More than any other Gospel, Matthew's Gospel elaborates on the work of the Church, which is to continue after Jesus' death and resurrection.

The Gospel reports that Jesus commissions twelve disciples. Many scholars believe that the twelve disciples symbolize the twelve tribes of Israel. It designates, therefore, continuity between Israel and the Church.

Matthew lists the names of the twelve disciples, as do Mark and Luke. Matthew also uses the word apostle when referring to the Twelve. The word apostle means "one who is sent." In this context, Matthew is calling attention to the mission that the twelve disciples are being given. They are sent by Jesus to proclaim the kingdom of heaven in word and deed.

As Jesus sent his disciples to continue his work and mission, so too the Church is sent by Jesus. The Church is his continuing presence on earth. Every member of the Church is sent by Jesus to contribute to this mission.
