PASTOR'S NOTES -

Fr. George G. Perez CJM - Pastor
15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel presents one of Jesus' most beloved parables: the Parable of the Sower. As the Sower generously scatters seed, it falls on different kinds of soil—along the path, on rocky ground, among thorns, and finally on rich soil where it bears abundant fruit. Jesus explains that the seed is the Word of God, while the various soils represent the condition of the human heart.

The remarkable aspect of this parable is not the skill of the Sower but his extraordinary generosity. He does not ration the seed or reserve it only for fertile ground. Instead, he sows everywhere. In the same way, God never ceases to offer His grace, mercy, and truth to every person. No one is excluded from His invitation to salvation.

The question for each of us is simple yet profound:

What kind of soil am I?

At times, our hearts resemble the hardened path, where distractions, indifference, or pride prevent God's Word from taking root. At other times, we receive His Word with enthusiasm, only to allow life's trials or disappointments to weaken our faith. The thorns symbolize the worries of daily life, the pursuit of wealth, and the many distractions that slowly choke our relationship with Christ.

Yet Jesus invites us to become good soil. Fertile soil is not naturally perfect; it has been cultivated, cleared of stones, and carefully tended. Likewise, a fruitful catholic life requires continual conversion.

Through prayer, frequent reception of the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist and Reconciliation, the reading of Sacred Scripture, and acts of charity, God gradually transforms our hearts into rich soil capable of bearing lasting fruit.

The First Reading from Isaiah offers us tremendous hope. Just as the rain and snow accomplish the purpose for which God sends them, so too His Word never returns empty. Even when we do not immediately see results in our lives or in the lives of those we love, God continues to work patiently and powerfully. His Word always bears fruit according to His perfect plan.

As disciples, we are not only called to receive the seed but also to become Sowers ourselves. Every kind word, every act of forgiveness, every witness of faith, every invitation to prayer plants seeds that God alone can make grow. We may never witness the harvest, but we trust the Divine Gardener who brings every good work to completion.

This week, let us ask the Holy Spirit to soften whatever has become hardened within us, remove the stones of doubt, pull out the thorns of anxiety and selfishness, and prepare our hearts to receive God's Word with faith. Then, nourished by His grace, may we bear fruit that will last—thirty, sixty, and even a hundredfold—for the glory of God and the building of His Kingdom

The Word of the Week...

This week's word: Soteriology

Soteriology (from the Greek sōtēria, meaning "salvation," and logia, meaning "study of") is the branch of theology that studies the doctrines of salvation. It explores how and why humanity is delivered from sin and its consequences, and defines the mechanics of grace, redemption, and the afterlife.

NOTAS DEL PÁRROCO –
P. George G. Pérez, CJM - Párroco -
XV Domingo Ordinario

El Evangelio de este domingo nos presenta una de las parábolas más conocidas de Jesús: la parábola del sembrador. El sembrador sale a sembrar con generosidad, y la semilla cae en distintos tipos de terreno: junto al camino, entre piedras, entre espinos y en tierra buena. Jesús nos explica que la semilla es la Palabra de Dios y que cada terreno representa la disposición del corazón humano.

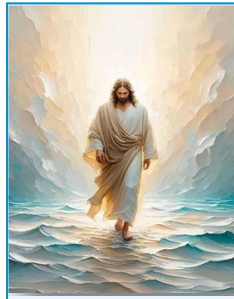

Lo primero que llama la atención es la generosidad del sembrador. No selecciona únicamente la tierra fértil, sino que esparce la semilla por todas partes. Así actúa Dios con nosotros. Él nunca deja de sembrar su amor, su misericordia y su verdad en cada corazón. Nadie queda excluido de su llamada a la conversión y a la santidad.

La pregunta que el Evangelio nos plantea es muy personal: ¿Qué clase de tierra soy yo?

A veces nuestro corazón se parece al camino endurecido, donde la Palabra no logra penetrar porque vivimos distraídos, indiferentes o cerrados a la acción de Dios. Otras veces somos como el terreno pedregoso: recibimos el Evangelio con entusiasmo, pero cuando llegan las dificultades, las pruebas o las críticas, nuestra fe se debilita. También podemos ser como la tierra llena de espinos, donde las preocupaciones, el afán por los bienes materiales y el ritmo acelerado de la vida terminan ahogando la presencia de Dios. Sin embargo, Jesús nos invita a ser tierra buena. La tierra fértil no nace preparada; necesita ser trabajada, limpiada y cultivada. Del mismo modo, el corazón del cristiano debe dejarse transformar continuamente por la gracia de Dios. La oración diaria, la lectura de la Sagrada Escritura, la participación frecuente en la Eucaristía, el Sacramento de la Reconciliación y las obras de caridad preparan nuestro corazón para dar abundantes frutos.

La primera lectura del profeta Isaías nos llena de esperanza. Así como la lluvia y la nieve fecundan la tierra y no vuelven sin producir fruto, también la Palabra de Dios nunca regresa vacía. Aunque muchas veces no veamos resultados inmediatos en nuestra vida, en nuestra familia o en nuestra comunidad, Dios continúa obrando silenciosa y eficazmente. Su Palabra siempre cumple la misión para la que fue enviada. Como discípulos de Cristo, no solo estamos llamados a recibir la semilla, sino también a convertirnos en sembradores. Cada gesto de amor, cada palabra de consuelo, cada acto de perdón y cada testimonio de fe son semillas que Dios puede hacer crecer en el corazón de quienes nos rodean.

Pidamos al Señor, en esta Eucaristía, que ablande nuestro corazón, quite las piedras de la duda y los espinos del egoísmo y de las preocupaciones excesivas. Que nos conceda un corazón abierto a su Palabra para que, sostenidos por su gracia, demos frutos abundantes de santidad, esperanza y amor, para gloria de Dios y bien de toda la Iglesia.

Liturgy of the Word for Children during the 9am mass

Children ages 4-9 that attend mass with their family go with an adult catechist to the church basement classroom where they listen to the Word of God and learn about it. The children will return to their family at the time of the Offertory. Parents are welcome to accompany. There is no sign up needed.

Reflection: 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

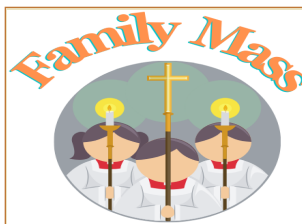

God constantly scatters the seed of his Word in our lives. When our hearts are fertile soil, God's Word will grow in us. It will produce abundant fruit. It will bring forth more grace and goodness than we can possibly imagine.

Parents: How can you make your hearts into good soil where God's love will grow?

Children: Will you be ready to listen for the Word of God? Who can help you?

Pray: Lord Jesus, help us to hear and understand the Word of God.

Blessings, Margit Dornisch Office for Religious Education & Family Ministry

Sunday, July 26,
at 9:00 am
in the church.
