PASTOR'S NOTES -

Fr. George G. Perez CJM - Pastor
Feast of St. Francis of Assisi

Today we celebrate St. Francis of Assisi, one of the great saints of the Church and a beautiful witness to the Gospel. As we continue our celebration of the Jubilee Year, Francis reminds us that the Christian life is a pilgrimage—a journey in which we continually allow God to transform our hearts and lead us closer to Christ.

The Responsorial Psalm gives us a prayer that could easily have been the prayer of St. Francis: "You are my inheritance, O Lord." Francis was born into a wealthy family and had many opportunities to pursue comfort, success, and recognition. Yet, after encountering Christ in a profound way, he discovered that the greatest treasure was not wealth or status, but the Lord Himself.

In today's Gospel, Jesus says, "Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed the mysteries of the kingdom to little ones." St. Francis became one of those "little ones." He learned to approach God with humility and simplicity. He did not believe that he needed to become important in the eyes of the world. He simply wanted to become faithful to Christ.

Francis heard the call to rebuild the Church, but that rebuilding began within his own heart. He embraced a life of poverty, served the poor, cared for the sick, preached the Gospel, and brought peace wherever he went. His simplicity was not an escape from the world; it was a way of seeing the world differently.

St. Francis also teaches us how to see God's creation. He called the sun, moon, earth, water, and animals his brothers and sisters because he recognized that everything comes from the same loving Creator. His love for creation was ultimately a love for God. When we care for creation, we recognize that it is a gift entrusted to us, not something that belongs to us absolutely.

St. Paul tells us today, "May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ." Francis understood that true discipleship means embracing the Cross. He received the wounds of Christ—the stigmata—as a profound sign of his union with Jesus. His life reminds us that the Cross is not a sign of defeat. In Christ, the Cross becomes the path toward resurrection, hope, and new life.

During this Jubilee Year, St. Francis invites each of us to ask: What am I carrying that God is asking me to surrender? What keeps me from living with greater simplicity, humility, and trust? Where is Christ asking me to bring peace?

The world often tells us that happiness comes from having more. St. Francis discovered the opposite: when Christ is enough, we are free.

May this Jubilee Year of St. Francis of Assisi renew our hearts. May we become pilgrims who walk with hope, servants who bring peace, and disciples who recognize God's presence in the poor, in creation, and in one another.

Word of the Week: Stigmata

Stigmata are bodily wounds, scars, or pain that appear on a person in places corresponding to the crucifixion wounds of Jesus Christ. Saint Francis of Assisi is the first historically recorded person to receive the stigmata.

NOTAS DEL PÁRROCO –

P. George G. Pérez, C.J.M. - Párroco -

Año Jubilar de San Francisco de Asís

Hoy celebramos con alegría a San Francisco de Asís, uno de los grandes santos de la Iglesia y un hermoso testigo del Evangelio. En este Año Jubilar, San Francisco nos recuerda que la vida cristiana es un camino, una peregrinación en la que continuamente permitimos que Dios transforme nuestro corazón y nos acerque cada vez más a Cristo.

El Salmo responsorial nos ofrece una oración que bien podría haber sido la oración de San Francisco: “Tú eres, Señor, mi herencia.” Francisco nació en una familia acomodada y tuvo muchas oportunidades para buscar comodidad, éxito y reconocimiento. Sin embargo, después de encontrarse profundamente con Cristo, descubrió que el verdadero tesoro no estaba en las riquezas ni en el prestigio, sino en el mismo Señor.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús alaba al Padre diciendo: “Te doy gracias, Padre, Señor del cielo y de la tierra, porque has escondido estas cosas a los sabios y entendidos y las has revelado a la gente sencilla.” San Francisco se convirtió en uno de esos “pequeños” de los que habla Jesús. Aprendió a acercarse a Dios con humildad y sencillez. No buscó ser importante ante los ojos del mundo; solamente quiso ser fiel a Cristo.

Francisco escuchó el llamado de Cristo a “reconstruir mi Iglesia”, pero comprendió que esa reconstrucción tenía que comenzar primero en su propio corazón. Abrazó una vida de pobreza, sirvió a los pobres, cuidó a los enfermos, anunció el Evangelio y llevó la paz allí donde estuvo.

San Francisco también nos enseña a mirar la creación con otros ojos. Llamaba al sol, a la luna, a la tierra, al agua y a los animales sus hermanos y hermanas porque reconocía que todo procede del mismo Creador. Su amor por la creación era, en el fondo, un amor hacia Dios. La creación es un regalo que Dios nos confía, no algo que nos pertenece absolutamente.

San Pablo nos dice hoy: “Dios me libre de gloriarme si no es en la cruz de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.” Francisco comprendió profundamente que seguir a Cristo significa abrazar también la cruz. Su vida nos recuerda que la cruz no es el final. En Cristo, la cruz se convierte en camino hacia la resurrección, la esperanza y la vida nueva.

En este Año Jubilar, San Francisco nos invita a preguntarnos: ¿Qué necesito entregar al Señor? ¿Qué me impide vivir con mayor sencillez, humildad y confianza? ¿Dónde me está pidiendo Cristo que sea instrumento de paz?

El mundo muchas veces nos dice que la felicidad consiste en tener más. San Francisco descubrió algo diferente: cuando Cristo es suficiente, somos verdaderamente libres.

Que este Año Jubilar renueve nuestros corazones. Que podamos caminar como peregrinos de esperanza, servir con humildad, llevar la paz y reconocer la presencia de Dios en los pobres, en la creación y en cada persona que encontramos.

Pearls for Wise Living

Thursday Morning Bible Study: James: Pearls for Wise Living

James is one of the most practical books of the Bible. Its teachings speak loudly to those who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and their faith.

This study offers "pearls for wise living" by applying the wisdom of James to our current day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances.

Ruah Adonai Breath of God Bible Study will begin James: Pearls for Wise Living (Ascension Press) on Thursday, October 8, 2026, at 8:30 am. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. To register or find out more information contact Lisa Albers at lalbersphone@gmail.com or Dianna Pacheco at diannapach@hotmail.com.

Feast of St. Francis of Assisi

First Reading

Sirach 50: 1, 3-4, 6-7

Behold him in whose time the house of God was renovated.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 16:1b-2a and 5, 7-8, 11

You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Second Reading

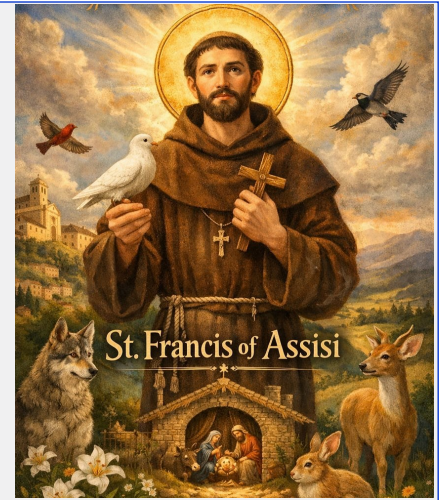

Galatians 6:14-18

May I never boast except in the cross of Christ.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 11:25-30

I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth,

Background on the Gospel Reading

The Church offers us readings that reflect the life and ministry of St. Francis of Assisi. In the gospel for this day, we find themes of the decisive importance of Jesus and the rejection of him. These are linked in verses 25-30. Matthew has put together traditional sayings according to the following outline: the praise of the Father (vv. 25-26), the identity of Jesus (v. 27), and the invitation to come (vv. 28-30).

Beginning with typically Jewish formulas of prayer, Jesus praises God for revealing to the simple and uneducated people, who were most receptive to Jesus, what has been hidden from the scholars and religious experts. St. Francis is known for his simplicity in his manner of life. Then in verse 27 Jesus asserts that God has granted him the revelation of himself as completely as a father discloses himself to a son. The relation between God and Jesus is so close that the only adequate terms for it are Father and Son. Therefore, only Jesus can pass on to others real knowledge of God. The language of verse 27 is very similar to many passages in John's Gospel (see John 3:35; 7:29; 10:14-15; 17:1-3).

In verses 28-30, Jesus expresses his invitation to discipleship in terms employed by Jesus ben Sira in Sir 51:23-27. Using the traditional image of the law as a "yoke," Jesus, the authoritative interpreter of the law (see 5:21-48), promises refreshment and rest in his wisdom school. All genuine searchers for wisdom are invited to come to Jesus. In Jesus, God's own wisdom dwells and can be learned. The whole life and teaching of St. Francis of Assisi was focused on leading everyone to Christ and embracing his simple way of life.
