A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

There are two places in the gospels that we find Jesus using the word steward. Both are in the gospel of Luke. One of them is in this Sunday's gospel reading. It is a story about a bad steward who did not live up to expectations. On the other hand, Jesus tells a parable in Luke 12 about a steward who is faithful and fulfills his master's wishes.

A steward is one who manages the property or affairs of another. It's an Old English word that means guardian or keeper of the house or hall, but it has its roots in ancient Greece where servants were entrusted by their masters to run the affairs of the household. This is in keeping with the Christian interpretation of stewardship, which teaches that we are called upon to take care of what belongs to our Master, who has created everything on our behalf. While we are entrusted with the Earth and all that is on it, we do not own it. We are only its caretaker and, in the end, will be held accountable for how well we treat the planet and its inhabitants.

We have all been blessed with gifts and talents. One of the characteristics of a good steward is that we will have to give an accounting for how we have used what we have been given. Jesus tells us that as stewards, accountability is important. How have I used what I have been given?

As we read in the first letter of Peter:

Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received. Whoever speaks must do so as one speaking the very words of God; whoever serves must do so with the strength that God supplies, so that God may be glorified in all things through Jesus Christ. To him belong the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.

Stewardship, using our gifts wisely, is one of the ways we give glory to God. Acknowledging the Giver of All Gifts and using those gifts for the intended purposes, is a fitting way to praise God. Neglecting to offer our gifts in service to our brothers and sisters is displeasing to God.

A good spiritual exercise that every one of us can do follows four simple steps: Begin by identifying a few of the gifts that God has given you. Next, reflect on the ways you have been able to use those gifts to help others. Then, ask the Lord to enable you to be of greater service in the use of the gifts you have received. Finally, give thanks to God for the joy that comes from being a steward who does what the Master asks.

In one Heart,

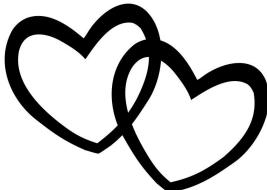

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús les dijo a sus discípulos, “No hay criado que pueda servir a dos amos, pues odiará a uno y amará al otro, o se apegará al primero y despreciará al segundo. En resumen, no pueden ustedes servir a Dios y al dinero”. Dinero, todos necesitamos dinero. Con el dinero compramos comida y medicina para nuestra familia. Podemos pagar las rentas altas y hasta ayudar a los familiares que viven en la pobreza aquí o en México y cuentan con unos dólares para ayudarse. El dinero es bueno y necesario para nosotros. En el Evangelio de san Lucas de este XXV Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Jesús habla de un hombre rico que tenía un administrador que había sido acusado de malgastar sus bienes. Y el hombre rico lo despide, pero el administrador es muy inteligente y empieza a analizar en la mente lo que va a hacer para no quedarse en la calle sin nada. Jesús dice, ‘los que pertenecen a este mundo son más hábiles en sus negocios que los que pertenecen a la luz’. ¿Qué nos dice Jesús con estas palabras? Todos necesitamos trabajar y ganar dinero. A veces tenemos que calcular y analizar nuestros planes para que sean justos y provechosos para nosotros. Pero siempre hay que recordar que nuestra meta y objetivo es de reflejar a Jesucristo en nuestro trabajo y en todo lo que hacemos. De no dejarnos engañar en pensar que por más dinero tengamos es señal de mi dignidad como hija e hijo de Dios. Que podamos mirar nuestro reflejo en el espejo y mirar que somos amados por Dios. Y nuestra meta es: “amar a Dios con todo nuestro corazón, mente y alma y amar al prójimo como a nosotros mismos”.

- Diacono Miguel Enríquez

Outreach with Synod Survey

As a part of the Synod process, our Diocese continues to seek the feedback of as many people as possible. That is why Cardinal McElroy is encouraging that each and everyone of us participate in a survey that will further assist the church in better ministering at all levels. All those who receive our parish email newsletter will receive the survey sent directly to them in early September.

But we want to reach out beyond those who are coming to church and active in the parish. We want to hear from those members who have distanced themselves from the Catholic Church or perhaps left the Catholic faith completely. Their voices matter to us!

We invite you to help in this effort. Please use the following QR code to personally invite someone who may not otherwise know of this opportunity to take the survey.

A paper with the QR code can also be found in the pews of the church during the month of September. They are also available in the parish office. Take as many as you like. Let's be proactive and invite family members, friends or neighbors to share their input.

The survey will be open online for 30 days beginning September 6. We look forward to hearing from you!

Coming in October: 6 Week Fall Bible Study with Romans Amazing Grace

The letter to the Romans is St. Paul's deepest reflection on who Jesus is and what he means to men and women. Paul speaks about frustration of struggling against sin, our need for God's grace, and the splendor of life with Christ. His testimony of faith is challenging and refreshing. Paul wrote to the Church in Rome in the mid-first century. Paul has much to offer to us today. Let's study it together!

There are two meeting options:
Six Monday evenings in the church: 6:45-8:30pm
October 10, 17, 24, 31; November 7 & 14

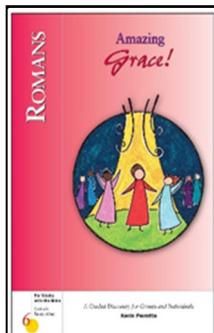

Six Tuesday mornings in the parish center: 10:00 am – 11:30am
October 11, 18, 25, November 1, 8 & 15

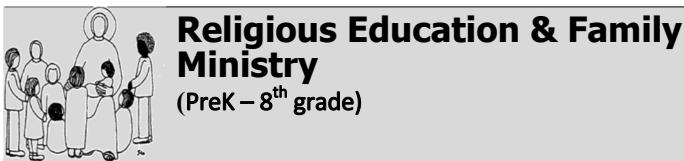

No bible study experience needed.

Register with Carole King at stpatbiblestudy40@gmail.com or 760-434-5688

Cost is $15; (cash or check payable to St. Patrick Church); booklets will be available soon.

Sunday classes: Sept 18, 25, Oct 2

Monday classes: Sept 19, 26, Oct 3

Wednesday classes: Sept 21, 28, Oct 5

Reflection: 25th Sunday of Ordinary Time

We need to be sincere and trustworthy in our dealings in everyday life. We need to be honest and faithful in serving God. We should not confuse our reliance on things in everyday living with a necessity to have wealth and money to find happiness. It is by serving others in a kind and trustworthy way that will show how earnest we are in serving God.

How can we be sincere in following Jesus at home, at school, and at work?

Registration for weekly classes for students from age 4 to 8th grade is still open, but some classes are closed. You will find general information at our parish website

Monthly Family Mass

We are planning to initiate a monthly celebration focused on families at the 9:00 am Mass. We will try to gear the readings, homily, music, etc. to families with children. We want to form a committee to work on the planning and preparation for this Monthly Family Mass. Fr. Ron is looking for parents both from our school and our religious education program who would like to be a part of this committee. If you are interested, send an email to Fr. Ron (rmbagley@yahoo.com).

This first Family Mass will be on Sunday, September 25 at 9:00 am.

Vote NO on Proposition #1

Sadly, California is presently one of the most permissive states in the nation for abortion. Proposition 1 promotes an unlimited expansion of abortion here, while its defeat would keep all abortion laws as they are, including our common-sense limits on late-term abortions. Our bishops are calling us to unite in prayer and action to defeat Prop 1.

Please visit www.CAcatholic.org/Prop1 to find answers to common questions and resources to help defeat this misleading, expensive and unnecessary ballot initiative.

St. Paul Street Evangelization

The St. Paul Street Evangelization team here at St. Patrick is inviting you to join us as we experience the joy in sharing our Catholic Faith with our neighbors in a loving non-confrontational manner. Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

First Reading

Amos 8:4-7

Unfair business practices and injustice to the poor will be judged by God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 113: 1-2,4-6,7-8

Praise be to God, who raises up the poor.

Second Reading

1 Timothy 2:1-8

Paul tells Timothy that prayer for those in authority is pleasing to God because God wills the salvation of all.

Gospel Reading

Luke 16:1-13

Jesus tells a parable about a dishonest steward who is commended for his prudence; one cannot serve both God and money.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel sounds puzzling to contemporary readers, but it can be made less so by considering the economic system which stands behind the parable. A steward is dismissed because he is squandering his master's property. He is called dishonest because he is not serving the interests of the rich man, his employer. In response the steward, in an attempt to ensure favor for himself among the rich man's debtors, brokers repayment of the rich man's loans by foregoing the interest and fees that had been levied to line the steward's pockets. It is this action, in which the steward puts aside his greed and takes the longer perspective in order to enhance his security, which is commended by the rich man.

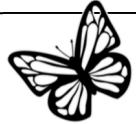

The passage concludes with three morals for the listeners. The first exhorts the listener to be prudent about the use of wealth. Like the steward in the parable, those who would follow Jesus must put transitory affairs in proper perspective. Christians should handle the affairs of temporal life with an eye toward eternal life.

The second concerns trustworthiness. Those who can be trusted in small things can also be trusted in great things. If Christians handle money and other passing things responsibly, then they can also be trusted with the affairs of the Kingdom of God.

Finally, Jesus tells his listeners that no one can serve two masters simultaneously. God must be put ahead of money.

Faith Based (drop-in) Grief Support Group

Everyone is welcome to join. There is no registration or standard curriculum. The group is designed for the bereaved to have a place that they feel safe to share their experiences, and gain personally by supporting others as well as being supported by others. The group is facilitated by trained grief counselor and Dcn. Rick from St. Pat's.

Meets the 2nd & 4th Thursdays from 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
