A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

The beginning of a new year gives us a lot to reflect on. It bids us to look back as well as to look forward. In fact, the month of January is named after an ancient Roman god named Januarius. In ancient mythology, this god was depicted with two faces: one looked back, the other looked forward.

As we look back over the year 2022, we can see the many challenges that we faced as a Church, as a nation, as a world. Each of us can also recall the personal challenges that we faced in the year gone by. The eyes of faith enable us to see how God’s grace enabled us to face our struggles with God’s guidance, always patient, always hopeful. For this we give thanks.

We also look back and recognize the many blessings that we have received. It would be a beautiful spiritual exercise for each of us to reflect and write down the many blessings we received in the year 2022. Sometimes, blessings are disguised and need some extra effort to recognize the hand of God. Prayerfully thank God for these blessings. You may also want to share your list with your family and close friends.

With the coming of a new year, we also have the opportunity to look ahead, to look forward to the graces and blessings of another year. As people of faith and hope, we entrust this new year to the hands of our merciful and compassionate God. Our faith tells us that God will never abandon us no matter what this year brings. Allow me to share once again my favorite quotation from St. Paul: “No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.” (1 Cor 10:13)

As we observe the Solemnity of Mary, Holy Mother of God on January 1, we entrust our world to her as the Queen of Peace. We pray for her loving protection for our nation and especially those areas of our world that still experience war and violence daily. Since 1967, every pope has asked us to observe January 1 as a special day of prayer for peace. We unite our prayers with all people of faith throughout the world who long for a world at peace.

Dag Hammarskjold, Secretary General of the United Nations from 1953 to 1961, was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize posthumously “in gratitude for all he did, for what he achieved, for what he fought for: to create peace and goodwill among nations and men.” In a collection of his sayings called Markings, he eloquently and simply summed up my thoughts at the beginning of a new year: “For all that has been: thanks. For all that will be: yes.”

May God bless you and your families throughout this new year. May you experience the peace that the Lord Jesus alone can give.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“... los pastores fueron a toda prisa hacia Belén y encontraron a María, a José y al niño, recostado en el pesebre. Después de verlo, contaron lo que se les había dicho de aquel niño, y cuantos los oían quedaban maravillados. María, por su parte, guardaba todas estas cosas y las meditaba en su corazón”. (Lucas 2 :16-21). Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad de Santa María, Madre de Dios. En el Evangelio de San Lucas leemos con qué entusiasmo van los pastores a ver al niño recién nacido, al Salvador, el Mesías y el Señor. Todos hemos experimentado un nacimiento de un hijo o hija y conocemos el gran gozo que surge en el corazón de un ser humano. Estoy seguro de que María y José se encontraban con los mismos sentimientos de uno. Pero, este niño Jesús, siendo el Hijo de Dios, ¿por qué nace afuera en un pesebre, en el frío y con animales? ¿Qué otras preguntas le pasaban por la mente a María y José? Pero miremos la actitud de María, nos dice el texto, que ella, “guardaba todas estas cosas y las meditaba en su corazón”. María sabía cuyo niño era el Hijo de Dios, y aunque no entendía todo, se mantenía tranquila con sus ojos puestos en Dios. Confiando plenamente en las promesas de Dios. Imitemos la actitud de María. Que también nosotros tendremos que enfrentar situaciones difíciles, pero no hay que olvidar que Dios está con nosotros y con El a nuestro lado todo es posible. ¡Feliz Año Nuevo! ¡Qué Dios los siga bendiciendo!

Thank You, Jayce

The retirement of Jayce McClellan from our parish staff gives rise to a wide array of feelings. First of all, there is gratitude for his many years of faithful and loyal service under four pastors. There is also sadness in his absence from parish leadership, although he continues to be a parishioner and we know that we will see him often. We also feel happiness for Jayce as he can now pursue other interests such as his great skill in photography and framing.

Join us in wishing Jayce a happy retirement. May God bless him and continue to watch over him in the years ahead. Thank you, Jayce!

Cristo Rey High School

Cristo Rey in San Diego is a unique Catholic high school. As one of 39 schools of its kind nationwide, it has a mission of making a Catholic education affordable for families of limited means. Students not only receive a rigorous, college-prep education but they also participate in a corporate work study program. Many major companies in San Diego partner with the school to provide students the opportunity to work one day a week and earn the majority of their tuition. The Eudist Fathers are pleased to be the religious sponsor for Cristo Rey.

On Sunday, January 8, Deacon Mike Daniels will preach at our 9:00 am and 11:00 am Masses to share more about the mission of this wonderful school. Representatives of the school will be available on the patio on Sunday morning to distribute brochures and answer questions.

St. Patrick's Bingo has been providing scholarship support to our parish school for over 40 years. With registration underway for a new school year, now might be a good time to see if bingo could help you provide a Catholic education for your child. Volunteer opportunities are available on Friday nights this might be a good way to ease the financial burden of a good a Catholic education. Every Friday there is a prize pool of more that $8,000. Doors open at 4pm early bird starts playing at 6pm and regular games start at 6:30pm. Come join us for a little fun and support the parish school.

New Years Mass Schedule

On New Years Day, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. Since January 1 falls on a Sunday this year, we will follow our usual Mass schedule on the weekend of December 31 and January 1.

Parish offices will reopen Tuesday January 3

Refugee Resettlement Program

For anyone interested in helping a refugee family find a home, get settled and find their way in a new country, we will be having a training sponsored by the International Rescue Committee. This will be a Zoom training on Jan 11 and 13 from 9-12 noon. Please email Chris Durnan at chrisdurnan4@gmail.com.

Religious Education & Family Ministry (PreK – 8th grade)

Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God

The shepherds found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger. And once they saw them, they understood what God's message meant. This knowledge is another gift from God. In the midst of all these amazing events is the quiet person of Mary. It is through her cooperation that all these blessings have come to us according to God's plan. She does not brag, or talk, or doubt. Luke tells us that she treasured all these things and reflected on them in her heart. What are the "treasures" you have been given in the gift of Jesus? Ask Mary to help you reflect on them in your heart, as she did.

Mary, help us to put our trust in God as you did. Pray the Hail Mary together as a family.

Have a Blessed New Year!

LIFE-LONG PARISHIONERS

The Octave Day of the Nativity of the Lord: Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God

Sunday, January 1, 2023

First Reading

Numbers 6:22-27

God gives a blessing for the Israelites.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 67:2-3,5,6,8

All the people sing praises to God.

Second Reading

Galatians 4:4-7

God sent his Son to make us children of God.

Gospel Reading

Luke 2:16-21

The shepherds find Jesus in a manger in Bethlehem.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's reading is a continuation from the Gospel proclaimed at the Christmas Mass at midnight. In it the shepherds act upon the message they receive from the angel and go to find Jesus in the manger in Bethlehem. In their visit to the manger, the shepherds find things just as the angel had said. The shepherds' visit, therefore, is a moment of fulfillment, manifestation, and the beginning of the salvation we receive through Christ.

In the context of today's Solemnity, this reading also helps us focus on Mary as the Mother of God. The reading tells us at least three things about Mary as a mother. First, Mary is described as a reflective person, keeping the reports of the shepherds in her heart. Second, we are reminded of how obedient Mary was to God when she named the baby Jesus as the angel Gabriel had directed. Third, this reading shows Mary and Joseph faithfully observing their Jewish tradition by having Jesus circumcised.

Mary's faithfulness to God is evident in all three of these things. Her reflection upon the events in her life indicates that she was a person of prayer. This prayer made possible her obedience to God and God's will, even if the outcome was not clear. Finally, her faithfulness to a community of faith grounded her relationship with God and enabled her to participate in God's plan of salvation.

Because of Mary's faithfulness to God, she was able to receive the gift of God's Son and accept her role in God's plan for salvation. By doing so, she models for us the path of discipleship and is also called Mother of the Church.

Our call to discipleship also includes these three aspects. First, discipleship means prayer and reflection on the events of our lives that we might see God's presence and work in our lives. Second, discipleship means obedience to God and God's will. Third, discipleship includes fidelity to a community of faith.

SCAM ALERT of Emails and Texts from Fr. Ron Bagley

Once again, an email scammer is trying to take advantage of our parishioners. The person sends an email or text to parishioners claiming to be Fr. Ron, and asks for gift cards or cash or asks for some favors. Fr. Ron will never make such requests of parishioners. Another indication that it is a scam is to look at the email address of the sender. It will have Fr. Ron's name in it but it is not his email. Please delete these emails and block the texts immediately as such a request will never come from the parish through an email or text.
