A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

This week the Church celebrates two important feast days: The Feast of the Exultation of the Holy Cross (September 14) and the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows (September 15). Of course, it is no accident that these two celebrations appear one after the other on our liturgical calendar. After focusing on the meaning of the cross as a powerful symbol of the self-sacrifice of Jesus Christ, we reflect on the share that Mary his mother had in his suffering.

Any mother knows sorrow. It is part of loving. We open ourselves to the pain of those we love. Don't we see mothers suffering today in the same ways that Mary did?

When I think of Mary receiving the painful prophecy of Simeon, I think of mothers who are told that their new-born child has a terrible disease or a severe handicap.

When I think of the flight of the holy family into Egypt, I think of so many mothers who are refugees and have had to leave their homes in order to protect their family.

When I think of Mary and Joseph having lost the child Jesus in the temple of Jerusalem, I think of the frantic search of mothers for their lost children, whether it be in the shopping mall, or to kidnappers, or mothers who have lost their children to prostitution, drug addiction, or other lures of the world.

When I think of Mary meeting Jesus on his way to Calvary and weeping with the other women of Jerusalem, I think of the many mothers I have met who visit their sons in prison and weep over their destiny.

When I think of Mary standing at the foot of the Cross, I think of so many mothers who are powerless to alleviate the sufferings of their children and can only stand by and suffer with them.

When I think of Mary watching Jesus being taken from the Cross, I think of so many mothers who have held the lifeless bodies of their children who died way too early as a result of senseless violence.

When I think of Mary going to the tomb for the burial of her Son, I think of the many funerals I have celebrated for children and have heard the anguish of mothers who struggle to understand why.

The Mother of Sorrows – Mater Dolorosa – has much to offer these women. She stands with them in their sufferings. She holds out hope to them. She is a witness of faith in God in the midst of suffering. She is a faithful disciple. And you don't have to be a mother to learn from her.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús les dijo entonces esta parábola: "¿Quién de ustedes, si tiene cien ovejas y se le pierde una, no deja las noventa y nueve en el campo y va en busca de la que se le perdió hasta encontrarla?" En el Evangelio de este XXIV Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Jesús nos habla de tres parábolas. La primera es la de las cien ovejas, y cuando se pierde una oveja deja las 99 para buscar la perdida. Jesús termina esa parábola diciendo, "en el cielo habrá más alegría por un pecador que se arrepiente, que por 99 justos que no necesitan arrepentirse". La segunda es de la mujer que tiene diez monedas, pero cuando pierde una moneda, hace lo necesario para encontrarla, y cuando la encuentra, se llena alegría, y les dice a sus amigas, "Yo les aseguro que así también se alegran los ángeles de Dios por un solo pecador que se arrepiente". La tercera es del hijo pródigo, que, por su egoísmo, le pide a su Padre la parte de la herencia que le corresponde. Y con el dinero en su mano se va y lo malgasta todo. Estando con los cerdos, se "acuerda" del mal que había hecho, se "acuerda" de su Padre amoroso, y se arrepiente, se levanta y regresa a su Padre. El Padre lo recibe con mucha alegría y prepara una fiesta, dice, "mi hijo estaba muerto y ha vuelto a la vida, estaba perdido y lo hemos encontrado". Dios siempre nos espera hay que tener cuidado de no caer en la falsa idea de que no necesitamos arrepentirnos de nada. Hay que mirarnos hacia dentro, y no perder la oportunidad de estar en las manos amorosas de Dios.

- Diacono Miguel Enríquez

Outreach with Synod Survey

As a part of the Synod process, our Diocese continues to seek the feedback of as many people as possible. That is why Cardinal McElroy is encouraging that each and everyone of us participate in a survey that will further assist the church in better ministering at all levels. All those who receive our parish email newsletter will receive the survey sent directly to them in early September.

But we want to reach out beyond those who are coming to church and active in the parish. We want to hear from those members who have distanced themselves from the Catholic Church or perhaps left the Catholic faith completely. Their voices matter to us!

We invite you to help in this effort. Please use the following QR code to personally invite someone who may not otherwise know of this opportunity to take the survey.

A paper with the QR code can also be found in the pews of the church during the month of September. They are also available in the parish office. Take as many as you like. Let's be proactive and invite family members, friends or neighbors to share their input.

The survey will be open online for 30 days beginning September 6. We look forward to hearing from you!

Have you wondered about becoming a Catholic?

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

- Do you have a family member who is considering the Catholic faith?
- Were you baptized but never receive Christian formation or the other sacraments?
- Are you an adult who was never confirmed?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions or if you just have a lot of questions about being Catholic, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is for you. A new group is forming now. They will meet every Tuesday beginning September 13, and continuing until Easter 2023.

If you would like to know more about it, contact Brick Langford at 760-607-9287 or carlsbadbrick@gmail.com.

Religious Education & Family Ministry (PreK – 8th grade)

Welcome to a New Year of Faith Formation

As we begin our catechetical year, we ask for God's blessing on our students, parents, and catechists:

May Jesus open our minds to learn, our eyes to see, our ears to hear, and our hearts to care.

May we follow Jesus' way to love for our own good and the good of others.

May we bear witness to Jesus and talk about him, proclaiming him with our lives.

Please pray for the catechists in our programs that they will experience God's grace and deepen their faith as they generously assist the young people to grow in relationship with Jesus.

Weekly Classes

Sunday classes: Sept 11, 18, 25

Monday classes: Sept 12, 19, 26

Wednesday classes: Sept 14, 21, 28

Reflection: 24th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Jesus demonstrates with parables that God loves the sinner who repents. Jesus' critics do not understand that saving the lost is cause for greater rejoicing than simple faithfulness. God is merciful to those who return, yet supportive of those who are already faithful followers.

Have you ever felt you were not getting credit for your good works? What did you do?

Prayer Intention: Jesus, our teacher, stay with us.

Registration for weekly classes for students from age 3 to 8th grade is still open.

Monthly Family Mass

We are planning to initiate a monthly celebration focused on families at the 9:00 am Mass. We will try to gear the readings, homily, music, etc. to families with children. We want to form a committee to work on the planning and preparation for this Monthly Family Mass. Fr. Ron is looking for parents both from our school and our religious education program who would like to be a part of this committee. If you are interested, send an email to Fr. Ron (rmbagley@yahoo.com).

This first Family Mass will be on Sunday, September 25 at 9:00 am.

Ukrainian/Afghan Refugees

Ukraine and Afghanistan seem to be fading from our news services, but the needs of the people in these countries are still very real. How can we help? That's what goes through my mind every day. Our brothers and sisters at Jewish Family Services are doing something. They are enabling groups of caring people here in SD to sponsor families (already vetted) from these countries. These groups help them find lodging, English classes, schools for their children, and help them understand the banking system, shopping and social services.

We will have a zoom meeting on Thursday, Sept. 15th at 6 pm to hear about the program and ask questions. If you would like to help with sponsoring a family please contact Chris Durnan (chrisdurnan4@gmail.com or call 760-533-7139). She will send you the zoom link. This presentation will be held to one hour.

Let's be God's love in the world!

Matthew

The King and His Kingdom

The book of Matthew brings the history of Christ to life. We see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the kingdom of heaven. Matthew: The King and His Kingdom, a twenty-four-part Bible study, explores how Jesus is challenging and empowering us to a new level of holiness and shows how we must be thoroughly immersed in the kingdom of heaven on earth, the Church, to live it.

St. Patrick's Ruah Adonai – Breath of God Bible Study group will hold registration for the 2022-23 bible study on the gospel of Matthew this weekend September 10 and 11.

Please join us on the patio to register.
