A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

St. John Eudes, the founder of the Congregation of Jesus and Mary (Eudist Fathers), was born in a small village called Ri, located in the Normandy region of France. His birth date is November 14, 1601. That makes him 421 years old as we celebrate his birthday this Monday.

The 17th century was a tumultuous time in France. There were political conflicts, and the Bubonic Plague made several visits to the country. For various reasons, it was a difficult time for the Church as well. Priests were poorly prepared for their ministry and ordinary people lacked good catechesis. Many were confused by the push and pull between the Reformers and the staunch defenders of the Gallican Church.

But there was also a strong spiritual reform movement emerging in France at that time. It included priests, religious and lay people. It came to be known as the 17th Century French School of Spirituality. The person credited with initiating this movement was Cardinal Pierre de Berulle who also founded the Oratory of Jesus in Paris. Its purpose was to give a spiritual foundation to priests who were too often motivated by financial gain and had lost morals. John Eudes joined the Oratory as a young man and was ordained there. He shared Berulle's zeal for renewing the faith in France and giving a proper formation to the clergy.

In 1643, John Eudes founded the Congregation of Jesus and Mary. From the beginning, its clear purpose was the renewal of faith (evangelization) through the preaching of parish missions. John Eudes quickly gained a reputation as an outstanding preacher. His team of priests would go from town to town to stir up and re-awaken the faith in the hearts of lukewarm Christian people.

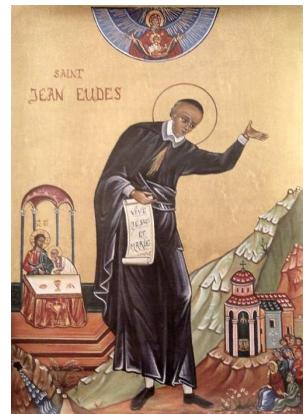

A second aim of his Congregation was the formation of the clergy. The houses of his Congregation were to be "schools of holiness" where priests would discover the proper orientation of their ministry rooted in a close relationship with the Lord Jesus and his holy Mother (whom John Eudes referred to as "the true superiors of our Congregation").

As a spiritual motivation for this evangelization and renewal of the clergy, John Eudes offered the devotion to the Heart of Jesus and Mary. (He saw the two hearts as closely united.) This symbol of the Heart invites us to unite ourselves with the love that Jesus and Mary have for each other. It is an apostolic spirituality that sends us out to bring the love and mercy of God to those whom St. John Eudes called "the most miserable of people" (les misères des misérables), very similar to Pope Francis' challenge to go to the peripheries. John Eudes wanted us to preach God's mercy to all, to offer healing to those who were estranged or hurting, and to strengthen the faith of those who had grown tepid.

As we celebrate the birthday of St. John Eudes this week, we Eudist priests renew our desire to be "missionaries of mercy who offer the world the tenderness of the love of the Heart of Jesus and Mary."

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

En aquel tiempo, como algunos ponderaban la solidez de la construcción del templo y la belleza de las ofrendas votivas que lo adornaban, Jesús dijo: "Días vendrán en que no quedará piedra sobre piedra de todo esto que están admirando; todo será destruido".

El próximo fin de semana, cerramos el año litúrgico con la Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo. En el Evangelio de este domingo, san Lucas nos sigue hablando fuerte de no enfocarnos en las cosas de este mundo. Sino enfocarnos más y más en la vida que nos espera, en la vida eterna con nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Pero las cosas de este mundo, las cosas materiales tienen la tendencia de distraernos de las cosas de Dios. Miramos que otros tienen de más, carros, dinero, ropa, joyas, una cantidad de cosas y "parece" que siempre están de "fiesta" con sus sonrisas disfrutando la vida. Nosotros también deseamos lo mismo para ser, según, felices. Pero el precio de estas cosas es muy alto, nuestras relaciones con nuestros seres queridos sufren y son dañadas. En el Evangelio, también los discípulos de Jesús se encontraban tan maravillados por la solidez del templo y las ofrendas votivas que lo adornaban. Pero Jesús les dice, que todo esto será destruido en el final. Le preguntan cuando iba a suceder esto, Jesús les dice que no se preocupen cuando sucederá esto, que sucederán muchas cosas malas, pero que nuestra confianza y mirada en Dios no tambaleé, que él está con nosotros, "que no caerá ningún cabello de nuestra cabeza". ¿Qué más queremos o buscamos? ¡Dios nos ama! Vivir reflejando su amor.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Reflection: 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

When times of great difficulties come there is hope for those who persevere in faith. Jesus is assuring his followers that

God is present to all believers. He will not abandon his followers when they will face persecution for their beliefs. He will give them the right words to speak in times of adversity. God's wisdom and power will be shown to them. Ultimately, Jesus will witness to this with his own death. As disciples of Jesus, we follow his example, trusting in God's mercy and protection, even when we are facing difficulties.

Children: How does your faith help you when you are worried and anxious?

Adults: How might God bring good out of difficult events?

Prayer: Place these difficult situations into God's hand and pray for the needs of the people involved.

God our Father, your light will always outshine the darkness of fear.

We offer faith formation for children in preschool thought middle school. Please contact us at 760-729-8442 or

WWWA Advent Mini Retreat

She said, "YES!"

Join us for a journey this Advent to ponder Mary's humble "yes" and reflect on the areas in our own lives where we may be challenged to say "yes" to God's plan.

Anamaria Anthony, Department Chair of Theology at Mater Dei Catholic High School, in Chula Vista, will take us on this journey and help us to discover how the ordinary becomes the extraordinary. See how lived experiences and God's Word can come together and settle within our hearts to transform us as we anticipate Christ coming into our lives more fully.
