A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

I think Thanksgiving Day may be my favorite holiday. As I ask myself why I think that way, I guess it is because it is a holiday that has not been hijacked by secular images. It's not like when Santa Claus eclipses Baby Jesus, or the Easter Bunny gets more spotlight than the Risen Christ. The focus of Thanksgiving is pure and simple: it is a day to give thanks. Although sometimes unspoken, the One to whom we give thanks is God. Not even a turkey or football games can obscure that intent.

To give thanks means that we recognize that everything is a gift. God has blessed us with so many gifts. We gather with family and friends to give thanks for the many blessings that we have received. Life itself is a gift. Even if we have had struggles or hardships, we can usually find something for which to be grateful.

Gratitude is a virtue that I think is closely related to humility. Why would I say that? Humility is the recognition that I am not self-made. Humility means realizing that I am not in control of everything (or anything). It means accepting the truth about myself and about God who created us and sustains us in being. Humility leads one to give credit where credit is due: to our benevolent God. Gratitude is an expression of that humble recognition.

Likewise, the virtue of gratitude leads to another virtue: generosity. When you realize that all is gift and that God will always bless you with gifts, then you are ready to freely share of your blessings with others. That is why so many people feel especially generous at Thanksgiving time. Here at St. Patrick's, our collection at Mass on Thanksgiving Day (all of it!), goes to providing our Christmas Gift Baskets to those in need. Thank you in advance for making it possible for us to help our less fortunate brothers and sisters.

Please join us for our Bilingual Mass on Thanksgiving Day. It will be celebrated on Thursday, November 24 at 9:00 am. It is our only Mass on that day. I will preside and give the homily, and all our priests will be concelebrating. Let us join together as a parish family in giving thanks to the Lord, our God.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

PS: Next week's e-newsletter will be sent out on Wednesday, November 23.

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“Él existe antes que todas las cosas, y todas tienen su consistencia en Él. Él es también la cabeza del cuerpo, que es la Iglesia. Él es el principio, el primogénito dentro los muertos, para que sea el primero en todo”.

Este domingo, la Iglesia celebra la gran solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo. ¿Qué significa para nosotros este título de Jesús, Rey del Universo? Miramos en el mundo cómo se esfuerza el ser humano de querer tener posiciones de poder, y estas mismas personas nos bajan las lunas y las estrellas para “hacernos creer” que ellos nos darán lo que necesitamos. Pero en realidad, ningún ser humano, ningún partido político, puede darnos lo que Jesús puede darnos. La cita bíblica de arriba viene de la segunda lectura de este domingo, de la carta de san Pablo a los colosenses. San Pablo nos dice, “que Dios nos ha liberado del poder de las tinieblas, que hemos sido traslado al Reino de su Hijo amado, por cuya sangre recibimos redención y el perdón de los pecados. Que Cristo es la imagen de Dios visible. Él existe antes de todas las cosas”. Hermanos y hermanos, nos hincamos a Jesús crucificado, confiando que Él está con nosotros en todo, en los momentos alegres y en los momentos que no son alegres. Jesús nos vino a enseñarnos el gran amor de Dios para nosotros. ¡Cristo es nuestra Señor y Redentor! ¡Cristo es nuestro Rey! Emitámoslo en nuestra manera de vivir unos con otros. Pongamos nuestra mirada en Jesús, y sólo en Jesús.

Another Special Request from Fr. Ron

Thank you to all who helped with the purchase of our new van. We have reached the goal and I am very grateful.

After many months of inquiries and exploring options, we are ready to move forward on the removal of the bees from the bell tower of the church and then proceed with the termite control. We also need to repair a leak in the bell tower that causes damage in the sacristy whenever it rains.

We will need to rent scaffolding and enlist the services of a specialist in bee removal. Once the bees have been removed and the inside of the bell tower has been cleaned (to avoid their return), we will be ready to proceed with the tenting of the church and termite extermination.

We will move on these two projects as quickly as possible. All work will be done on weekdays to avoid conflict with weekend Masses. There will be some weekdays that Mass will be moved to the parish hall. We are not sure yet of the exact dates, but I will communicate them to you as soon as we know.

Here is where I need your help. The total cost of scaffolding, bee removal, leak repair and termite exterminating will be approximately $35,000. The biggest chunk of that cost is the termite extermination. It is urgent that we have this done as soon as possible. If you can help defray the cost of this major expense, I would be most grateful.

Once again, I would ask you to make your donation for this extraordinary expense through our Parish Construction and Repair Fund (gold envelopes) or by going to online giving and contributing there. Please indicate that it is a donation for "bees and termites." All donations given for this purpose are "restricted giving" and will be used exclusively to pay for this repair.

Thank you again for your generosity.

Fr. Ron

Our Knights of Columbus will be holding a flower sale on the weekend of November 19-20 on the church patio. As always, the proceeds of the flower sale will benefit Birth Choice of San Marcos. The Knights will be selling the flowers at all Masses until they run out. The cost remains at $15.00 per bunch.

Collection for National Needs

In order to reduce the number of special collections taken up for national Church needs, the US Catholic Bishops have asked us to take up one collection that covers many areas. On the weekend of November 19 -20, you are asked to use the envelope for this purpose in your packet or the online giving site to contribute to the work of the US Bishops. Envelopes are also available at the doors of the church. This replaces the former collections for Black and Indian Mission, Catholic University of America, Catholic Communications Campaign and Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Thank you for your generosity.

2022 Catholic Annual Appeal

Perhaps you have been waiting to make your donation to the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). Maybe you want to make a thanksgiving offering for blessings received. Maybe you want to make an end-of-the-year donation so you can count it as a deduction.

Thank you for all those who have already made their annual donation to ACA. For those who need more information, there are brochures at the doors of the church. You can also visit the diocesan website <https://giving.diocese-sdiego.org/>. You can also access this through our parish website. If you have questions, you can also call our parish office.

Winter Clothing and Items Needed

Warm Jackets
Hoodies
Beanies
Gloves
Sleeping Bags
Backpacks

You could drop off your donations on Tuesdays between 7am and 12pm at Fr Moore Hall on Madison St. or Mon-Fri at the parish office.

Christmas Gift Baskets

Applications for the Christmas gift Baskets are now being accepted for individuals and families who need a little extra help this Christmas. Please call the parish office at, 760-729-2866 for more details.

This program benefits parish families in need.

All applicant information is strictly confidential.

Thank you

The Knights of Columbus wish to thank everyone who participated in the Tootsie Roll drive. St. Patrick parishioners donated $2,300.00 to the National Alliance on Mental Illness. Thank you to the Knights for making this possible.

Religious Education & Family Ministry
(PreK – 8th grade)

Weekly Classes

No classes this week! Classes resume Sunday, November 27, which is the first Sunday of Advent.

Reflection: Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

The criminal that suffered alongside Jesus clearly saw what made Jesus the King: strength in humility, power in sacrifice, richness in mercy.

How do we prepare our homes and hearts for Christ the King?

Prayer: Jesus Christ, grant us the clarity to recognize you as our King.

Outreach Projects

Thank you to all who donated Halloween Candy and participated in our Service Afternoon.

The children packed 120+ quarter size Candy bags and created Christmas cards to accompany the bags.

Families from our program together with parishioners made 22 fleece blankets.

The blankets put together with stuffed animals and the candy will assist the Sisters of House of the Poor in Tijuana to make Christmas sweeter and warmer for more than the 1700 families they serve!

Have a Blessed Thanksgiving!

“Loving God, we turn our hearts to you. You have blessed us in many ways in the beauty and freedom in our land and the gifts of family and community. We praise you and thank you. May our gratitude turn into caring for those in need. Bless our Thanksgiving meal and all united at our table and our family members who are not at our side today. Amen.”

We offer faith formation for children in preschool through middle school. Please contact us at 760-729-8442 or mdornisch@stpatrickcarlsbad.com.

Blessings, Margit Dornisch - Office for Religious Education and Family Ministry.

PARISH OFFICES CLOSED

In observance of the Thanksgiving Holiday, all parish offices will be closed Nov 24 & Nov 25

Shoes to the World

On the weekend of December 10-11, Shoes to the World will be at the church patio fundraising to provide new shoes for homeless children and adults.

100% of your donation will purchase NEW shoes to be distributed by volunteers to impoverished children and adults. Many of these poor currently wear bacteria filled worn-out hand-me-down shoes. Additionally, we are starting a project with Fr. Azam to bring shoes to people in the flood devastated areas of Pakistan.

Please visit www.ShoestotheWorld.Org to see donations at work; this 501-c-3 non-profit works as a volunteer only organization.

Family Mass

Our next Family Mass will be on Sunday, November 27 at 9:00 am. It will be the First Sunday of Advent and we will focus on celebrating the season of Advent at home. There will be a special gift for 50 families. Plan to join in this joyful celebration of Advent hope.

The Cross of Christ

“Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

Luke 23:43

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Almighty ever-living God, whose will is to restore all things
in your beloved Son, the King of the universe,
grant, we pray,
that the whole creation, set free from slavery,
may render your majesty service and ceaselessly proclaim your praise.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
