A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

When we pray the Confiteor (“I confess to almighty God...”), we ask the Lord to forgive our sins and we specify “for what I have done and for what I have failed to do.” Not only do we need to think about what we have done that has hurt people, but we also need to be conscious of our failure to do something that we could and should have done for someone in need.

That is the lesson that Jesus also teaches in today’s gospel when he tells a parable about a rich man who walks past a poor man named Lazarus. Every day he ignores this man’s situation. He doesn’t do anything to harm him or hurt him. He just doesn’t do anything.

This same parable was the gospel reading that was read at the Mass celebrated in Yankee Stadium by Pope St. John Paul II in 1979 during his first trip to USA. He was speaking to a stadium full of young people. Here is part of what the Holy Father told those young people who filled Yankee Stadium on that day in October 1979:

“We cannot stand idly by, enjoying our own riches and freedom, if in any place Lazarus stands at our door. In light of the parable of Christ, riches and freedom mean a special responsibility. Riches and freedom create a special responsibility.

“And so, in the name of the solidarity that binds us together in a common humanity, I again proclaim the dignity of every human person. The rich man and Lazarus are both human beings, both of them equally created in the image and likeness of God, both of them equally redeemed by Christ at a great price, the price of the precious blood of Christ...

“The poor of the world are your brothers and sisters in Christ. You must never be content to leave them just the crumbs of the feast. You must take of your substance, and not just of your abundance, in order to help them. And you must treat them like guests at your family table.”

The words of St. John Paul II in 1979 are still very relevant to our society today. When he first spoke them, he was challenging those young people at that time to do more for those who lacked the basic necessities of life. We need to allow his words to still challenge us today.

In one Heart,

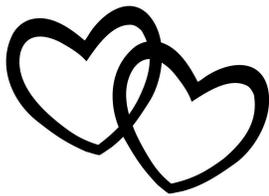

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

En aquel tiempo, Jesús les dijo a los fariseos: "Había un hombre rico, que se vestía de púrpura y telas finas y banqueteaba espléndidamente cada día. Y un mendigo, llamado Lázaro, yacía a la entrada de su casa, cubierto de llagas y ansiando llenarse con las sobras que caían de la mesa del rico... El domingo pasado escuchábamos en el Evangelio, que "no podemos servir a Dios y al dinero". Y decía en mi homilía, que el dinero nos confunde, nos miente y nos ciega. Como seres humanos, caemos en la idea de que somos autosuficientes, y es por "mi trabajo, mi esfuerzo, mi sacrificio, que tengo lo que tengo". Y juzgamos a otros que no tienen lo que tenemos; a esas personas que se paran en las esquinas pidiendo limosnas. Hasta pensamos, "están así porque quieren, ¡son unos flojos!". Este domingo, el Evangelio nos habla de otro hombre rico, que se vestía con ropas finas y banqueteaba todos los días. También nos habla de un mendigo, llamado Lázaro, que ansiaba llenarse con las sobras que caían de la mesa del rico. El hombre rico no lo miró, sólo podía mirar "su" comida, "su" reino, "sus" propias comodidades. El Evangelio nos dice que Lázaro se encuentra a un lado de Abraham (en el cielo), el hombre rico se encuentra en el lugar del castigo. ¿Qué nos dice este texto? No nos olvidemos de los pobres que están a nuestro alrededor. Estemos atentos a sus necesidades sin juzgar ni criticarlos. Dios está con ellos y escucha su llanto, espera que seamos "cristos" para ellos, tratándolos con dignidad y caridad.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

El grupo de matrimonios los invita a participar en nuestras reuniones todos los sábados después de la Santa Misa.

Nos reunimos de las 8:00pm a las 9:30pm en el sótano de la iglesia.

¡Los esperamos!

Outreach with Synod Survey

As a part of the Synod process, our Diocese continues to seek the feedback of as many people as possible. That is why Cardinal McElroy is encouraging that each and everyone of us participate in a survey that will further assist the church in better ministering at all levels. All those who receive our parish email newsletter will receive the survey sent directly to them in early September.

But we want to reach out beyond those who are coming to church and active in the parish. We want to hear from those members who have distanced themselves from the Catholic Church or perhaps left the Catholic faith completely. Their voices matter to us!

We invite you to help in this effort. Please use the following QR code to personally invite someone who may not otherwise know of this opportunity to take the survey.

A paper with the QR code can also be found in the pews of the church during the month of September. They are also available in the parish office. Take as many as you like. Let's be proactive and invite family members, friends or neighbors to share their input.

The survey will be open online for 30 days beginning September 6. We look forward to hearing from you!

Did You Know?

St. Patrick Parish can offer Holy Communion with low gluten hosts. This is specifically for those who are gluten intolerant. The host is consecrated in a separate pyx to avoid cross contamination and it is consecrated at the specific Mass during which it will be received.

If you or someone in your family needs to receive a low gluten host, come to the sacristy 15 minutes before Mass begins or call the parish office during the week prior to the Mass they will attend. If you have any questions, contact Fr. Ron at the parish office and he can explain how it works. It is quite simple, and we are happy to provide this service.

Monthly Family Gathering: Sunday, October 9, 10:15-11:15am
We will pray a family rosary. The rosary is a beautiful and ancient prayer. It suits all ages and uses all our senses. As we pray to God, the Father, and turn to Mary, our Mother, we reflect on the life of Jesus, make petitions, praise God, and thank God for blessings.

The Gathering is open to all. Join us in the parish hall after 9am mass.

Reflection: 26th Sunday of Ordinary Time

"You cannot give yourself to God and to wealth" was Jesus' teaching in last week's gospel. In today's gospel Jesus describes the eternal reward of Lazarus and the consequences the rich man must endure from the way he lived among his neighbors. The rich man valued his wealth above everything and everyone. He neglected charity and the needs of others. He did not see the beggar Lazarus at his doorstep. Righteous living calls for works of mercy. Works of mercy are kind acts by which we help our neighbor with their material, emotional, and spiritual needs.

What kind acts can we do this week to support a classmate, friend, or family member?

Do you need help in teaching the faith to young people in your family? We offer faith formation for children in preschool through middle school. Vote NO on Proposition #1

Sadly, California is presently one of the most permissive states in the nation for abortion. Proposition 1 promotes an unlimited expansion of abortion here, while its defeat would keep all abortion laws as they are, including our common-sense limits on late-term abortions. Our bishops are calling us to unite in prayer and action to defeat Prop 1.

LIFE-LONG PARISHIONERS

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

First Reading

Amos 6:1,4-7

God will judge the complacency of the people and their leaders.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 146:7-10

Happy are those who find solace in God, the help of the poor.

Second Reading

1 Timothy 6:11-16

Paul exhorts Timothy to stay faithful to God in all things.

Gospel Reading

Luke 16:19-31

Jesus tells the parable of the reversal of fortunes between the rich man and the poor man, Lazarus.

Background on the Gospel Reading

A major theme in the Gospel of Luke is the importance of the care of the poor in the life of discipleship. In the parable found in today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the life of a rich man and the poor man, Lazarus, who lives in the shadow of the rich man and his wealth. Both die. Lazarus finds himself in heaven; the rich man in the netherworld. The rich man asks for assistance from Lazarus in his torment. But Abraham reminds the rich man of the good things he had in his life and describes the current situation as a reversal of fortunes. The rich man then asks that Lazarus be sent to warn his family, but this is denied with the reminder that Moses and the prophets have warned of judgment for those who neglect the care of the poor.

In the context of Luke's Gospel, this parable, delivered in the presence of a crowd of listeners, is part of Jesus' response to some Pharisees. These Pharisees are described in Luke's Gospel as "loving money." (Note: The Pharisees were followers of a sect of Judaism active before, during, and after Jesus' lifetime. They taught an oral interpretation of the Law of Moses as the basis for popular Jewish piety. They put less emphasis on Temple worship and more on applying the law to everyday life. Though they are often portrayed negatively in the Gospels, they shared many of Jesus' and the early Church's concerns about the law.) Jesus observed that the actions of some Pharisees betrayed misplaced priorities: they spoke one way, but acted in another. The story of the rich man and Lazarus demonstrates the importance of the care of the poor and is a reminder to those who would follow Jesus of the unimportance of wealth in the eyes of God.

Fall Bible Study

Originally, we had planned to study St. Paul's letter to the Romans, but the books are not currently available. Here is our new theme from three Old Testament prophets.

A Call to Justice - Amos/Hosea/Micah

Biblical prophets listen to God.

They become powerful voices:

Amos as the defender of the poor.

Hosea as a parable of God's love for his people.

Micah as a presence for God's faithfulness.

Their speech takes us in.

How do we respond to God, who enters the mess of human sin to rebuke and renew?
